Building a Dream Richard Kelso,1993 Describes Mary Bethune s struggle to establish a school for black children in Daytona Beach Florida Building a Dream Richard Kelso,1993 Describes Mary Bethune s struggle to establish a school for black children in Daytona Beach Florida The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks

Higginbotham,2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Mary McLeod Bethune Yahya Jongintaba,2023-08-18 Mary McLeod Bethune was born on May 10 1875 in a log cabin in rural Sumter County South Carolina She was the fifteenth child among seventeen siblings but the first born free of the bonds of slavery As a child she attended a Presbyterian mission school in nearby Mayesville and Scotia Seminary in Concord North Carolina After some years at Scotia she was admitted in 1894 to the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago Her two years of training at Moody did not lead to missionary work in Africa as she had dreamed but to missionlike teaching positions in the South and eventually her founding in 1904 of the Daytona Normal and Industrial Institute for Girls in Daytona Beach Florida That institution would grow to the present day Bethune Cookman University In this religious biography author Yahya Jongintaba traces Bethune s life of service in lively prose structuring his book in a five part framework that organizes his subject s life in parallel with the Lord s Prayer and virtues identified by Bethune herself freedom creativity integrity discipline and love With unfettered access to Bethune s personal archive Jongintaba paints a picture of a mother figure and mentor to generations a nearsaint who lived a blameless life for four score years With deep empathy and the kind of spiritual understanding that Bethune had despaired of finding in a biographer in her own lifetime despite attempts by publishers and herself to find just the right person Jongintaba endeavors to achieve in his biography what Bethune wrote that she hoped to accomplish in an autobiography that never materialized to give to the world the real Mary McLeod Bethune s life as I have lived it Faith, Hope and Charity Sam Kelley,2014-02 The current script is a revised and updated version of the production presented by the Paul Robeson Performing Arts Company Acknowledgments

Mary McLeod Bethune Sandra Donovan,2003 Recounts the life of Mary McLeod Bethune an African American educator who fought poverty and discrimination founded a college and worked with Franklin Delano Roosevelt to improve opportunities for blacks Making Freedom Primary Source, Inc,2004 Outstanding curriculum resource with clear objectives and meaningful activities Each volume has an accompanying CD ROM in a separate folder that is packed with primary source documents Mary McLeod Bethune and Black Women's Political Activism Joyce A. Hanson,2003-03-14 Mary McLeod Bethune was a significant figure in American political history She devoted her life to advancing equal social economic and political rights for blacks She distinguished herself by creating lasting institutions that trained black women for visible and expanding public leadership roles Few have been as effective in the development of women's leadership for group advancement. Despite her accomplishments, the means, techniques, and actions Bethune employed in fighting for equality have been widely misinterpreted. Mary McLeod Bethune and Black Women's Political Activism seeks to remedy the misconceptions surrounding this important political figure. Joyce A. Hanson shows that the choices Bethune made often appear contradictory unless one understands that she was a transitional figure with one foot in the nineteenth century and the other in the twentieth. Bethune, who lived from 1875 to 1955, struggled to reconcile her nineteenth-century notions of women's moral superiority with the changing political realities of the twentieth century. She used two conceptually distinct levels of activism: one nonconfrontational and designed to slowly undermine systemic racism; the other openly confrontational and designed to challenge the most overt discrimination in her efforts to achieve equality. Hanson uses a wide range of never or little used primary sources and adds a significant dimension to the historical discussion of black women's organizations by such scholars as Elsa Barkley Brown, Sharon Harley, and Rosalyn Terborg-Penn. The book extends the current debate about black women's political activism in recent work by Stephanie Shaw, Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, and Glenda Elizabeth Gilmore. Examining the historical evolution of African American women's activism in the critical period between 1920 and 1950, a time previously characterized as doldrums for both feminist and civil rights activity, Mary McLeod Bethune and Black Women's Political Activism is important for understanding the centrality of black women to the political fight for social, economic, and racial justice.

Strength Like an Eagle Jimmy R. Stevens, 2012-12-04 This book was written to encourage the body of Christ to know that no matter what we face in life, we can have the strength like an eagle. Eagles are strong birds; their wings help them glide, protect their young, and keep harm away. We too can possess this strength in keeping our minds and hearts focused and believing that with God, all things are possible. Just as the Lord provides and protects the fowl of the air, so shall He do the same for us.
