Renovación de centros históricos en grandes ciudades latinoamericanas Ricardo Adrián Vergara, 2008-01-01 Desde una perspectiva social los centros históricos representan un factor de identidad e imagen de una ciudad en un doble papel de reconocimiento hacia afuera por la imagen que transmite de sí misma como hacia dentro por la identificación que cada habitante tiene de ella Pero los centros históricos también pierden valor simbólico y representativo debido al desinterés y desidia de las administraciones urbanas que se evidencia entre otros aspectos en la segregación de las dinámicas sociales que en ellos se presenta Buenos Aires Osvaldo Lebosso, Argentina Secretaría de Turismo, 2001 The Dead and Their Possessions Cressida Fforde, Jane Hubert, Paul Turnbull, 2004 Repatriation of human remains has become a key international heritage concern This extensive collection of papers provides a survey of the current state of repatriation in terms of policy practice and theory International Handbook of Underwater Archaeology Carol V. Ruppe, Jane F. Barstad, 2013-11-11 Although underwater archaeology has assumed its rightful place as an important subdiscipline in the field the published literature has not kept pace with the rapid increase in the number of both prehistoric and historic underwater sites The editors have assembled an internationally distinguished roster of contributors to fill this gap In addition to both geographical and topical approaches the chapters also focus on technology law public and private institutional roles and goals and the research and development of future technologies and public programs Argentina's Radical Party and Popular Mobilization, 1916-1930 Joel Horowitz, 2010-11-01 Imágenes del mundo histórico Irene Marrone, 2003 Ciudades (in)descifrables Vera, Paula, Aliaga Sáez, Felipe Andrés, Gravano, Ariel, Lindón, Alicia, Carretero Pasín, Angel Enrique, Solsona Cisternas, Diego, Santillán Cornejo, Alfredo, Silva, Ana, Boggi, Silvia, González Bracco, Mercedes, Laborde, Soledad, Huilén Agüero, Gala, Perelman, Mariano, Guzmán Sandoval, Diego, Gómez Balza, Jorge Luis, Mora Hernández, Freddy Orlando, Díaz Casal, Javier, Gutiérrez Sánchez, José David, 2019-04-24 Aventurarse en la tarea de comprender la complejidad creciente de la

Tahan, 2017-10-04 Featuring the previously unpublished diary of José María Sobral Under Lieutenant of the Argentine Navy this book provides insight on his life and his participation in Otto Nordenskjöld's Swedish Antarctic Expedition of 1901-1903. This biography highlights Sobral's personal thoughts on the mission, his position, the science being discovered, and the geopolitical situation around him. The reader also learns about the state of science, Antarctic exploration, and cultural/political issues at that time. The author's critical and contextual analysis of the diary explains more about Sobral and his role in Argentina's science and history. This paints a detailed picture of Sobral as an individual and provides the framework to depict the world in which Sobral lived and worked, as well as his expedition and accomplishments. The book aims to explain the context of Sobral's writings, the significance of the events he described in his diary entries, and the way all of these events tied into history and scientific discovery.

The book focuses on the complexities of housing and housing-related issues, engendering an understanding of housing, its relationship to national economic factors, and housing policies. It comprises individual chapters written by housing experts who have specialization within the discipline or field, offering commentary on the physical, social, psychological, economic, and policy issues that affect the current housing landscape in the United States and abroad while proposing solutions to its challenges.

In Search of the Lost Decade Jennifer Adair, 2019-12-03. In 1983, following a military dictatorship that left thousands dead and disappeared and the economy in ruins, Raúl Alfonsín was elected president of Argentina on the strength of his pledge to prosecute the armed forces for their crimes and restore a measure of material well-being to Argentine lives. Food, housing, and full employment became the litmus tests of the new democracy. In Search of the Lost Decade reconsiders Argentina's transition to democracy by examining the everyday meanings of rights and the lived experience of democratic return far beyond the ballot box and corridors of power. Beginning with promises to eliminate hunger and ending with food shortages and burning supermarkets, Jennifer Adair provides an in-depth account of the Alfonsín government's unfulfilled projects to ensure basic needs against the backdrop of a looming neoliberal world order. As it moves from the presidential palace to the streets, this original book offers a compelling reinterpretation of post dictatorship Argentina and Latin America's so called lost decade

Facundo and the Construction of Argentine Culture Diana Sorensen Goodrich, 2010-01-01 Domingo F Sarmiento's classic 1845 essay Facundo: Civilization y Barbarie opened an inquiry into the nature of Argentinian culture that continues to the present day. In this elegantly written study, Diana Sorensen Goodrich explores the varied and often conflicting readings that Facundo has received since its publication and shows how these readings have contributed to the making and remaking of the Argentine nation and its culture. Goodrich's analysis sheds new light on the intersection between canon formation and nation building. While much has been written about Facundo as a primary text in Latin American letters, this is the first study that locates it within the problematics of canon formation and the cultural, social and political contexts in which conflicting interpretations are constructed. This new approach to Facundo illuminates the interactions among institutions, cultural ideologies and political life. This book will be important reading for everyone interested in questions of national identity and the institutionalization of a national tradition.

Selling EthniCity Olaf Kaltmeier, 2016-04-01 Bringing together a multidisciplinary team of scholars, this book explores the importance of ethnicity and cultural economy in the post-Fordist city in the Americas. It argues that cultural, political and economic elites make use of cultural and ethnic elements in city planning and architecture in order to construct a unique image of a particular city and demonstrates how the use of ethnicized cultural production, such as urban branding based on local identities by the economic elite, raises issues of considerable concern in terms of local identities as it deploys a practical logic of capital exchange that can overcome forms of cultural resistance and strengthen the hegemonic colonization of everyday life. At the same time, it shows how ethnic communities are able to use ethnic labelling of cultural production, ethnic economy or ethno-tourism facilities in order to change living conditions and to empower its members in ways previously impossible. Of wide-ranging interest across academic disciplines, this book will be a useful contribution to Inter-American studies.
