A Drunken Bee Paul Lewis McBain, 2025-08-31 Sunthorn Phu 1786 1855 is an unlikely figure through which to understand nineteenth century Buddhism in Siam Despite being described as a drunken writer by the court astrologer after his death he is now the national poet of Thailand Yet the majority of Sunthorn Phu s literary accomplishments including many of the nirat journeying poems translated in this volume are scarcely available in English In A Drunken Bee Paul Lewis McBain argues that the irreverent rebellious and parodic voice of Sunthorn Phu is an invaluable resource for understanding the Buddhism of early Bangkok A wealth of information about the conflicts and contradictions of the religious thought of this period can be found in the ways in which the poet describes his local landscape Following Sunthorn Phu on his journeys readers encounter cities of celebration and rivers of sadness kingly processions railways and unruly pilgrims on their way to the Saraburi Buddha Footprint forests of spirit guardians and life prolonging alchemical materials as well as the semimythical oceans of Buddhist cosmology used to make sense of the new more varied world opening up to Siam in the nineteenth century In this volume McBain employs theories not only from literary studies but also from the interdisciplinary study of landscapes applying an innovative approach to understanding how journeying poems may be used as critical sources for uncovering past ways of thinking with and within place What emerges is one of the most colorful windows into the early modernity of Siam in the nineteenth century The author convincingly showcases how the kingdom was already developing its own nascent individuality irony and skepticism all broached by redefining Buddhist concepts The book offers students and scholars of literature and religion new approaches to the study of journeying poems
