Building A World Community Humanism In The Twenty First Century:

Building a World Community Levi Fragell, 1989-09 No Marketing Blurb Sex and Sexuality in China Elaine Jeffreys, 2007-01-24 Elaine Jeffreys explores the issues of sex and sexuality in a non Western context by examining debates surrounding the emergence of new sexual behaviours and the appropriate nature of their regulation in the People's Republic of China Commissioned from Western and mainland Chinese scholars of sex and sexuality in China the chapters in this volume are marked by a diversity of subject material and theoretical perspectives but turn on three related concerns First the book situates China's changing sexual culture and the nature of its governance in the socio political history of the PRC Second it shows how China's shift to a rule of law has generated conflicting conceptions of citizenship and the associated rights of individuals as sexual citizens Finally the book demonstrates that the Chinese state does not operate strictly to repress sex it also is implicated in the creation of new spaces for sexual entrepreneurship expertise and consumption This comprehensive study is a valuable resource for scholars in the fields of sexuality studies and post socialist societies and culture directly appealing to both East Asia and China specialists Skepticism and Humanism Paul Kurtz, 2023-05-31 As we begin the third millennium there is cause for cautious optimism regarding the human prospect Democratic revolutions and the doctrine of universal human rights have captured the imagination of large sectors of humanity while major advances in science and technology continue to conquer disease and extend life contributing to rising standards of living affluence and cultural freedom on a worldwide basis Paradoxically at the same time ancient authoritarian fundamentalist religions have grown in vitriolic intensity along with bizarre New Age media driven paranormal belief systems Also surprising is the resurgence of primitive tribal and ethnic loyalties unleashing wars of intolerance and bitterness In Skepticism and Humanism Paul Kurtz locates these threatening developments within a long standing and largely unchallenged theological worldview He proposes as an alternative to religion a new cultural paradigm rooted in scientific naturalism rationalism and a humanistic outlook An estimated 60 percent of scientists are atheists or agnostics However the skeptical world view has been given little currency even in advanced societies because of a cultural prohibition against the criticism of religion At the same time science has become increasingly narrow and specialized so that few people can draw on its broader intellectual and cultural implications Skepticism and Humanism attempts to meet this need It defends skepticism as a method for developing reliable knowledge by using scientific inquiry and reason to test all claims to truth It also defends scientific naturalism an evolutionary view of nature life and the human species Kurtz sees the dominant religious doctrines as drawn from an agricultural nomadic past and emphasizes the need for a new outlook applicable to the postindustrial information age At the same time he rejects postmodernism for abandoning science and embracing a form of nihilism There can be no doubt that as a new global civilization emerges scientific naturalism rationalism and secular humanism have something significant to say about the meaning of life Skepticism and Humanism shows how they can to foster democratic values and social prosperity

Toward a New Enlightenment Paul Kurtz,2018-04-17 Paul Kurtz has been the dominant voice of secular humanism over the past thirty years This compilation of his work reveals the scope of his thinking on the basic topics of our time and his many and varied contributions to the cause of free thought. It focuses on the central issues that have concerned Kurtz throughout his career: ethics, politics, education, religion, science, and pseudoscience. The chapters are linked by a common theme: the need for a new enlightenment, one committed to the use of rationality and skepticism but also devoted to realizing the highest values of humanist culture. Many writings included here were first published in magazines and journals long unavailable. Some of the essays have never before been published. They now appear as a coherent whole for the first time. Also included is an extensive bibliography of Kurtz's writings. Toward a New Enlightenment is essential for those who know and admire Paul Kurtz's work. It will also be an important resource for students of philosophy, political science, ethics, and religion. Among the chapters are: Humanist Ethics, Eating the Forbidden Fruit, Relevance of Science to Ethics, Democracy without Theology, Misuses of Civil Disobedience, The Limits of Tolerance, Skepticism about the Paranormal, Legitimate and Illegitimate Militant Atheism vs Freedom of Conscience, Promethean Love Unbound, The Case for Euthanasia, and The New Inquisition in the Schools.
