Building Our Town:

Building a City Sheila E. Jelen, Jeffrey Saks, Wendy Zierler, 2023-08-15 The fiction of Nobel Laureate Shmuel Yosef Agnon is the foundation of the array of scholarly essays as seen through the career of Alan Mintz visionary scholar and professor of Jewish literature at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America Mintz introduced Agnon s posthumously published Ir Umeloah A City in Its Fullness a series of linked stories set in the 17th century and focused on Agnon s hometown Buczacz a town in what is currently western Ukraine to an English reading audience and argued that Agnon s unique treatment of Buczacz in A City in its Fullness navigating the sometimes tenuous boundary of the modernist and the mythical was a full throated self conscious literary response to the Holocaust This volume is an extension of a memorial dedicated to Mintz s memory who died suddenly in 2017 which combines selections of Alan s work from the beginning middle and end of his career with autobiographical tributes from older and younger scholars alike The essays dealing with Agnon and Buczacz remember the career of Alan Mintz and his contribution to the world of Jewish studies and within the world of Jewish communal life

Our Hometown Tarrant, AL USA Ray Songer, 2014-10-26 Living in a small hometown gave you so many precious memories you could share with those you grew up with Many lived there without knowing the origin of the town and who made it what it is These pages will tell the story of a small town just outside of Birmingham Alabama A rich history has been had by this town and hopefully these pages will tell the story of those who have lived there Memories of My Town Åström Anna-Maria,Korkiakangas Pirjo,Olsson Pia,2018-06-15 The volume Memories of my Town is an exploration into how town dwellers experience their environment in a complicated way As people in urban milieus relate themselves to the environment this takes place on many levels where especially the time level becomes problematic The urban buildings and settings can be looked upon as a kind of collective history as carriers or witnesses of times past But it is only the town dwellers that experience urban time itself the time they live in but through their memories also times past In this past some elements take symbolicaly dense expressions Through reliving and narrating their experiences the symbolically important factors in the this urban relationship will be outlined for investigations concerning three towns Helsinki the capital Viborg the ceded and lost Carelian town and Jyv skyl a town with dense commercial and civilisatory dimensions in the middle of Finland The symbolic aspects are the kern in all the articles of the book Memories of my Town The aim of the book and its articles has been to use different theoretical concepts as guidelines in analysing the different narrative texts Thus the articles are to be seen as independent contributions to the scientific discussion about places urbanism memories and narratives The ethnological outlook is on the other hand an outcome of the joint project Town Dwellers and their Places whereby the articles substancially relate to one another Thus the book can also be seen as a joint result of this urban project which was sponsored by the Finnish Academy The Art of Building a Home: A collection of lectures and illustrations Raymond Sir Unwin,Barry Parker,2022-07-21 In The Art of Building a Home A collection of lectures and illustrations Raymond Unwin and Richard Parker offer a comprehensive exploration of the principles that inform the design and construction of a domestic space The book is a harmonious blend of Unwin and Parker s expert knowledge presented through accessible prose erudite lectures and highly detailed illustrative floor plans and interior design ideas The authors delve into both the tactile and intangible aspects of home building providing a treatise that is historically situated within the movements of domestic architecture and the broader context of early 20th century design aesthetics The literary style marries practical know how with an eloquent reflection on the philosophy that underpins a considerate approach to creating homes that are not only built but also lived in and loved nRaymond Unwin an influential British architect and town planner along with his counterpart Richard Parker brought to the pages of this book their stellar expertise and visionary insights Their professional journey which found them at the forefront of the garden city movement imparts to their readers a profound understanding of how architecture intersects with societal well being and individual comfort Their passion for accessible beautiful and functional homes acts as the cornerstone for the lectures and illustrations compiled in this volume n The Art of Building a Home is an indispensable read for architects designers historians and anyone with a keen interest in the transformative power of well designed living spaces

It provides a philosophical perspective layered over rich practical guidance making it an essential reference that transcends its time. Rooted in the author's groundbreaking work and undiminished by the passage of time, the lessons within this tome remain as relevant today as when they were first shared. For those who believe that a home is more than mere shelter, this book will serve as both inspiration and instruction in the pursuit of crafting spaces that embody harmony, beauty, and function.

The Idea of a Town Joseph Rykwert, 2013-07-04 Roman towns and their history are generally regarded as being the preserve of the archaeologist or the economic historian. In this famous, unusual, and radical book, which touches on such disparate themes as psychology and urban architecture, Joseph Rykwert has considered them as works of art. His starting point is the mythical, historical, and ritual texts in which their foundation is recounted, rather than the excavated remains. Such texts having parallels not merely in ancient Greece but also further afield: Mesopotamia, India, and China. To achieve his reading of the Roman town, he has invoked the comparative method of the anthropologists, and he examines first of all the Etruscan rite, a group of ceremonies by which all or practically all Roman towns were founded. The basic institutions of the town, its walls and gates, its central shrines, and its forum are all of them part of a pattern to which the rituals and the myths that accompanied them provide clues. Like in other closed societies, these rituals and myths served to create a secure home for the citizen of Rome and to make him feel part of his city and place it firmly in a knowable universe. It is refreshing to look at standard themes of the history of urban design from a nonrational point of view, to see surveyors as quasi-priests and orthogonal planning as a sophisticated technique touched by divine mystery. Rykwert's lasting worth will be to wrench us away from rationalist simplicities and to make us face the fundamental disquiet of the human spirit in its claim to a permanent place on the land. Spiro Kostoff, Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians. Down to Earth Dharma

Rebecca Bradshaw, 2024-11-26 Buddhist teachings and heart-centered practices from the feminine paradigm to embrace receptivity and bring more balance to your life, relationships, and the world. With deeply thoughtful, lyrical prose, this book invites readers to engage with the world from a unique perspective that encourages feeling, intuitive understanding, embodiment, interdependence, and sacredness. Weaving together classical Theravada Buddhist teachings and mindfulness practices, the book teaches us when and how to channel our receptive and active orientations, sometimes called the feminine and masculine paradigms, to feel more at home in ourselves and the world and drop more deeply into the Buddhist teachings on suffering and happiness. Rebecca Bradshaw, a respected Buddhist teacher in the Insight Meditation community, offers teachings that are simple yet require us to explore aspects of ourselves that go against much of our social conditioning that values goal-oriented busyness, productivity, independence, outgoing energy, and other active qualities. When overemphasized, this orientation can cause destructive emotions and behaviors, but we can counter them by embracing more receptive qualities. The receptive or feminine paradigm takes us deeper into the heart of the classical Buddhist teachings, leading to openness and freedom of the heart-mind. Bradshaw illustrates her own resistance to letting go of her strong active orientation.

with relatable stories like her efforts to be a perfect meditator Drawing on our connectedness to nature she offers guidance for grounded practices including useless gazing getting lost sense based reality practicing in the wildness accepting uncertainty and more These Buddhist teachings are as comforting as they are thought provoking Bradshaw s debut book helps us let go and nurture our ability to receive listen embrace vulnerability and just be Through this process we heal the imbalances within ourselves and in our relationships to all beings and the natural world
