Kinship, Islam, and the Politics of Marriage in Jordan Geoffrey F. Hughes, 2021-06 In Kinship Islam and the Politics of Marriage in Jordan Geoffrey Hughes sets out to trace the marriage crisis in Jordan and the Middle East Rapid institutional technological and intellectual shifts in Jordan have challenged the traditional notions of marriage and the role of powerful patrilineal kin groups in society by promoting an alternative ideal of romantic love between husband and wife Drawing on many years of fieldwork in rural Jordan Kinship Islam and the Politics of Marriage in Jordan provides a firsthand look at how expectations around marriage are changing for young people in the Middle East even as they are still expected to raise money for housing bridewealth and a wedding Kinship Islam and the Politics of Marriage in Jordan offers an intriguing look at the contrasts between the traditional values and social practices of rural Jordanians around marriage and the challenges and expectations of young people as their families negotiate the concept of kinship as part of the future of politics family dynamics and religious devotion

How Migrant Labor is Changing Rural China Rachel Murphy, 2002-09-19 One of the most dramatic and noticeable changes in China since the introduction of economic and social reforms in the early 1980s has been the mass migration of peasants from the countryside to urban areas across the country Murphy s in depth fieldwork in rural China offers a rich basis for her findings about the impact of migration on many aspects of rural life inequality the organization of agricultural production land transfers livelihood diversification spending patterns house building marriage education the position of women social stability and state society relations Her analysis focuses on the human experiences and strategies that precipitate shifts in national and local policies for economic development and the responses of migrants non migrants and officials to changing circumstances obstacles and opportunities This pioneering study is rich in original source materials and anecdotes as well as useful comparative examples from other developing countries Acts of the Parliament of Victoria Victoria, 1899 The Call of Jerusalem Tan Nget Hong, 2023-11-16 Reading The Call of Jerusalem from three different perspectives It s been almost 20 years since I first read Prof Tan Nget Hong s first edition of The Call of Jerusalem At that time I did not know Prof Tan personally nor had I heard about him However after reading this book I wanted to make a phone call to him to express my appreciation of the book Unfortunately the phone call did not get through at that time Over the past decade or so Prof Tan and I have become close friends and partners in the ministry of Caring and Comforting God s chosen people On 27 and 28 October 2015 both of us were workshop speakers at the Caring for God s Chosen People Mandarin speaking seminar held in Kuala Lumpur Unexpectedly the attendees filled the main Worship Hall of Kuala Lumpur Hokkien Methodist Church We believed that this was the first time that a public meeting on the theme of Caring for God s Chosen People was held in Malaysia It is indeed a great honor that we can contribute to promoting the ministry of Caring for God s Chosen People among the Malaysian Chinese churches To this day we still remember vividly the feeling of excitement in our hearts throughout the seminar and we are indeed grateful to the Lord that we could be used by Him in this ministry I am very glad to learn that Prof Tan is publishing an updated e version of this book and believe sincerely that reading this book will bring many benefits to the readers Since his first visit to the Holy Land in 2000 Prof Tan has made many trips to the Holy Land in the past 20 years As a free independent traveler he has opportunity to make meaningful visits to most biblically related places in the Holy Land and this book is the product of his observations research and meditations during his visits to the Holy Land over the past 20 years Although today there are already many Chinese books about the Holy Land this book still has its own unique features and deserves to be carefully read by believers First of all this book can be regarded as a very comprehensive handbook for the travelers to the Holy Land and it serves both as a reference and a travel guide for those who are visiting the Holy Land The destinations described in this book cover almost every Christian must visit site in the Holy Land The author s explanation of each biblical site is very detailed including the historical geographical and cultural aspects as well as current background In addition the author provides many practical guidance and suggestions for the reader based on his own rich personal experiences The tips provided can also save first time visitors to the Holy Land from many unnecessary hassles including the trap of being deceived by unscrupulous tour guides This book can also be read as a devotional Readers not only read about the author s narratives of the scene and background of the biblical sites but also his pastoral teachings exhortations and relevant prayers For as an elder of the church Prof Tan always shares with readers the relevant biblical facts and teaching God's will and the love of Christ. At almost every biblical site the author quotes appropriate Scripture to help the reader connect with the teaching of the Bible. Believers who visit the Holy Land with this book in hand will feel that they not only enjoy the benefit of a personal guide to explain the significance and background of the biblical sites but also receiving sound teachings of the Bible by an Elder with spiritual understanding. The last portion of the book reveals the author's deep concern for the salvation of God's chosen people as he exhorts believers to share God's desire for the redemption of the Jews. May the apostle Paul's prayer become the prayer of every believer. Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. Rom 10:1. This is also the burden that I share with the author. Our life mission is to make people know Christ and fulfill the Great Commission through our speaking or writing and in this the Jews should have the priority because salvation is from the Jews as Paul says in Romans. For I am not ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes to the Jew first and also to the Greek. Rom 1:16. Therefore this book can be read from three different perspectives: 1. As a Holy Land travel guidebook for Christian travelers. 2. As a devotional aid for Christian spiritual discipline. 3. As an introduction to Missions to the Jews. I pray that the Lord may use this book as a blessing for every reader.

Grammar of Atong Seino van Breugel, 2014-01-30. Atong is a Tibeto-Burman language spoken in Northeast India and Bangladesh. Seino van Breugel provides a deep and thorough coverage and analysis of all major areas of the grammar which makes this book of great interest and value to general linguists and typologists as well as area specialists. Alongside an Atong-English dictionary and five fully glossed Atong texts recorded during extensive fieldwork, this work also provides a sizable ethnolinguistic introduction to the speakers and their culture. Of particular interest is the pragmatic approach taken for the grammatical analysis. Whereas the form of an utterance provides some clue as to its possible meaning, inference is always needed to arrive at the most relevant interpretation within the context in which the utterance occurs. This is a very important book for South Asian and Sino-Tibetan linguistic scholarship. Of the 200 languages of Northeast India, only a handful have been documented; the present work brings the number of full-scale modern grammars for these languages to six. Thus it represents a unique and extremely valuable contribution. Professor Scott DeLancey, University of Oregon. This is a solid academic work which makes a huge contribution to the field. There is no other detailed account of this particular language and it is highly doubtful that anyone will write something more comprehensive in the future. Dr. Willem de Reuse, University of
