Building A Province 60 Alberta Lives:

I Was There Ellen Schoeck,2006-10-01 I Was There shares the insights and experiences of the generations of students professors and staff who lived and worked at the U of A for the past 100 years First person stories and period photographs present a unique insight into university lore from the vantage point of those who were most intimately involved in making the university what it is today the students and alumni Foreword by Hon Jim Edwards PC Metis Pioneers Doris Jeanne MacKinnon,2018-02-08 In Metis Pioneers Doris Jeanne MacKinnon compares the survival strategies of two Metis women born during the fur trade one from the French speaking free trade tradition and one from the English speaking Hudson s Bay Company tradition who settled in southern Alberta as the Canadian West transitioned to a sedentary agricultural and industrial economy MacKinnon provides rare insight into their lives demonstrating the contributions Metis women made to the building of the Prairie West This is a compelling tale of two women s acts of quiet resistance in the final days of the British Empire

Training Disciplined Soldiers for Christ Tim W. Callaway,2013-04-17 The comparative scarcity of academic attention given Prairie Bible Institute located at Three Hills Alberta Canada serves as the primary motivation behind this book This work should therefore be regarded as an attempt to contribute to and refine the very small amount of research available regarding how Prairie Bible Institutes first half century should be understood and interpreted by students of North American church history Drawing on an insiders perspective of PBI former PBI staff kid Tim W Callaway challenges the adequacy and accuracy of Canadian scholar Dr John G Stackhouse Jr s inference that the kind of sectish evangelicalism that typified PBI in the twentieth century was substantially different from the characteristics that define the traditional understanding of American fundamentalism The undertaking contained in these pages advances the perspective that Prairie Bible Institute during the L E Maxwell era did in fact reflect the influence and attributes of American fundamentalism to a far greater extent than what Stackhouse allowed for in his research

My Heroes Have Always Been Indians Dr. Cora J. Voyageur,2018-11-14 In a series of inspirational profiles Cora Voyageur celebrates 100 remarkable Indigenous Albertans whose achievements have enriched their communities the province and the world As a child Cora rarely saw Indigenous individuals represented in her history textbooks or in pop culture Willie Nelson sang My Heroes Have Always Been Cowboys but Cora wondered where were the heroes who looked like her She chose the title of her book in response to help reflect her reality In fact you don t have to look very hard to find Indigenous Albertans excelling in every field from the arts to business and everything in between Cora wrote this book to ensure these heroes receive their proper due Some of the individuals in this collection need no introduction while others are less well known From past and present and from all walks of life these 100 Indigenous heroes share talent passion and legacies that made a lasting impact Read about Douglas Cardinal the architect whose iconic flowing designs grace cities across Alberta across Canada and in Washington DC Nellie Carlson a dedicated activist whose work advanced the cause of Indigenous women and the education of Indigenous children Alex

Janvier whose pioneering work has firmly established him as one of Canada's greatest artists Moostoos The Buffalo the spokesperson for the Cree in Treaty 8 talks who fought tirelessly to defend his People's rights And many more Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M. OECD Studies on Water Security for Better Lives OECD, 2013-09-02 This publication examines the critical issues surrounding water security water shortage water excess inadequate water quality the resilience of freshwater systems providing a rationale for a risk based approach and the management of trade offs between water and other policies

Water Security for Better Lives Organisation for Economic Co-Operation and Development (OECD), 2014-01-31 This publication examines the critical issues surrounding water security water shortage water excess inadequate water quality the resilience of freshwater systems providing a rationale for a risk based approach and the management of trade offs between water and other sectoral and environmental policies The report sets out a three step process to know target and manage water risks 1 appraising the risks 2 judging the tolerability and acceptability of risks and weighing risk trade offs and 3 calibrating appropriate responses The publication provides policy analysis and guidance on the use of market based instruments and the complex links between water security and other policy objectives such as food security energy security climate mitigation and biodiversity protection Transforming Provincial Politics Bryan M. Evans, Charles W

Smith, 2015-03-27 Over the past thirty five years Canada's provinces and territories have undergone significant political changes Abandoning mid century Keynesian policies governments of all political persuasions have turned to deregulation tax reduction and government downsizing as policy solutions for a wide range of social and economic issues Transforming Provincial Politics is the first province by province analysis of politics and political economy in more than a decade and the first to directly examine the turn to neoliberal policies at the provincial and territorial level Featuring chapters written by experts in the politics of each province and territory Transforming Provincial Politics examines how neoliberal policies have affected politics in each jurisdiction A comprehensive and accessible analysis of the issues involved this collection will be welcomed by scholars instructors and anyone interested in the state of provincial politics today Mavericks Aritha Van Herk, 2010-01-12 The fifth title in our provincial histories series Mavericks is an idiosyncratic and episodic history of what is arguably Canada's most unconventional province From mapmakers to ranchers Stampede Wrestling to Stockwell Day acclaimed writer Aritha van Herk brings the drama and combative beauty of this irascible province to stunning life van Herk's portrait of her home province embraces all its extremes from deadly and spectacular weather to dinosaur graveyards and from oil gushers and geysers to barnstorming social reformers and political haymakers Bronc riders of boom and bust Alberta's people are a beguiling mixture of opinionated extremists hardy pioneers and gentle sinners Alberta is a province that most Canadians simply don't understand the province most Canadians love to hate It is regarded as a land of reckless redneck and ignorant individualists But it is also the province where the Famous Five fought the landmark Person's Case giving Canadian women the same status as men in the eyes of the law a province that truly believes in free speech Albertans tolerate in their midst people whose extreme views on any manner of subjects would make them outcasts elsewhere And Albertans practice the creed of western neighbourliness giving assiduously to charity and always lending a hand where help is needed They are a tough tender bunch squinting into the wind of determined difference If you re an Albertan you ll recognize yourself and your home in this book If you re not an Albertan this book will be an education for you Mavericks will open your eyes to the real Alberta as she was and is

Creating Societies Dirk Hoerder,2000-01-01 Dirk Hoerder shows us that it is not shining railroad tracks or statesmen in Ottawa that make up the story of Canada but rather individual stories of life and labour Caribbean women who care for children born in Canada lonely prairie homesteaders miners in Alberta and British Columbia women labouring in factories Chinese and Japanese immigrants carving out new lives in the face of hostility Hoerder examines these individual experiences in Creating Societies the first systematic overview of the total Canadian immigrant experience Using letters travel accounts diaries memoirs and reminiscences he brings the immigrant s experiences to life Their writings often recorded for grandchildren neighbours and sometimes a larger public show how immigrant lives were entwined with the emerging Canadian society Hoerder presents an important new picture of the emerging Canadian identity dispelling the Canadian myth of a dichotomy between national unity and ethnic diversity and emphasizing the long standing interaction between the members of a different ethnic groups

The Provinces and Canadian Foreign Trade Policy Christopher J. Kukucha,2009-07-01 During the past thirty years international trade agreements have focused increasingly on areas of provincial jurisdiction In The Provinces and Canadian Foreign Trade Policy Kukucha argues that Canadian provinces have maintained a level of autonomy in response to these developments sometimes even influencing Canada s global trade relations and the evolution of international norms and standards The first comprehensive review of provincial foreign trade policy in Canada the book highlights the convergence of debates related to federalism Canadian foreign policy and the global political economy as they are played out in the negotiation and implementation of international trade agreements It will be of interest to students and practitioners of political science public policy and economics Alberta's Local Governments: Politics and Democracy Jack Masson, Edward C. LeSage, 1994

During the last decade Alberta municipalities have endured hardships they have not faced since the Great Depression Changes in the province's political structures appear to have been made primarily to transfer a greater share of the costs of local government to the municipalities yet surprisingly few municipal politicians have resisted the province's financial policies Old Age Pensions and Policy-Making in Canada K.
