Building Local Capacities For Peace Rethinking Conflict And Development In Sri Lanka:

Building Local Capacities for Peace Markus Mayer, Darini Rajasingham-Senanayake, Yuvi Thangarajah, 2003 This book intends to give voice to local and regional perspectives in order to discuss alternative avenues for conflict reduction development interventions and crisis prevention in the island by looking at interconnections between conflict and developmen

Conflict and Peacebuilding in Sri Lanka Jonathan Goodhand, Benedikt Korf, Jonathan Spencer, 2010-12-14 The period between 2001 and 2006 saw the rise and fall of an internationally supported effort to bring a protracted violent conflict in Sri Lanka to a peaceful resolution A ceasefire agreement signed in February 2002 was followed by six rounds of peace talks but growing political violence disagreements over core issues and a fragmentation of the constituencies of the key parties led to an eventual breakdown In the wake of the failed peace process a new government pursued a highly effective war for peace leading to the military defeat of the LTTE on the battlefields of the north east in May 2009 This book brings together a unique range of perspectives on this problematic and ultimately unsuccessful peace process The contributions are based upon extensive field research and written by leading Sri Lankan and international researchers and practitioners The framework of liberal peacebuilding provides an analytical starting point for exploring the complex and unpredictable interactions between international and domestic players during the war peace war period The lessons drawn from the Sri Lankan case have important implications in the context of wider debates on the liberal peace and post conflict peacebuilding particularly as these debates have largely been shaped by the high profile cases such as Kosovo Afghanistan and Iraq This book is of interest not only to Sri Lanka specialists but also to the wider policy practitioner audience and is a useful contribution to South Asian studies

The Challenge of Youth Employment in Sri Lanka Ramani Gunatillaka, Markus Mayer, Milan Vodopivec, 2010-05-11 Sri Lanka has long been regarded as a model of a successful welfare state in a low income setting yet it has not succeeded in creating a sufficient number of good jobs for the increasing number of young people Hence young Sri Lankans perceive their country as an unjust and unequal society in which mainstream institutions have failed to address inequalities in the distribution of resources as well as of benefits deriving from economic growth Against this background The Challenge of Youth Employment in Sri Lanka aims to identify ways to improve the opportunities available to new job market entrants by addressing existing inequalities and to help young people more fully realize their potentials Drawing from original research and a review of existing studies the authors use the 4Es conceptual framework to analyze four key aspects of labor markets employment creation employability entrepreneurship and equal opportunity identifying main issues and results current trends and possible new approaches

The Tsunami of 2004 in Sri Lanka Ragnhild Lund, Piers Blaikie, 2013-10-18 This book is based on empirical research in Sri Lanka conducted after the catastrophic tsunami which hit the country in December 2004 The aims of the research have been to develop new knowledge on post crisis reconstruction and recovery work on how to bridge the knowledge gap between researchers and practitioners

as well as trying to use past research experiences from Sri Lanka to learn about the present day situation The chapters use a common analytical frame related to the policy narratives of post tsunami recovery in the shadow of war and deal with housing reconstruction livelihoods internally displaced humanitarian interventions and protracted conflicts The authors represent various social scientific fields and they have experience from different geographical areas of Sri Lanka This book was published as a special issue of Norsk Geografisk Tidsskrift

Foundations for Local Governance Fumihiko Saito, 2008-01-15 Successful reforms need coherent approaches in which a range of stakeholders are willing to share responsibilities and resources in order to achieve the ultimate outcome of poverty reduction in developing countries This book provides a framework to access intended outcomes generated by decentralization measures implemented in Asian and African countries It is based on comparative analyses of different experiences of decentralization measures in six developing countries

Implementation and World Politics Alexander Betts, Phil Orchard, 2014 A significant amount of International Relations scholarship examines the role of international norms in world politics Existing work though focuses mainly on how these norms emerge and the process by which governments sign and ratify them In conventional accounts the story ends there Yet this tells us very little about the conditions under which these norms actually make any difference in practice When do these norms actually change what happens on the ground In order to address this analytical gap the book develops an original conceptual framework for understanding the role of implementation in world politics It applies this framework to explain variation in the impact of a range of people centred norms relating to humanitarianism human rights and development The book explores how the same international norms can have radically different effects in different national and local contexts or within particular organizations and in turn how this variation can have profound effects on people's lives How do international norms change and adapt at implementation Which actors and structures matter for shaping whether implementation actually takes place and on whose terms And what lessons can we derive from this for both International Relations theory and for international public policy makers Collectively the chapters explore these themes by looking at three different types of norms treaty norms principle norms and policy norms across policy fields that include refugees internal displacement crimes against humanity the use of mercenaries humanitarian assistance aid transparency civilian protection and the responsibility to protect

Civil Society Responses to Changing Civic Spaces Kees Biekart, Tiina Kontinen, Marianne Millstein, 2023-05-24 This open access book contributes to thriving debates in academic as well as professional circles about the role of civil society in shrinking civic spaces rising authoritarianism and right wing populism conflicts fragile states and most lately the global COVID 19 pandemic This is one of the first books to address the implications of changing civic spaces for civil society organizations worldwide It offers a unique overview of how social movements and civil society groups in very different settings are responding to state imposed restrictions of basic civic freedoms The authors are all experts in the field and their analyses are based on original and onsite research This unique book also contributes to a better understanding of the conceptualizations and practices of civil society It is of keen interest to academic scholars students civil society practitioners and policy makers in the field of international development research and civil society action

Affective Disorders Bede Scott, 2019 Affective Disorders explores the significance of emotion in a range of colonial and postcolonial narratives Through close readings of Naguib Mahfouz Joaquim Maria Machado de Assis and Upamanyu Chatterjee among others Bede Scott argues that literary representations of emotion need not be interpreted solely at the level of character individual psychology or the contingencies of plotting but could also be related to broader sociopolitical forces has written an excellent book that provides a lucid and comprehensive critical analysis of organizations. It extends in reach and relevance beyond the specific field of organization studies and the sociology of organizations to encompass broader intellectual developments that have had a significant impact on contemporary sociology and cultural studies. Barry Smart, Professor of Sociology, University of Portsmouth, anticipates that it will prove to be an attractive book in organization studies, industrial sociology and general sociology. I am sure that this will be a book that will make a major impact. Mike Reed, Professor of Organization Theory, Lancaster University, notes that in this comprehensive and scholarly book the essential critical strands in organizational analysis are explained. It examines how central traditions have realigned in relation to the challenge of postmodernism and the new reflexive turn in organizational studies. Judicious, innovative and written with the needs of students in mind, this book offers a renewed and revitalized critical accent in organization studies, one that focuses on existing and emerging social tendencies, contestations and struggles. It will be essential reading for senior students of organization studies and sociology.

Stabilization Operations, Security and Development Robert Muggah, 2013-07-24. This edited volume provides a critical overview of the new stabilization agenda in international relations. The primary focus of so-called stability operations since 9/11 has been Afghanistan, Pakistan and Iraq. Covering the wider picture, this volume provides a comprehensive assessment of the new agenda, including the expansion of efforts in Latin America, the Caribbean, Sub-Saharan Africa and South and Southeast Asia. By harnessing the findings of studies undertaken in Brazil, Colombia, Haiti, Jamaica, Kenya, Democratic Republic of the Congo, DRC, Sudan and Sri Lanka, the volume demonstrates the impacts, intended and otherwise, of stabilization in practice. The book clarifies the debate on stabilization, focusing primarily on the policy, practice and outcomes of such operations. Rather than relying exclusively on existing military doctrine or academic writings, the volume focuses on stabilization as it is actually occurring. Drawing on the reflections of scholars and practitioners, the volume identifies the origins and historical antecedents of contemporary operations and also examines how the practice is linked to other policy spheres ranging from peacebuilding to statebuilding. Finally, the volume reviews eight practical cases of stabilization in disparate regions around the globe. This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies, peacekeeping and peacebuilding, statebuilding, development studies and international relations in general.

Internationales Asien Forum, 2007. Forum on Building Resilience to Fragility in Asia and the Pacific. Asian Development Bank, 2013-12-01. This publication captures the presentations and discussions of high-ranking government officials and senior representatives from development partners and civil society organizations during the Forum on Building Resilience to Fragility in Asia and the Pacific, held on 6-7 June 2013 in Manila. The forum aimed to foster stronger partnerships, support new thinking and innovative engagement and enhance development efforts to better assist countries with fragile and conflict-affected situations.

Nationalism and Conflict Management Eric Taylor Woods, Robert Schertzer, Eric Kaufmann, 2013-09-13. Ethno-national conflict is one of the central issues of modern politics. Despite the emergence of approaches to managing it from nation building to territorial autonomy in recent years the application of these approaches has been uneven Old conflicts persist and new ones continually emerge The authors of this book contend that what is needed to drive forward the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management is a more nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism The book addresses this issue by linking theories of ethnicity and nationalism to theories of conflict management Its contributors share a common goal of demonstrating that a nuanced understanding of ethnicity and nationalism can beneficially inform conflict management in theory and practice To do so they analyse both hot and cold conflict zones as well as cases that have been important in the development of the most widely used conflict management models The book is aimed at those interested in the theory and practice of ethno national conflict management as well as the study of ethnicity and nationalism It is well suited for undergraduate and advanced research students experts and policy makers This book was originally published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics

Handbook of Conflict Analysis and Resolution Dennis J.D. Sandole, Sean Byrne, Ingrid Sandole-Staroste, Jessica Senehi, 2008-07-31 This major Handbook is a collection of work from leading scholars in the Conflict Analysis and Resolution CAR field The central theme is the value of interdisciplinary approaches to the analysis and resolution of conflicts An Uneasy Hegemony Shyamika Jayasundara-Smits, 2022-11-10 Sri Lanka has been regarded as a model democracy among former British colonies It was lauded for its impressive achievement in terms of human development indicators However Sri Lanka s modern history can also be read as a tragic story of inter ethnic inequalities and tensions resulting in years of violent conflicts Two long spells of anti state youth uprisings were followed by nearly three decades of civil war and most recently a renewed upsurge of events are examples of the on going uneasy project of state building This book discusses that state building in Sri Lanka is centred on the struggle for hegemony amidst a kind of politics that rejects individual and group equality opposes the social integration of marginalised groups and appeals to narrow fearful and xenophobic tendencies among the majority population and minorities alike It answers the pressing questions of How do the dynamics of intra Sinhalese class relations and Sinhalese politics influence the trajectories of post colonial state building What tensions emerge over time between Sinhalese hegemony building and wider state building How did these tensions manifest in majority and minority relationships
