

Buick Used Parts Buyers Guide

Buick is the middle sister of the BOP clan it is often over shadowed by its flashy little sister Pontiac and its more sensible big sister Oldsmobile. Conceived in the minds of the public as a sensible schoolteachers car, Buick was suffering from an identity crisis . In the fall of 1962 things begin to change with the introduction of the T-bird fighting machine-the Riviera. Dripping in class and performance it was built for Buicks most affluent customers. And a year later the average customer would find pizzazz in the all new Skylark, which would become the base for one of the all time fastest muscle cars- the GSX. With the these two models, and the powerhouse Wildcat, Buick was no longer over shadowed by it siblings. Today these Buicks hold a special place in the hearts of collectors, or maybe it's just a case of the middle child coming out ahead.

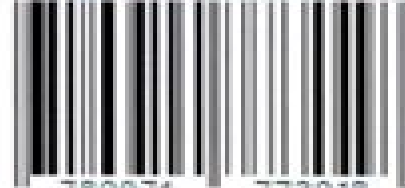

Will the wheels from the full size Buick fit your Skylark?
