American Classic Screen

Interviews John C. Tibbetts, James M. Welsh, 2010-07-23 First appearing in 1976 American Classic Screen was the publishing arm of The National Film Society. Intended for scholars and general readers interested in films from the golden age of cinema and beyond the magazine ran for a decade and included original interviews, profiles and articles that delved deep into the rich history of Hollywood. Contributors to the magazine included noted academics in the area of film studies as well as independent scholars and authors eager to expand the world of cinema. Since the periodical's demise however many of the essays and articles have been difficult to find at best and in some cases entirely unavailable. In American Classic Screen Interviews editors John C. Tibbetts and James M. Welsh have assembled some of the most significant and memorable interviews conducted for the magazine over its ten year history. This collection contains rare conversations with some of the brightest stars of yesteryear as well as gifted filmmakers, celebrated animators and highly revered historians including Fred Astaire, Kevin Brownlow, Frank Capra, Stanley Donen, Olivia DeHavilland, Irene Dunne, Joan Fontaine, Fritz Freleng, Margaret Hamilton, Winton C. Hoch, Henry King, Mervyn Le Roy, Fred MacMurray, Glen MacWilliams, Rouben Mamoulian, Clarence Ducky Nash, Paul Newman, Hermes Pan, Robert Preston and Jane Withers. This compendium of interviews recaptures the spirit and scholarship of that time and will appeal to both scholars and fans who have an abiding interest in the American motion picture industry.

Animated Personalities David McGowan, 2019-02-26 Mickey Mouse, Betty Boop, Donald Duck, Bugs Bunny, Felix the Cat and other beloved cartoon characters have entertained media audiences for almost a century, outliving the human stars who were once their contemporaries in studio era Hollywood. In Animated Personalities David McGowan asserts that iconic American theatrical short cartoon characters should be legitimately regarded as stars equal to their live action counterparts not only because they have enjoyed long careers but also because their star personas have been created and marketed in ways also used for cinematic celebrities. Drawing on detailed archival research McGowan analyzes how Hollywood studios constructed and manipulated the star personas of the animated characters they owned. He shows how cartoon actors frequently kept pace with their human counterparts, granting interviews, allowing candid photographs, endorsing products and generally behaving as actual actors did. For example, Donald Duck served his country during World War II and Mickey Mouse was even embroiled in scandal. Challenging the notion that studios needed actors with physical bodies and real off screen lives to create stars, McGowan demonstrates that media texts have successfully articulated an off screen existence for animated characters. Following cartoon stars from silent movies to contemporary film and television, this groundbreaking book broadens the scope of star studies to include animation, concluding with provocative questions about the nature of stardom in an age of digitally enhanced filmmaking technologies Bugs Bunny at the County Fair Elizabeth Beecher, Warner Bros.
