Buffalo Bud Adventures Of A Cowboy:

Buffalo Bud Bud Cotton, Ethel Mitchell, 1981 Memories of Bud Buffalo Cotton's life as a cowboy A lively history of the range its critters and its people Bud Cotton's memories bring the West to life He arrived from Quebec in 1906 in love with horses and his dream of the his open rangeland His first night out on the lone prairie was a scary affair but it didn't dim his enthusiasm for this new lifestyle and he spent the next forty years in the saddle taking time out only for military service As night jingler as day rider as buffalo warden he rode far and wide He met all the challenges the wildest broncos the bitterest winters the meanest buffs and triumphed with a grin A keen observer of both people and animals his tales of his life on the range are at once amusing and perceptive He sees the kindness beneath the rough and tough facade of the cowboy smiles wryly at the naivete of the greenhorn and almost bashfully acknowledges his affection for some of the animals he worked with

Frontier Cattle Ranching in the Land and Times of Charlie Russell W. M. Elofson, 2004 This first ever in depth cross border study of the cattle ranching frontiers on the northern Great Plains of North America argues that though they lived on different sides of the forty-ninth parallel the first cattlemen on the western Canadian prairies and in the state of Montana shared a common history

The Bar U & Canadian Ranching History S. M. Evans, 2004 For much of its 130 year history the Bar U Ranch can claim to have been one of the most famous ranches in Canada Its reputation is firmly based on the historical role that the ranch has played its size and longevity and its association with some of the remarkable people who have helped develop the cattle business and build the Canadian West The long history of the ranch allows the evolution of the cattle business to be traced and can be seen in three distinct historical periods based on the eras of the individuals who owned and managed the ranch These colourful figures beginning with Fred Stimson then George Lane and finally Pat Burns have left an indelible mark on the Bar U as well as Canadian ranching history The Bar U and Canadian Ranching History is a fascinating story that integrates the history of ranching in Alberta with larger issues of ranch historiography in the American and Canadian West and contributes greatly to the overall understanding of ranching history
