Noir Movies Facts, Figures & Fun John Grant, 2005-09 We're living in the middle of a Cinema Noir revival to the extent that in recent years a whole new category of movie has been identified as neo noir In this short but well researched book readers will find a treasure house of noir from the classics to the turkeys from the modern to the ancestral Also featured are some of the great screen stars who forced this genre into the limelight whatever the critics of the day might have said as well as those authors who penned many of the stories

Urban Social Geography Paul Knox, Steven Pinch, 2014-09-15 The 6th edition of this highly respected text builds upon the successful structure engaging writing style and clear presentation of previous editions Examining urban social geography from a theoretical and historical perspective it also explores how it has developed into the modern day Taking account of recent critical work whilst simultaneously presenting well established approaches to the subject it ensures students are well informed about all the issues The result is a topical book that is clear and accessible for students

Robert Mitchum Lee Server, 2025-09-23 One of the movies greatest actors and most colorful characters a real life tough guy with the prison record to prove it Robert Mitchum was a movie icon for an almost unprecedented half century the cool sleepy eyed star of such classics as The Night of the Hunter Heaven Knows Mr Allison Cape Fear The Longest Day Farewell My Lovely and The Winds of War Mitchum's powerful presence and simmering violence combined with hard boiled humor and existential detachment to create a new style in movie acting the screen's first hipster antihero before Brando James Dean Elvis or Eastwood the inventor of big screen cool Robert Mitchum Baby I Don't Care is the first complete biography of Mitchum and a book as big colorful and controversial as the star himself Exhaustively researched it makes use of thousands of rare documents from around the world and nearly two hundred in depth interviews with Mitchum's family friends and associates many going on record for the first time ever ranging over his seventy nine years of hard living Written with great style and vividly detailed this is an intimate comprehensive portrait of an amazing life comic tragic daring and outrageous

The Erotic Thriller in Contemporary Cinema Linda Ruth Williams, 2005 This bold and original book examines in detail a relatively new genre of film the erotic thriller Linda Ruth Williams traces the genre's exploitation of pornography and noir discusses mainstream stars including Michael Douglas and Sharon Stone as well as genre branded direct to video stars charts the work of key producers and directors and considers home videos as a distinct form of viewing pleasure She maps the history of the genre analyzing hundreds of movies from blockbusters such as Basic Instinct Fatal Attraction and In the Cut to straight to video film titles such as Carnal Crimes Sins of Desire and Night Eyes Williams's witty and illuminating readings tell the story of this sensational genre and contribute to the analysis of mainstream screen sex and its censorship at the beginning of the 21st century She shows that as the erotic thriller plays out the sexual fantasies of contemporary America it also provides a vehicle for marketing those fantasies globally

Jazz and Cocktails Jans B. Wager, 2017-03-21 Film noir showcased hard boiled men and dangerous femmes fatales rain slicked city streets pools of inky darkness cut by shards of light and occasionally jazz Jazz served as a shorthand for the seduction and risks of the mean streets in early film noir As working jazz musicians began to compose the scores for and appear in noir films of the 1950s black musicians found a unique way of asserting their right to participate fully in American life Jazz and Cocktails explores the use of jazz in film noir from its early function as a signifier of danger sexuality and otherness to the complex role it plays in film scores in which jazz invites the spectator into the narrative while simultaneously transcending the film and reminding viewers of the world outside the movie theater Jans B Wager looks at the work of jazz composers such as Miles Davis Duke Ellington and Billy Strayhorn Chico Hamilton and John Lewis as she analyzes films including Sweet Smell of Success Elevator to the Gallows Anatomy of a Murder Odds Against Tomorrow and considers the neonoir American Hustle Wager demonstrates how the evolving role of jazz in film noir reflected cultural changes instigated by black social activism during and after World War II and altered Hollywood representations of race and music

Screening American Independent Film Justin Wyatt, W.D. Phillips, 2023-05-31 This indispensable collection offers 51 chapters each focused on a distinct American independent film Screening American Independent Film presents these films chronologically addressing works from across more than a century 1915-2020 emphasizing the breadth and long duration of American independent cinema The collection includes canonical examples as well as films that push against and expand the definitions of independence The titles run from micro budget films through marketing friendly Indiewood projects from auteur driven films and festival darlings to B movies genre pics and exploitation films The chapters also introduce students to different approaches within film studies including historical and contextual framing industrial and institutional analysis politics and ideology genre and authorship representation film analysis exhibition and reception and technology Written by leading international scholars and emerging talents in film studies this volume is the first of its kind Paying particular attention to issues of diversity and inclusion for both the participating scholars and the content and themes within the selected films Screening American Independent Film is an essential resource for anyone teaching or studying American cinema

Hollywood's Melodramatic Imagination Geoff Mayer, 2021-12-23 Melodrama is the foundation of American cinema It is however a poorly understood term While it is a pervasive and persuasive dramatic mode it is not tied to any specific moral or ideological system It is not a singular genre rather it operates as a genre generating machine capable of determining the aesthetics and structure of the drama within many genres Melodrama centers the conflict around the clash between good and evil and provides a sense of poetic justice but the specific values embedded in notions of good and evil are determined by the culture and they shift from nation to nation region to region and period to period This book explores the populist westerns of the 1930s the propaganda films that followed the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the popularity of Sax Rohmer's master villain Fu Manchu Melodramas of passion and film noir also offer a challenge to melodrama with its seemingly alienated protagonists and downbeat endings Yet with few exceptions Hollywood was able to assimilate these genres within its melodramatic imagination

Fearing the Dark Edmund G. Bansak, 2003-10-09 Cat People 1942 and I Walked with a Zombie 1943 established Val Lewton's hauntingly graceful style where suggestion was often used in place of explicit violence His stylish B thrillers were imitated by a generation of filmmakers such as Richard Wallace William Castle and even Walt Disney in his animated Adventures of Ichabod and Mr Toad 1949 Through interviews with many of Lewton's associates including his wife and son and extensive research his life and output are thoroughly examined

Film Noir William Luhr, 2012-03-05 Film Noir offers new perspectives on this highly popular and influential film genre providing a useful overview of its historical evolution and the many critical debates over its stylistic elements Brings together a range of perspectives on a topic that has been much discussed but remains notoriously ill defined Traces the historical development of the genre usefully exploring the relations between the films of the 1940s and 1950s that established the noir universe and the more recent films in which it has been frequently revived Employs a clear and intelligent writing style that makes this the perfect introduction to the genre Offers a thorough and engaging analysis of this popular area of film studies for students and scholars Presents an in depth analysis of six key films each exemplifying important trends of film noir Murder My Sweet Out of the Past Kiss Me Deadly The Long Goodbye Chinatown and Seven

In a Lonely Street Frank Krutnik, 2006-10-19 Taking issue with many orthodox views of Film Noir Frank Krutnik argues for a reorientation of this compulsively engaging area of Hollywood cultural production Krutnik recasts the films within a generic framework and draws on recent historical and theoretical research to examine both the diversity of film noir and its significance within American popular culture of the 1940s He considers classical Hollywood cinema debates on genre and the history of the emergence of character in film noir focusing on the hard boiled crime fiction of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler and James M Cain as well as the popularisation of Freudian psychoanalysis and the social and cultural upheavals of the 1940s The core of this book however concerns the complex representation of masculinity in the noir tough thriller and where and how gender interlocks with questions of genre Analysing in detail major thrillers like The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Out of the Past and The Killers alongside lesser known but nonetheless crucial films as Stranger on the Third Floor Pitfall and Dead Reckoning Krutnik has produced a provocative and highly readable study of one of Hollywood most perennially fascinating groups of films

Pulp Virilities and Post-War American Culture Arthur Redding, 2022-09-10 This book interrogates the repertoire of masculine performance in popular crime fiction and cinema from the 1940s 50s and 60s This critical survey of the back alleys of pulp culture reveals American masculinities to be unsettled contentious crisis ridden racially fraught and sexually anxious Libertarian in their sensibilities self aggrandizing in their sentiments resistant to the lures of upper mobility scornful of white collar and corporate culture the protagonists of these popular and populist works viewed themselves as working class heroes cast adrift Pulp Virilities explores the enduring traditions of hard boiled and noir literature casting a critical eye on its depictions of urban life and representations of gender crime labor and race Demonstrating how anxieties and possibilities of American masculinity are hammered out in works of popular culture Pulp Virilities provides a rich cultural genealogy of contemporary American social life

Selling the Movie Ian Haydn Smith, 2018 As long as there have been movies there have been posters selling films to audiences Posters came into existence just decades before the inception of film and as movies became a universal medium of entertainment posters likewise became a ubiquitous form of advertising At first movie posters suggested a film's theme from adventure and romance to thrills and spine tingling horror Then with the ascendancy of the film star posters began to sell icons and lifestyles nowhere more so than in Hollywood But every country producing films used posters to sell their product Selling the Movie The Art of the Film Poster charts the history of the movie poster from both a creative and a commercial perspective It includes sections focusing on poster artists the development of styles the influence of politics and ideology and how commerce played a role in the film poster's development The book is richly illustrated with poster art from many countries and all eras of filmmaking From creating the brand of Charlie Chaplin's tramp and marketing the elusive mystique of Greta Garbo to the history of the blockbuster the changing nature of graphic design by the decade and the role of the poster in the digital age Selling the Movie is an entertaining and enthralling journey through cinema art and the business of attracting audiences to the box office

Invasion USA David J. Hogan, 2017-09-19 With the queasy U S Soviet wartime alliance long dissolved into mutual suspicion the House Un American Activities

Committee launched aggressive investigations of alleged communist activity in the Hollywood film industry in 1947 and again in 1951. Studio chiefs, terrified of scandal, scrambled to display their patriotism by producing anti-communist films, from melodramas to thrillers to animated cartoons. Twenty-one lively new essays by film historians examine the aesthetics and politics of more than 40 remarkable films of the McCarthy era and the chauvinism that spawned them.
