

BUILDING our ESSAYS

① I can compose mini-stories to provide evidence to support my ideas in my essay.

- 1) Start by choosing one of your bullet points. Ask yourself: "What true story can I think of that supports this point?"
- 2) Use what you know about writing good stories to compose (write) a mini-story on a notecard. It helps to use words like "One time" or "For example" to start.
- 3) Put the notecard in the correct pocket and start a new mini-story!

Potential Problems

Solution

I can't think of a story

Change your bullet point

I can't figure out which bullet point to put a story with

Check to make sure all your bullet points are different enough

My story doesn't really prove my point

Try angling the story differently, or compose a new mini-story
