Building Christian Community:

Creative Ways to Build Christian Community Jeanne C. DeFazio, John P. Lathrop, 2013-04-10 Creative Ways to Build Christian Community is exactly what its title says it is a very personal practical response to the present and future prospect of isolation a treasure trove of examples and suggestions about how to accomplish the Great Commission from community builders telling how over the years and the ministries they have implemented creative ways to build up churches and organizations to develop more intensive Christian fellowship and thereby create community Dr William David Spencer

The Life, Legacy and Theology of M. M. Thomas Jesudas M. Athyal, George Zachariah, Monica Melanchthon, 2016-04-20 M M Thomas was one of the chief architects of the modern ecumenical movement An outstanding theologian his original and rather unconventional explorations into ecumenical social ethics remain highly relevant even today Long before liberation theology burst on the scene Thomas raised his prophetic voice for the liberation of humanity from the dehumanizing structures Focusing on the theological and social contributions of M M Thomas and his legacy for our times and published with the support of the Council for World Mission to coincide with the centenary of Thomas birth this collection brings together an international panel of distinguished scholars theologians and church leaders The Option for the Poor in Christian Theology Daniel G. Groody, 2007-04-01 Since the publication of Gustavo Gutierrez's 1973 groundbreaking work A Theology of Liberation much has been written on liberation theology and its central premise of the preferential option for the poor Arguably this has been one of the most important yet controversial theological themes of the twentieth century As globalization creates greater gaps between the rich and the poor and as the situation for many of the world's poor worsens there is an ever greater need to understand the gift and challenge of Christian faith from the context of the poor and marginalized of our society This volume draws on the thought of leading international scholars and explores how the Christian tradition can help us understand the theological foundations for the option for the poor The central focus of the book revolves around the question How can one live a Christian life in a world of destitution The contributors are concerned not only with a social economic or political understanding of poverty but above all with the option for the poor as a theological concept While these essays are rooted in a solid grounding of our present reality they look to the past to understand some of the central truths of Christian faith and to the future as a source of Christian hope Following Gustavo

Gutiérrez's essay on the multidimensionality of poverty Elsa Tamez Hugh Page Jr Brian Daley and Jon Sobrino identify a central theological premise poverty is contrary to the will of God Drawing on scripture the writings of the early fathers the witness of Christian martyrs and contemporary theological reflection they argue that poverty represents the greatest challenge to Christian faith and discipleship David Tracy and J Matthew Ashley carry their reflection forward by examining the option for the poor in light of apocalyptic thought Virgilio Elizondo Patrick Kalilombe Mar a Pilar Aquino M Shawn Copeland and Mary Catherine Hilkert examine the challenges of poverty with respect to culture Africa race and gender Casiano Floristán and Luis Maldonado explore the relationship between poverty sacramentality and popular religiosity The final two essays by Aloysius Pieris and Michael Signer consider the option for the poor in relationship to other major world religions particularly an Asian theology of religions and the meaning of care for the poor within Judaism Age of the Spirit John Maiden,2023 How did charismatic renewal transform the churches in the twentieth century moving from the periphery to the mainstream In Age of the Spirit John Maiden looks at the rise of charismatic Christianity before during and after the long 1960s across the English speaking world Building Church A Church Full of Leaders Dr. Jeanne Porter King,2014-04-19 Imagine what ministry in your church would look like if every member was serving in some way Now imagine how effective your ministry would be if everyone served with a leader's mind set In Building a Church Full of Leaders Dr Jeanne Porter King sets out to help pastors and ministry leaders move from using traditional methods of moving people from the pews to service to developing strategic and transformative systems for organizing ministry recruitment training and ongoing development that aim to help church members see themselves not just as volunteers but as servants and co laborers of ministry Filled with both practical and spiritual tools for developing an effective leadership model Building a Church Full of Leaders will help you transform the way you shape and deliver ministry at your church as well as the ones who deliver it Apostolic and Prophetic Gesa Elsabeth Thiessen,2012-07-26 Apostolic ecumenical and radical these are the ecclesial characteristics highlighted by Gesa E Thiessen while explaining her vision of the church The author focuses on the meaning of each of these marks as well as on their intrinsic connections an approach that leads her to delve deep into the history of the church and to draw a wide span between the apostolic past and a radical perspective on the present and future ecumenical church Apostolic and Prophetic studies the concept of apostolicity emerging in patristic theology and examines this concept as it has been developed in select Lutheran Roman Catholic and Anglican ecumenical documents A Mighty Current of Grace Alan Schreck,2017-05-01 The Holy Spirit is the secret to the Church's growth and vitality her fountain of youth The Spirit is constantly renewing the Church and the current age is no exception In this book theologian and author Dr Alan Schreck writes a historical appreciation of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal now celebrating its fiftieth year a renewal that has touched millions of Catholics throughout the world Tracing the origins of the Renewal Schreck outlines its characteristics how it spread what is meant by the baptism in the Holy Spirit the charisms that are associated with it and the communities that grew out of it This book is for those who were involved in the Renewal and for those who want to know how the Spirit has moved so mightily in our own time and age Digital Ministry and Leadership in Today's Church John Roberto, 2022-10-02 Digital Ministry and Leadership in Today's Church is designed for pastors and parish leaders who wish to initiate or enhance their use of digital tools and methods to further their mission and ministries No matter your level of confidence comfort and competency in digital ministry you will find ideas strategies and next steps for you and for your church community Digital Ministry and Leadership in Today's Church provides concrete ways to create and foster digitally integrated ministry and faith formation extending the ministry of the local church into online spaces and communities where more and more people gather to nurture explore and share their faith today Digital Ministry and Leadership in Today's Church was created by a team of experienced leaders who bring years of experience in utilizing digital tools methods and media in church life and especially faith formation Margaret Babcock brings a special focus and experience in curation and website development for a Catholic diocese Deanna G Bartalini is a parish minister and writes about how to use technology to spread the Gospel Claudia McIvor is the cofounder of Digital Discipleship Boot Camp Bill Miller brings decades of experience in faith formation at the local and national levels and is an author and spiritual director John Roberto is an author teacher and founder of Lifelong Faith Associates and he has over a decade of experience in applying digital tools methods and media in lifelong faith formation Tim Welch is an author and has served as the specialist in educational media technology for a Catholic diocese CTL Program Guide 2009 , Generous Orthodoxies Paul Silas Peterson, 2020-04-30 After the birth of the Protestant ecumenical movement in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and following the first great wave of universal Christian ecumenism in the 1960s and 1970s after the Second Vatican Council prominent theologians of nearly every ecclesial tradition charted new territory in the last decades of the twentieth century They crossed boundaries within their own ecclesial traditions and built bridges to other Christian churches churches that were once excluded from fellowship In the development of these new programs of ecumenical theology the theologians redefined their own confessional identities and in many cases crossed the liberal conservative divide within their own traditions This volume introduces this fascinating dynamic of theological mediation redefinition and generosity It shows how the ecumenical impulses which were directed outwardly to other traditions had reflexive effects inwardly Working in the realms of both historical and systematic theology the essays in this volume provide a critical analysis of the history of this general theological sentiment and offer an outlook for its future Contributors Brian D McLaren Foreword Paul Silas Peterson Introduction Part One Ecumenical reform theologies Andrew Meszaros Yves Congar The Birth of Catholic Ecumenism Matthew L Becker Edmund Schlink Ecumenical Theology Dorothea Sattler Otto Hermann Pesch Ecumenical Scholasticism Ronald T Michener George Lindbeck Ecumenical Unity through Ecclesial Particularity Nikolaos Asproulis John D Zizioulas A Pioneer of Ecumenical Dialogue and Christian Unity Part Two Overcoming liberal conservative polarities Ben Fulford Hans
