The Philosophy of Desire in the Buddhist Pali Canon David Webster, 2005 David Webster explores the notion of desire as found in the Buddhist Pali Canon Beginning by addressing the idea of a paradox of desire whereby we must desire to end desire the varieties of desire that are articulated in the Pali texts are examined A range of views of desire as found in Western thought are presented as well as Hindu and Jain approaches An exploration of the concept of ditthi view or opinion is also provided exploring the way in which holding views can be seen as analogous to the process of desiring Other subjects investigated include the mind body relationship the range of Pali terms for desire and desire's positive spiritual value A comparative exploration of the various approaches completes the work A Buddhist Theory of Semiotics Fabio Rambelli, 2013-05-16

One of the first attempts ever to present in a systematic way a non western semiotic system This book looks at Japanese esoteric Buddhism and is based around original texts informed by explicit and rigorous semiotic categories It is a unique introduction to important aspects of the thought and rituals of the Japanese Shingon tradition Semiotic concerns are deeply ingrained in the Buddhist intellectual and religious discourse beginning with the idea that the world is not what it appears to be which calls for a more accurate understanding of the self and reality This in turn results in sustained discussions on the status of language and representations and on the possibility and methods to know reality beyond delusion such peculiar knowledge is explicitly defined as enlightenment Thus for Buddhism semiotics is directly relevant to salvation this is a key point that is often ignored even by Buddhologists This book discusses in depth the main elements of Buddhist semiotics as based primarily on original Japanese pre modern sources It is a crucial publication in the fields of semiotics and religious studies Buddhist Phenomenology Dan Lusthaus, 2014-02-04 A richly complex study of the Yogacara tradition of Buddhism divided into five parts the first on Buddhism and phenomenology the second on the four basic models of Indian Buddhist thought the third on karma meditation and epistemology the fourth on the Trimsika and its translations and finally the fifth on the Cheng Wei shih Lun and Yogacara in China
