Building A New Community Immigration And The Victorian Economy:

Imagined Mobility Michiel Baas,2012-10 This book critically examines the history and current issues on the migration of Indian students to Australia Changes in Museum Practice Hanne-Lovise Skartveit,Katherine J. Goodnow,2010 By examining the ways in which museums involve refugees and asylum seekers Changes in Museum Practice New Media Refugees and Participation explores the opportunities around new media Leading artists curators and academics come together to outline different degrees of participation by audiences and communities and explore a range of topics from video games to theatre from photography to participatory video and digital storytelling Case studies are used throughout to highlight the unique ways that various approaches to inclusion and participation can be used successfully Book Jacket

Transnational Migration and Human Security Thanh-Dam Truong,Des Gasper,2011-06-07 The volume places the migration development security nexus in the field of transnational studies Rather than treating these three categories as self evident the essays excavate aspects of power and privilege built into their governing frameworks and conflicting rationales apparent in practices of control Bringing together diverse experiences and case studies the volume highlights the problematic nature of maintaining distinct and disconnected frameworks of governance It argues for a new approach that demonstrates the significance and usefulness of comparative ethics in conceptualising migration from a human centered and gendered perspective in order to address the multi faceted and multi dimensional nature and meanings of security

Migration, Citizenship and Intercultural Relations Michele Lobo,2016-04-22 Migration Citizenship and Intercultural Relations reflects on the tensions and contradictions that arise within debates on social inclusion arguing that both the concept of social inclusion and policy surrounding it need to incorporate visions of citizenship that value ethnic diversity Presenting the latest empirical research from Australia and engaging with contemporary global debates on questions of identity citizenship intercultural relations and social inclusion this book unsettles fixed assumptions about who is included as a valued citizen and explores the possibilities for engendering inclusive visions of citizenship in local national and transnational spaces Organised around the themes of identity citizenship and intercultural relations this interdisciplinary collection sheds light on the role that ethnic diversity can play in fostering new visions of inclusivity and citizenship in a globalised world Greek Islander Migration to Australia since the 1950s Melissa N. Afentoulis,2021-11-23

Illuminating the experiences of immigrants to Australia in the late twentieth century this book uses oral history to explore how identity and belonging are shaped through migration Between the 1950s and the 1970s many inhabitants from the small Greek island of Limnos travelled to Australia to flee post war devastation and economic disaster With an emphasis on the lived experiences and memories of Limnians the book sheds light on the emotional pain and trauma they felt as they were separated from their families and homeland Moving away from more traditional outlooks on migration studies this book emphasises the significance of ethno regional identity and analyses how it can bring strength and longevity to a constructed community Both the roles of men and women within the Greek diaspora are examined in the way that they made the difficult decision to leave their homeland and subsequently how they came to nurture and build families within a new evolving community Looking beyond first generation migration the author analyses the pattern of return visits to Limnos by the descendants of migrants Acting as a form of identity consolidation for second generation migrants this journey to the ancestral homeland highlights the fluidity of what it means to belong somewhere and redefines the notion of home The author provides an alternative perspective to traditional migration studies and reaffirms the importance of transnational identity A unique and important addition to research this book combines memory studies and oral narrative to analyse how identity and belonging can be shaped across borders rather than within them The Multifaith Movement: Global Risks and Cosmopolitan Solutions Anna Halafoff,2012-10-29 This book documents the ultramodern rise of the multifaith movement as multifaith initiatives have been increasingly deployed as cosmopolitan solutions to counter global risks such as terrorism and climate change at the turn of the 21st century These projects aim to enhance common security particularly in Western societies following the events of September 11 2001 and the July 2005 London bombings where multifaith engagement has been promoted as a strategy to counter violent extremism The author draws on interviews with 56 leading figures in the field of multifaith relations including Paul Knitter Eboo Patel Marcus Braybrooke Katherine Marshall John Voll and Krista Tippett Identifying the principle aims of the multifaith movement the analysis explores the benefits and challenges of multifaith engagement as well as the effectiveness of multifaith initiatives in countering the process of radicalization Building on notions of cosmopolitanism the work proposes a new theoretical framework termed Netpeace which recognizes the interconnectedness of global problems and their solutions In doing so it acknowledges the capacity of multi actor peacebuilding networks including religious and state actors to address the pressing dilemmas of our times The primary intention of the book is to assist in the formation of new models of activism and governance founded on a politics of understanding modeled by the multifaith movement Jews and Australian Politics Geoffrey Brahm Levey,2004-12-13 Explains the contemporary politics of Australian Jewry This book situates the politics of Australian Jews through comparisons with general patterns in Australian politics the politics of other minorities in Australia and the politics of other Western Jewish communities It contains an appendix of Jewish Parliamentarians Rice S. D. Sharma,2010-05-27 During the last nine millennia or so man has improved the rice plant increased its productivity and has found various uses of its parts The story of rice differs from region to region and has been different in different periods of time There was a time when tax was collected in the form of rice in Japan the Southeast Asian kingdoms created hyd The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service , After the Rush Sophie Couchman,John Fitzgerald,Paul Macgregor,2004 APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , International Migrations in the Victorian Era ,2018-05-23 On account of its remarkable reach as well as its variety of schemes and features migration in the Victorian era is a paramount chapter of the history of worldwide migrations and diasporas Indeed Victorian Britain was both a land of emigration and immigration International Migrations in the Victorian Era covers a wide range of case studies to unveil the complexity of transnational circulations and connections in the 19th century Combining micro and macro studies this volume looks into the history of the British Empire 19th century international migration networks as well as the causes and consequences of Victorian migrations and how technological social political and cultural transformations mainly initiated by the Industrial Revolution considerably impacted on people's movements It presents a history of migration grounded on people structural forces and migration processes that bound societies together Rather than focussing on distinct territorial units International Migrations in the Victorian Era balances different scales of analysis individual local regional national and transnational Contributors are Rebecca Bates Sally Brooke Cameron Milosz K Cybowski Nicole Davis Anne Catherine De Bouvier Claire Deligny Elizabeth Dillenburg Nicolas Garnier Trevor Harris Kathrin Levitan Veronique Molinari Ipsita Nath Jude Piesse Daniel Renshaw Eric Richards Sue Silberberg Ben Szreter Geraldine Vaughan Briony Wickes Rhiannon Heledd Williams The Australian People James Jupp, 2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation Regional Development in Australia Robyn Eversole, 2015-12-22 In Australia regions are not just geographic locations they are also cultural ideas Being regional means being located outside the nation's capital cities and in the periphery of its centres of power and influence Regional development in Australia is thus significantly different than its European or American counterparts However surprisingly little has been written about the unique dynamics of development in Australia's regions this book has been written to fill this gap In recent decades the Australian government has made repeated policy efforts to achieve sustainable development in its non metropolitan areas Over the same period those who live and work outside the nation's capital cities have come to identify as regional Australians This book takes an anthropological approach to understanding the particularities of regional development in Australia It draws upon rich on the ground observations of towns industries universities development organisations and communities across different settings to provide an in depth understanding of the subject This book will be of interest to researchers and practitioners concerned with regional development and policy The Politics and Practice of Religious Diversity Andrew Dawson, 2016-04-20

The Politics and Practice of Religious Diversity engages with one of the most characteristic features of modern society. An increasingly prominent and potentially contentious phenomenon, religious diversity is intimately associated with contemporary issues such as migration, human rights, social cohesion, socio-cultural pluralisation, political jurisdiction, globalisation and reactionary belief systems. This edited collection of specially commissioned chapters provides an unrivalled geographical coverage and multidisciplinary treatment of the socio-political processes and institutional practices provoked by and associated with religious diversity. Alongside chapters treating religious diversity in the BRIC countries of Brazil, Russia, India and China are contributions which discuss Australia, Finland, Mexico, South Africa, the UK and the United States. This book provides an accessible, distinctive and timely treatment of a topic which is inextricably linked with modern society's progressively diverse and global trajectory. Written and structured as an accessible volume for the student reader, this book is of immediate interest to both academics and laypersons working in mainstream and political sociology, sociology of religion, human geography, politics, area studies, migration studies and religious studies.

The Changing Face of Canada Roderic P. Beaujot, Donald W. Kerr, 2007. Canadian society is rapidly changing. This concise up-to-date volume masterfully captures this change. Edited by two of Canada's leading demographers, Roderic Beaujot and Don Kerr, this book is an exciting entry in Canadian population studies, drawing from a variety of disciplines including sociology, geography, economics, history and epidemiology. The Changing Face of Canada is an essential text for demography courses across the country. Each reading has been meticulously edited and concisely ordered into five essential sections: fertility, mortality, international migration, domestic migration and population distribution, population aging, population composition. Vital issues include the role of immigration in Canada's future, the deteriorating economic welfare of immigrants, globalization, undocumented migration and unwanted refugees, Aboriginal population change, implications of unprecedented low fertility and the astonishing demographic transformation of Canadian cities.

Early Modern Ethnic and Religious Communities in Exile Yosef Kaplan, 2017-11-06. In the Early Modern period the religious refugee became a constant presence in the European landscape, a presence which was felt in the wake of processes of globalization on other continents as well. During the religious wars which raged in Europe at the time of the Reformation and as a result of the persecution of religious minorities, hundreds of thousands of men and women were forced to go into exile and to restore their lives in new settings. In this collection of articles, an international group of historians focus on several of the significant groups of minorities who were driven into exile from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries. The contributions here discuss a broad range of topics, including the ways in which these communities of belief retained their identity in foreign climes, the religious meaning they accorded to the experience of exile and the connection between ethnic attachment and religious belief among others.

The History of Immigration and Racism in Canada Barrington Walker, 2008. This outstanding collection examines the complex and disturbing history of immigration and racism in Canada. Major themes include Native non Native contact migration and settlement in the nineteenth century immigrant workers and radicalism human rights internment during WWII and racism of the present day The readings are divided into five cohesive sections Natives and Newcomers in Early Canada Space and Racialized Communities Dangerous Others Non Citizens and the State Gate keeping Enemies Without and Within The Post War Era New Rights and New Racisms This book is destined to make its mark in History departments across the country and will also be of interest to students and researchers in Canadian Studies Sociology Demography Political Science and Geography
