Building Regional Security In The Middle East Domestic Regional And International Influences:

Building Regional Security in the Middle East Emily B. Landau, Tamar Malz, Zeev Maoz, 2004-11-23 Discussions on regional security were initiated in the Middle East in 1992 as part of the Middle East peace process The collapse of the Oslo process and other regional developments in the latter half of the 1990s have diminished hopes that the initial gains made in this direction might further develop as violence has again become the primary mode of effecting political changes in the region On the backdrop of this somewhat dismal current reality in the Middle East the rationale for this volume is that research into regional security structures should nevertheless be pursued When looking at the long term process of creating regional security setbacks are not unlikely The articles that make up this collection focus on the problems that have been encountered and possible directions for getting regional efforts back on track A special issue of the Journal of Strategic Studies

WMD Arms Control in the Middle East Harald Müller, 2016-02-17 The Middle East is a hot spot of proliferation It contains one state assumed to possess nuclear weapons several states that tried and failed to develop a military nuclear capability one state under suspicion of trying to do so and it is the world region that witnessed the most frequent and severe employment of chemical weapons since the end of World War I Notwithstanding not a single arms control regime concerning weapons of mass destruction WMD covers the region as a whole Instead we have seen several proliferation related military operations which have rather contributed to destabilization than served non proliferation This volume written under the auspices of the EU Consortium for Non Proliferation and Disarmament determines the current state of diplomatic efforts to establish a WMD free zone in the Middle East In doing so it provides insights into central actors conflicting political positions thereby explaining the stalemate of efforts to negotiate a WMD free zone Chapters written by renowned experts from academia and policy oriented think tanks as well as by next generation Middle East and arms control experts introduce the subject to the reader give background information about arms control initiatives provide technical expertise and endeavour to make proposals for arms control measures in support of the creation of a Middle East WMD free zone

International Institutions of the Middle East

James Worrall, 2017-03-16 This book aims to be the key introductory volume for understanding the regional IOs of the Middle East. It assesses the reasons why IOs in the Middle East are so ill developed, explores their history, evolution and the successes and failures of each IO. It also analyses the reasons for the specific difficulties faced by each organisation through the context of intra regional relations, before examining the impact of external factors such as globalisation, moves towards global governance which have impacts in the Middle East and external influences from the great powers. Finally, it explores the likely impact of the Arab Spring upon the prospects for the further development of these regional International Organisations.

Regional Security Dialogue in the Middle East Chen Kane, Egle Murauskaite, 2014-07-25 At this time of considerable political turmoil in the Middle East, there is a pressing need to explore alternative frameworks for regional security. The book discusses the Helsinki Process as one potentially relevant historical model to learn from. The Helsinki Process began in a divided Europe in the early 1970s and over 40 years achieved major successes in promoting cooperation between the Warsaw Pact and NATO member states on social, human rights, security and political issues. In this volume, established Middle East experts, former diplomats and emerging scholars assess the regional realities from a broad range of perspectives and, with the current momentum for reform across the Middle East, chart a path towards a comprehensive mechanism that could promote long term regional security. Providing a gamut of views on regional threat perception and suggesting ways forward for regional peace, this book is essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in Politics, the Middle East and Conflict Studies.

US Foreign Policy Towards the Middle East Bernd Kaussler, Glenn P. Hastedt, 2017-03-16 offers a realist critique of US foreign policy in the Middle East since 2003. Glenn Hastedt is a leading US scholar with 18 books published. US foreign policy is widely studied and will be of much interest to students of US foreign policy, Middle Eastern politics, security studies and IR.

Regional Insecurity After the Arab Uprisings E. Monier, 2015-06-11 This book presents an in depth exploration of the impact of the Arab Uprisings on the relationship between constructions of security, narratives of threat and patterns of socio political change within the Middle East and North Africa region. It also offers insights into the study of regional security and the operation of threat perceptions.

Arab Spring Challenges for Democracy and Security in the Mediterranean Patricia Bauer, 2016-01-22 This volume presents essential aspects of Mediterranean politics to be reconsidered in the light of the Arab upheavals since 2010. The focal point of the book is the question of how far European Mediterranean relations are challenged by the various developments. It explores the relationship between security and democracy within the Arab countries and in European Mediterranean relations. The ambiguity between the promotion of democratic values and the preservation of common interests in cooperation in economic and security affairs is stirred up by changing political actors and new conflictual constellations inside the Arab countries. All these changes evoke new challenges for all areas of the European Mediterranean cooperation. Thus, the volume assembles contributions from different angles on the re formulation of the European Neighbourhood Policy as well as the Democracy

Assistance towards the Southern Mediterranean It discusses the major security issues of a cooperative security architecture counter terrorism action migration control and security sector reform in order to explore the relevant challenges in the field The contributions analyse the recent developments and challenges provide critical insights into those fields and endeavour to provide some proposals for improving Mediterranean cooperation on democracy and security This book was published as a special issue of Democracy and Security

Managing a Multilevel Foreign Policy Paolo Foradori, Paolo Rosa, Riccardo Scartezzini, 2007-01-01 Managing a Multilevel Foreign Policy is a helpful resource for enhancing current understanding of the European Union as an emerging actor in the global system It introduces and examines the latest developments in the fields of EU foreign security and defense policies providing a complete overview of the ways in which the EU has grown as a global actor with a significant impact on international affairs

NATO and the Middle East Mohammed Moustafa Orfy, 2010-10-04 This book examines the role of NATO in the Middle East It reviews the strategic importance of the region and why it has become a source of instability looks at US and international initiatives to counteract this instability and charts the development of NATO in this context

Regional Orders and Regional Powers Nadine Godehardt, Dirk Nabers, 2011 Annotation Regional Powers and Regional Orders presents a re examination and re conceptualization of the concept of region and its function within power and order systems Utilising a comparative and case study approach the volume examines new regional powers such as Brazil China India Russia and South Africa These territories as regional powers are novel phenomenon in the field of international politics and even more so in the field of international relations The book focuses on the emerging role of these new regional powers within their respective region and asks how other members of these regions cope with and react to that role Regional Powers and Regional Orders will be of interest to students and scholars of international and regional politics and power and international relations

Security Dynamics in The Gulf and The Arabian Peninsula Howard M. Hensel, 2022-09-30 This book focuses on security dynamics in the contemporary Gulf and Arabian Peninsula It highlights the development of the Gulf and the Arabian Peninsula the contemporary challenges and opportunities confronting the principal powers that are active in this important sub region and analyzes and evaluates their policy responses The various perspectives of the chapters all suggest that the stability and security of the Gulf sub region is now and will continue in the future to be of vital importance to the global community The chapters that compose the volume are organized into three thematic sections Part I Security Challenges and Power Configurations in the Gulf and the Arabian Peninsula The Historical Context comprises three chapters Part II consisting of seven chapters is entitled Contemporary Security Challenges and Opportunities in the Gulf and the Arabian Peninsula Part III Contemporary National Interests Objectives and Strategies of the Major Powers in the Gulf and the Arabian Peninsula comprises five chapters Finally the volume ends with a concluding chapter Unfortunately the contemporary unstable heterogeneous Gulf sub region is fraught with extremely serious and often urgent challenges that threaten the sub region s security This volume helps to illuminate the nature of the sub regional environment and the contemporary challenges and opportunities that confront the various powers that are active in the Gulf It also contributes to a greater understanding of the interests contemporary objectives and strategies of those powers as they formulate and implement policies in response to the challenges and opportunities that they confront This book will be of much interest to students of security studies Middle Eastern politics and International Relations

The Arab State and Neo-Liberal Globalization Laura Guazzone, Daniela Pioppi, 2022-07-01 Now available in paperback this collection of essays offers an alternative approach to the study of today s Arab states by focusing on their participation in neo liberal globalization rather than on authoritarianism or Islam The effects of the restructuring of traditional state power engendered by globalization are analyzed separately through updated empirical research into the political economic and security processes of each country considered Egypt Lebanon Morocco and Saudi Arabia are the case studies selected to represent different paths towards a shared model of a new Arab state which far from representing an exceptional case of resilience against global trends may be seen in many instances as typifying their effects The book offers both an overall conceptualization of change affecting the Arab states domestically and internationally and a series of in depth case studies by country and functional areas It is extremely timely when viewed within the context of the current political unrest and unprecedented change within the Middle East This paperback edition includes a new preface which links the author s research to the current Arab Spring crisis

Libya in the Arab Spring Ramazan Erdağ, 2017-03-22 By examining Libya s security architecture before and after the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO intervention in 2011 this book aims to answer three questions First what were the security patterns in Libya within the Middle East security complex before the Arab Spring Second to what extent did the Arab Spring and the revolution and intervention processes in Libya affect this security architecture And third what are the implications of the Libyan revolution and the NATO intervention on regional security and on the security sub complexes of the Middle East in the post Arab Spring era The author addresses these issues by providing a micro level analysis of amity enmity patterns power distribution and external power interests

Special Issue on Building Regional Security in the Middle East , 2003

The War That Must Never Be Fought George P. Shultz, James E. Goodby, 2015-08-01 This book discusses the nuclear dilemma from various countries points of view from Japan Korea the Middle East and others The final chapter proposes a new solution for the nonproliferation treaty review

International Relations of the Middle East Louise Fawcett, 2013-03-21 Leading scholars of Middle East politics and international relations present comprehensive coverage of the international politics of the Middle East a region at the forefront of international attention

Regional Security Structures in Asia Ashok Kapur, 2018-10-24 Kapur argues that explanations of international relations in Asia in the post Second World War period have relied too much on the Cold War as a key explanatory factor and have not given enough emphasis to the useful concepts of regional power formation conflict formation and conflict resolution The author outlines these concepts and goes on to elaborate on them and to apply them to three key

Asian regions northeast southeast and south Asia discussing practical strategic issues in an historical perspective and arguing that these concepts and other concepts which he discusses are extremely helpful in making sense of the complex pattern of international relations in Asia International Relations of the Middle East Louise L'Estrange Fawcett, 2016 Now in its fourth edition International Relations of the Middle East provides a thematic overview of the subject combining a history of the region with analysis of key themes actors and conflicts as well as topical material and perspectives
