Esoteric Buddhism in China Wei Wu, 2024-03-05 During the Republican period 1912 1949 and after many Chinese Buddhists sought inspiration from non Chinese Buddhist traditions showing a particular interest in esoteric teachings What made these Buddhists dissatisfied with Chinese Buddhism and what did they think other Buddhist traditions could offer Which elements did they choose to follow and which ones did they disregard And how do their experiences recast the wider story of twentieth century pan Asian Buddhist reform movements Based on a wide range of previously unexplored Chinese sources this book explores how esoteric Buddhist traditions have shaped the Chinese religious landscape Wei Wu examines cross cultural religious transmission of ideas from Japanese and Tibetan traditions considering the various esoteric currents within Chinese Buddhist communities and how Chinese individuals and groups engaged with newly translated ideas and practices She argues that Chinese Buddhists assimilation of doctrinal ritual and institutional elements of Tibetan and Japanese esoteric Buddhism was not a simple replication but an active process of creating new meanings Their visions of Buddhism in the modern world as well as early twentieth century discourses of nation building and religious reform shaped the reception of esoteric traditions By analyzing the Chinese interpretation and strategic adaptations of esoteric Buddhism this book sheds new light on the intellectual development ritual performances and institutional formations of Chinese Buddhism in the twentieth century Steps toward a Tibetan Understanding of Purity James E. Morrison, 2025-03-27

Though of little concern to most westerners notions of what is considered clean and unclean pure and impure are of great importance to many cultures Both ritual and moral purity and impurity are significant concerns for Tibetan Buddhists and Buddhists at large being foundational to how they live their everyday lives Steps Towards a Tibetan Understanding of Purity provides a detailed analysis of Tibetan conceptions of purity and purification through a careful examination of salient Tibetan texts across a wide range of genres The practical applications of this study articulate ways to contextualize the good news of Jesus in a Tibetan Buddhist context with an emphasis on the gospel of purification Such an approach provides the reader with renewed impetus to share the gospel in meaningful and relevant ways to a Buddhist audience while also providing additional insights into the worldview of Tibetans
