Building Economic Justice The Bishops Pastoral Letter And Tools For Action:

Building Economic Justice Catholic Church. National Conference of Catholic Bishops, 1987 The Frontiers of Catholicism Gene Burns, 1994-08-17 Why does the Catholic Church take a politically conservative stance on some issues such as abortion and birth control while on others such as social programs and nuclear policy it resembles the left Why do some Catholic groups reject the legitimacy of Church hierarchy and yet choose to remain within its fold To explain these apparent contradictions Gene Burns examines the origins of contemporary diversity and conflict in the Catholic Church as well as the processes of ideological change With valuable insights into the American Catholic Church the modern papacy and the Latin American Church The Frontiers of Catholicism is as much a political study of ideological dynamics as it is an institutional study of religious change The Catholic Library World John M. O'Loughlin, Francis Emmett Fitzgerald, 1986

Ethics and Economics ,1993 Jacques Maritain (1882-1973), Christian Democrat, and the Quest for a New Commonwealth M. Susan Power, 1992 This study examines Maritain's definition of the common good and personal rights and his analysis of christian democracy Also considers his endorsement of lay participation in Church and political affairs his effort to expand human rights internationally his insistence on social justice for members of the working class and his promotion of religious and racial toleration His vision for a new christian commonwealth has gained increasing significance because of the current opportunity for restructuring European affairs 79 95 196pp 1993 The Cumulative Book Index ,1989 A world list of books in the English language The Empowerment Process Mary Ellen Durbin, 1994 The Empowerment Process is a user friendly manual that is designed for those who wish to integrate and center social ministry into the ongoing life of their local Christian community American Book Publishing Record ,2000 Уровень русской жизни (а также американской) Igor' I[A]kovlevich Birman, 2004 The Bully Pulpit James L. Guth, 1997 Drawing on two decades of survey research involving thousands of ministers nationwide five social scientists explore the political lives of clergy in eight evangelical and mainline Protestant denominations including the Assemblies of God Southern Baptist Convention United Methodist Church and Presbyterian Church They find that the competing theological perspectives of orthodoxy and modernism are increasingly tied to ideological and partisan divisions in American politics and help illuminate the current relationship between church and state in America Paper edition unseen 19 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Human Rights in a Divided World David Hollenbach, 2024-07-01 An astute case for Catholic engagement with human rights for all Human rights should protect the dignity and well being of all people But in today's deeply divided world some argue that cultural differences and economic inequality undermine their universality In Human Rights in a Divided World David Hollenbach offers a comprehensive and cohesive analysis of the challenges to human rights suggesting that today's global realities call for important developments rooted in Catholic ethics This work of theological social ethics draws on a range of disciplines to address the question of whether or not human rights remain valid as universal standards for action in a multicultural religiously pluralistic and economically unequal world Hollenbach provides a compelling account of the contribution that Catholic ethics and practice make to an unequal world He applies the proposed understanding of human rights to several issues that are much debated today including religious freedom the rights of refugees and other forced migrants economic rights in the face of significant inequality and the rights of women Human Rights in a Divided World offers a clear path forward for the church in its engagement with politics and guidance for students of human rights as well as those working to advance them
