Building A National Literature The Case Of Germany 1830 187:

Building a National Literature Peter Uwe Hohendahl, 2016-11-01 Building a National Literature boldly takes issue with traditional literary criticism for its failure to explain how literature as a body is created and shaped by institutional forces Peter Uwe Hohendahl approaches literary history by focusing on the material and ideological structures that determine the canonical status of writers and works He examines important elements in the making of a national literature including the political and literary public sphere the theory and practice of literary criticism and the emergence of academic criticism as literary history Hohendahl considers such key aspects of the process in Germany as the rise of liberalism and nationalism the delineation of the borders of German literature the idea of its history the understanding of its cultural function and the notion of a canon of major and minor authors Publishing in Tsarist Russia Yukiko Tatsumi, Taro Tsurumi, 2020-02-20 According to Benedict Anderson the rapid expansion of print media during the late 1700s popularised national history and standardised national languages thus helping create nation states and national identities at the expense of the old empires Publishing in Tsarist Russia challenges this theory and by examining the history of Russian publishing through a transnational lens reveals how the popular press played an important and complex Imperial role while providing a soft infrastructure which the subjects could access to change Imperial order As this volume convincingly argues this is because the Russian language at this time was a lingua franca it crossed borders and boundaries reaching speakers of varying nationalities Russian publications then were able to effectively operate within the structure of Imperialism but as a public space they went beyond the control of the Tsar and ethnic Russians This exciting international team of scholars provide a much needed fresh take on the history of Russian publishing and contribute significantly to our understanding of print media language and empire from the 18th to 20th centuries Publishing in Tsarist Russia is therefore a vital resource for scholars of Russian history comparative nationalism and publishing studies Michigan Germanic studies ,1999 Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2006 Valle-Inclán y su macrotexto literario Elvira Pirraglia, 2002 From Plunder to Preservation Astrid Swenson, Peter Mandler, 2013-05-30 This book looks at the effect of the British Empire on the cultures and civilisations of the peoples it ruled by considering the impact of empire on the idea of heritage Case studies and illustrations show how our understanding of the diverse heritages of world history was forged in the crucible of the British Empire Türk edebiyatı ve Birinci Dünya Savaşı, 1914-1918 Erol Köroğlu, 2004 Turkish literature World War 1914 1918 20th century history and criticism Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Music, Structure, Thought: Selected Essays James Hepokoski, 2017-07-05 Among the most original and provocative musicological writers of his generation James Hepokoski has elaborated new paradigms of inquiry for both music history and music theory Advocating fundamental shifts of methodological reorientation within the quest for potential musical meanings his work spans both disciplines and offers substantial challenges for each At its core is the conviction that a close study of musical genres procedures and structures those qualities of a composition that are specifically musical is essential to any responsible hermeneutic enterprise Selected from writings from 1984 to 2008 this collection of essays provides a generous introduction to the author s most innovative and influential work on a wide variety of topics musicological methodology issues of staging and performance Italian opera program music and exemplary studies of individual pieces The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1889 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1901 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1898 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1892 Niles' National Register ,1849 Catalogue of All Books in the Circulating and Reference Departments of the Public School Library, Columbus ... Columbus (Ohio).
