Buddhist Critique Of The Christian Concept Of God:

A Buddhist Critique of the Christian Concept of God Gunapala Dharmasiri, 1987 A Buddhist Critique of the Christian Concept of God Gunapala Dharmasiri, 1988 A Buddhist Critique of the Christian Concept of God Gunapala Dharmasiri, 1974 Buddhism, Christianity and the Question of Creation Perry Schmidt-Leukel, 2016-12-05 Is the world created by a divine creator Or is it the constant product of karmic forces The issue of creation was at the heart of the classic controversies between Buddhism and Hindu Theism In modern times it can be found at the centre of many polemical debates between Buddhism and Christianity Is this the principal barrier that separates Buddhism from Christianity and other theistic religions The contributions to Part One explore the various aspects of traditional and contemporary Buddhist objections against the idea of a divine creator as well as Christian possibilities to meet the Buddhist critique Part Two asks for the potential truth on both sides and suggests a surprising way that the barrier might be overcome This opens a new round of philosophical and theological dialogue between these two major traditions with challenging insights for both Contributors Jos I Cabezn John P Keenan Armin Kreiner Aasulv Lande John D Arcy May Eva K Neumaier Perry Schmidt Leukel Ernst Steinkellner The Enduring Authority of the Christian Scriptures D. A. Carson, 2016 In this volume thirty seven first rate evangelical scholars present a thorough study of biblical authority and a full range of issues connected to it Recognizing that Scripture and its authority are now being both challenged and defended with renewed vigor editor D A Carson assigned the topics that these select scholars address in the book After an introduction by Carson to the many facets of the current discussion the contributors present robust essays on relevant historical biblical theological philosophical epistemological and comparative religions topics To conclude Carson answers a number of frequently asked questions about the nature of Scripture cross referencing these FAQs to the preceding chapters This comprehensive volume by a team of recognized experts will be the go to reference on the nature and authority of the Bible for years to come Amazon Understanding Interreligious Relations David Cheetham, Douglas Pratt, David Thomas, David Richard Thomas, 2013-11 A multi authored volume that explores the theme of the religious other from the perspective of five major religions Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Christianity and Islam and discusses a range of issues in which interreligious relations are central The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist-Christian Studies Carol Anderson, Thomas Cattoi, 2022-09-30 Buddhist Christian dialogue has a long and complex history that stretches back to the first centuries of the common era Comprising 42 international and disciplinarily diverse chapters this volume begins by setting up a framework for examining the nature of Buddhist Christian interreligious dialogue discussing how research in this area has been conducted in the past and considering future theoretical directions Subsequent chapters delve into important episodes in the history of Buddhist Christian dialogue contemporary conversations such as monastic interreligious dialogue multiple religious identity and dual religious practice and Buddhist Christian cooperation in social justice social engagement pastoral care and interreligious education settings The volume closes with a section devoted to comparative and constructive explorations of different speculative themes that range from the theological to the philosophical or experiential This handbook explores how the study of Buddhist Christian relations has been and ought to be done The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist Christian Studies is essential reading for researchers and students interested in Buddhist Christian studies Asian religions and interreligious relationships It will be of interest to those in fields such as anthropology political science theology and history Buddhists and Christians Fredericks, James L., 2014-04-10 Buddhists and Christians examines Christian teachings about other religions to argue that the next step to dialogue is comparative theology Fredericks asks why the Buddha refused to engage in God talk and suggests that understanding the answer to this question will help Christians and Buddhists to have better communication and to find that God reveals the way to mutual comprehension and deeper solidarity Religious Diversity—What's the Problem? Rita M. Gross, 2014-04-24 Once upon a time on grounds of both religion and common sense people assumed that the earth was flat and that the sun literally rose and set each day When newly developing knowledge made those beliefs untenable giving them up was difficult Today the belief that only one of the world's various religions is true for all people on earth is equivalent to the belief in a flat earth Both notions have become untenable given contemporary knowledge about religion Even though many people are still troubled by the existence of religious diversity today that diversity is a fact of life Religious diversity should be no more troubling to religious people than the fact that the earth is round and circles the sun This provocative book based on the author's longtime practice of Buddhism and comparative study of religion provides tools with which one can truly appreciate religious diversity as a gift and resource rather than as a deficiency or a problem to be overcome After we accept diversity as inevitable and become comfortable with it diversity always enriches life both nature and culture Criteria of Discernment in Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2009-08-01 CONTRIBUTORS Mustafa Abu Sway Al Quds University Jerusalem Asma Afsaruddin Indiana University Reinhold Bernhardt Basel University David Burrell CSC University of Notre Dame Catherine Cornille Boston College Gavin D Costa University of Bristol David M Elcott New York University Joseph Lombard Brandeis University Jonathan Magonet Louis Baeck Institute London John Makransky Boston College Anantanand Rambachan St Olaf College Deepak Sarma Case Western University Judith Simmer Brown Naropa University Mark Unno University of Oregon Buddhist Inclusivism Kristin Beise Kiblinger, 2017-07-05 Although Christians have well developed responses to other religions the counterpart scholarship from Buddhists has thus far lagged behind Breaking new ground this book analyzes the currently favored position towards religious others inclusivism in Buddhist traditions Kristin Beise Kiblinger presents examples of inclusivism from a wide range of Buddhist contexts and periods from Pali texts to the Dalai Lama's recent works After constructing and defending a preferred alternative form of Buddhist inclusivism she evaluates the thought of particular contemporary Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Masao Abe in light of her ideal position This book offers a more systematic treatment of Buddhist inclusivism than has yet been provided either by scholars or by Buddhist leaders What Buddhist Believe? K Sri Dhammananda, 2024-03-07 Communicating Christ in the Buddhist World David S. Lim, Paul H. De Neui, 2006 We issue this book amidst the challenges arising from the resurgence of religions in the various nations of the post modern world As Islamic fundamentalism grabs the headlines Buddhist fundamentalism has also been on the rise particularly in Southeast Asia mainly in reaction to the conversionist incursions of Islam and Christianity among them Over the last thirty years Buddhism has also seen growth in the West as its non dogmatic rationality offer of spiritual mentoring and opportunity for personal transformation have made it attractive to post modern society Are there both theological approaches as well as practical strategies for evangelical Christians to use our evangelization efforts among Buddhists without any unnecessary problems to the increasing conflicts in the encounter of religions We believe there are This is the fourth and latest volume in the Buddhist World series which includes Sharing Jesus in the Buddhist World Sharing Jesus Holistically with the Buddhist World and Sharing Jesus Effectively in the Buddhist World Compiled from papers presented at the annual SEANET Missiological Forum in Thailand Communicating Christ in the Buddhist World delivers fresh insights from mission theologians and practitioners The first four chapters reflect on the theological framework by which Christians can fulfill the biblical mandate to evangelize and transform peoples The next five chapters consider the significant sociological issues that have arisen in the Christian encounter with Buddhist peoples The final three suggest some strategic ways forward for effective evangelism in the Buddhist world May this book challenge the international Christian community to find better ways of relating to and approaching people of other faiths Naming and Thinking God in Europe Today, 2007-01-01 Is there a new need and place for God talk in Europe The present volume both confirms this and opens up new questions for discussion It shows how different traditions of naming and thinking God in Europe draw on various theoretical and philosophical foundations that are in competition with one another in many ways Due to socio cultural historical and political divides between Eastern and Western Europe these theological traditions often suffer from isolation and mutual misunderstanding Can the inherent tensions and conflicts be understood more adequately While exploring a variety of approaches in Europe on the topic several authors also ask How can God be named and thought in Europe which finds itself in the midst of complex crosscultural and interreligious processes particularly as immigration increases and peoples of non Christian faith traditions name and think God in ways that differ from and sometimes conflict with Europe's dominant religions and secular culture What function and impact will traditional God talk have in a globalizing Europe as religions such as Islam Hinduism and Buddhism move into the foreground This volume not only reveals the broad spectrum of its topic but also documents the vivid seeking undertaken by a new generation of European theologians and scholars of religion who openly engage the question of how to live and believe in Europe today facing complex global challenges Christianity and Buddhism Whalen Lai, Michael von Brück, 2001 In Christianity and Buddhism Whalen Lai and Michael von Brück bring together for scholars students and interested lay observers the developments and understandings reached in Christian Buddhist dialogue in six key regions of the world After a two generations long exploration by scholars and devotees the authors judge it opportune to furnish a bird s eye view of the terrain that dialogue has covered Lai and von Bruck explore questions such as what is meant by a theism and God talk in the two traditions asking whether the dialogue has revealed irreconcilable opposition or areas where each side can profit from insights from the other They acknowledge that similarities of language in the two traditions can mask differences in substance while differences in language can mask agreements in substance and it is not always clear which is the case While a first generation dialoguer Joseph Kitagawa once noted that mutual monologue was a better description of the Christian Buddhist project than dialogue Lai and von Bruck point to areas of important dynamic understanding and clarification of where dialogue needs to go to address disagreements as well

Religious Pluralism and Interreligious Theology Schmidt-Leukel, Perry,2017-02-16 Buddhism And Nichiren Shoshu/Soka Gakkai Buddhism –A Critique and Biblical Analysis John Weldon,2012-08-21 Buddhism is the fourth largest religion in the world and Nichiren Shoshu Soka Gakkai is the largest Buddhist religion in America The purpose of Buddhism is to eradicate suffering and attain enlightenment Nichiren Shoshu to receive material benefits and find happiness This book demonstrates the fundamental incompatibility of Buddhism and Christianity and shows the consequences particularly religious ones which lie outside the truth This eBook was written from material which originally comprised the authors Master s Thesis

Martin Luther and Buddhism Paul S. Chung,2008-02-02 Martin Luther and Buddhism Aesthetics of Suffering carefully traces the historical and theological context of Luther s breakthrough in terms of articulating justification and justice in connection to the Word of God and divine suffering Chung critically and constructively engages in dialogue with Luther and with later interpreters of Luther such as Barth and Moltmann placing the Reformer in dialogue not only with Asian spirituality and religions but also with emerging global theology of religions

Trinity and Revelation Veli-Matti Karkkainen,2014-04-19 In this book Pentecostal theologian Veli Matti Karkkainen develops a constructive theology of triune revelation and the triune God in dialogue with Christian tradition with contemporary theology in its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Karkkainen s Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World is a five volume project that aims to develop a new approach to and method of doing Christian theology in a pluralistic world at the beginning of the third millennium With the metaphor of hospitality serving as the framework for his discussion Karkkainen engages Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism in sympathetic and critical mutual dialogue while remaining robustly Christian in his convictions Never before has a fullscale doctrinal theology been attempted in such a wide and deep dialogical mode

Buddhist-Christian Dialogue as Theological Exchange Ernest M. Valea,2015-04-14 This book is intended to encourage the use of comparative theology in contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue as a new approach that would truly respect each religious tradition s uniqueness and make dialogue beneficial for all participants interested in a real theological exchange As a result of the impasse reached by the current theologies of religions exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism in formulating a constructive approach in dialogue this volume assesses the thought of the founding fathers of an academic Buddhist Christian dialogue in search of clues that would encourage a comparativist approach These founding fathers are considered to be three important representatives of the Kyoto School Kitaro Nishida Keiji Nishitani and Masao Abe and John Cobb an American process theologian The guiding line for assessing their views of dialogue is the concept of human perfection as it is expressed by the original traditions in Mahayana Buddhism and Orthodox Christianity Following Abe s methodology in dialogue an Orthodox contribution to comparative theology proposes a reciprocal enrichment of traditions not by syncretistic means but by providing a better understanding and even correction of one s own tradition when considering it in the light of the other while using internal resources for making the necessary corrections
