Building a Healthy Multi-Ethnic Church Mark DeYmaz,2020-10-06 Through personal stories proven experience and a thorough analysis of the biblical text Building a Healthy Multi Ethnic Church illustrates both the biblical mandate for the multi ethnic church and the seven core commitments required to bring it about Mark DeYmaz pastor of one of the most proven multi ethnic churches in the country writes from both his experience and his extensive study of how to plant grow and encourage more ethnically diverse churches He argues that the homogenous unit principle will soon become irrelevant and that the most effective way to spread the gospel in an increasingly diverse world is through strong and vital multi ethnic churches Apart from ethnically and economically diverse relationships we cannot understand others different from ourselves develop trust for others who are different than us and or love others different than ourselves Apart from understanding trust and love we are less likely to get involved in the plight of others different than ourselves Without involvement nothing changes and the disparaging consequences of systemic racism remain entrenched in our culture Surely it breaks the heart of God to see so many churches segregated ethnically or economically from one another and that little has changed in the many years since it was first observed that eleven o clock on Sunday morning is the most segregated hour in the land
