Gender and Salvation Padmanabh S. Jaini, 2018-08-14 Is a total renunciation of clothing a prerequisite to attaining spiritual liberation In Gender and Salvation Padmanabh S Jaini brings to light previously untranslated texts centering on a centuries old debate between the two principal Jaina sects the Digambaras and the Svetambaras At the core of the debate is the question of whether gender based differences of biology and life experience shape or limit an individual s ability to accomplish the ultimate religious goal For the Digambaras the example of total nudity set by Mahavira 599 527 B C the central spiritual figure of Jainism mandates an identical practice for all who aspire to the highest levels of religious attainment For the Svetambaras the renunciation occurs purely on an internal level and is neither affected nor confirmed by the absence of clothes Both sects agree however that nudity is not permitted for women under any circumstances The Digambaras therefore believe that women cannot attain salvation while the Svetambaras believe they can Through their analysis of this dilemma the Jaina thinkers whose texts are translated here demonstrate a level of insight into the material and spiritual constraints on women that transcends the particular question of salvation and relates directly to current debates on the effects of gender in our own society This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991 Women in Chinese

Buddhism Jessica Huset Tilton, 2025-10-30 Tilton examines how cultural political and economic forces exert pressures on the levels of freedom and equality for female Buddhists within the Buddhist community as well as women s rights within society The book charts women s spiritual paths over four periods beginning with the Buddha and his revolutionary stance on women to the creation of a fully ordained female Sa gha in China which peaked during the Tang dynasty and finally to its resurgence in the late Qing and early Republic period ending with a sharp decline to near extinction during the Mao Zedong years 1949 1976 As the nun and lay communities arise directly from the broader female community Tilton argues that there is a direct correlation between women s rights issues and those of liberties for Buddhist women within the Sa gha Specifically women s equality within this world as well as their right to achieve liberation from this world or sa s ra Charting

The Different Paths of Buddhism Carl Olson, 2005-01-06 For centuries Buddhist teachers and laypeople have used stories symbols cultural metaphors and anecdotes to teach and express their religious views In this introductory textbook Carl Olson draws on these narrative traditions to detail the development of Buddhism from the life of the historical Buddha to the present By organizing the text according to the structure of Buddhist thought and teaching Olson avoids imposing a Western perspective that traditional texts commonly bring to the subject The book offers a comprehensive introduction to the main branches of the Buddhist tradition in both the Mahayana and Theravada schools including the Madhyamika school the Yogacara school Pure Land devotionism Tibetan Tantric Buddhism Zen Buddhism and village folk Buddhist traditions Chapters explore the life and teachings of the Buddha in historical context the early development and institutionalization of Buddhism its geographic spread across Asia and eventually to the United States philosophy and ethics the relationship between monks and laity political and ethical implications the role of women in the Buddhist tradition and contemporary reinterpretations of Buddhism Drawn from decades of classroom experience this creative and ambitious text combines expert scholarship and engaging stories that offer a much needed perspective to the existing literature on the topic Encyclopedia of Women and Religion in North America, Set Rosemary Skinner

Keller, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Marie Cantlon, 2006-04-19 A fundamental and well illustrated reference collection for anyone interested in the role of women in North American religious life Women empowerment. The role of religious and spiritual organisations as exemplified by the Ramakrishna Mission Partha Sarathi Mallik, Susmita Bandyopadhyay, 2019-06-27 Project Report from the year 2012 in the subject Sociology Social System and Social Structure grade 5 language English abstract The Ramakrishna Mission is a Hindu religious and spiritual organisation which forms the core of a worldwide spiritual movement known as the Ramakrishna Movement or the Vedanta Movement As this mission bases its work on the Vedic principle of Karma Yoga along with spiritual teaching the organisation focuses on the socio educational activities In this book a vivid presentation is made regarding the Educational and philanthropic activities done by this mission for the spread of qualitative education skill development medical facilities vocational training among girls In the beginning the status of women and mission for women empowerment in global and Indian scenario is presented Afterwards the socio cultural perception of Indian society towards women during the ancient medieval and post independence period and the individual and organisational initiatives taken to ameliorate those conditions are presented In the following the perception and contribution of three master minds Ramakrishna Paramahansa Sarada Devi and Vivekananda towards women empowerment are presented Finally the author shows the detailed works done by Ramakrishna mission in different places of West Bengal India in order to provide quality education medical facilities and skill development in general and girls in particular Women empowerment is a global mission due to its very spirit of inclusive development irrespective of caste sex colour ethnicity or other facets of disadvantages but in the country like India the unequal treatment of women differentiation of role responsibility and status between male and women has a long rooted socio cultural perspective As result women are perceived as culturally devalued group Although constitutional legislative and policy measures are taken by the government of India for safeguard and upliftment of women but the present data regarding differential developmental indicators like literacy health income socio political participation show that the development has not happened up to mark or at per the other gender From Vedas to Vihars : A Historical Study of Education in Brahminical and Buddhist Eras Prof. (Dr.) Buddhsen, 2025-05-19 Indian Women's Battle for Freedom Kamaladevi Chattopadhyaya, 1982 MODERN FEMINISM AND MUSLIM WOMEN Dr. Shabana Kesar Suri, Shared Characters in Jain, Buddhist and Hindu Narrative Naomi Appleton, 2016-11-25 Taking a comparative approach which considers characters that are shared across the narrative traditions of early Indian religions Brahmanical Hinduism Jainism and Buddhism Shared Characters in Jain Buddhist and Hindu Narrative explores key religious and social ideals as well as points of contact dialogue and contention between different worldviews The book focuses on three types of character gods heroes and kings that are of particular importance to early South Asian narrative traditions because of their relevance to the concerns of the day such as the role of deities the qualities of a true hero or good ruler and the tension between worldly responsibilities and the pursuit of liberation

Characters including character roles and lineages of characters that are shared between traditions reveal both a common narrative heritage and important differences in worldview and ideology that are developed in interaction with other worldviews and ideologies of the day. As such, this study sheds light on an important period of Indian religious history and will be essential reading for scholars and postgraduate students working on early South Asian religious or narrative traditions Jain Buddhist and Hindu as well as being of interest more widely in the fields of Religious Studies Classical Indology Asian Studies and Literary Studies.

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008. The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work. Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region, no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history. The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe. Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region. They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected. The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes. The Encyclopedia contains over 1,250 signed articles arranged in an A-Z format for ease of use. The entries cover six main areas: biographies, geography and history, comparative culture and society, including adoption, abortion, performing arts, organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune, women's and gender studies, and topics in world history that include slave trade, globalization and disease. With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts, this reference work is sure to be a valued go-to resource for scholars, college and high school students, and general readers alike.
