Building The Third Sector Latin Americas Private Research Centers And Nonprofit Development:

Building the Third Sector Daniel C. Levy, 2010-11-23 Winner of the 1997 ARNOVA Award for Distinguished Book in Nonprofit and Voluntary Action Research The private third sector has largely displaced public universities and bureaucracies as Latin America's leaders in social science and related policy activities In many nations these private research centers have become the main workplace for intellectuals Mostly think tanks they are influential political institutions often making strong contribution to democratization The success of these research centers marks an unsurpassed triumph for international philanthropy but it also raises questions about the proper role and structural home for research and advanced study Levy shows how the centers success often undermine a region's struggling universities while failing themselves to fulfill higher education's fundamental mission Levy deals broadly with regional developments yet systematically identifies and analyzes the crucial subpatterns He integrates impressive empirical data with conceptual perspectives on nonprofit organizations comparative politics and comparative education as well as Latin American studies

Private Higher Education and Public Policy in Africa Isaac Nnamdi Obasi, 2008 Social Sciences Katherine D. McCann, 2000-12-01 Beginning with volume 41 1979 the University of Texas Press became the publisher of the Handbook of Latin American Studies the most comprehensive annual bibliography in the field Compiled by the Hispanic Division of the Library of Congress and annotated by a corps of more than 130 specialists in various disciplines the Handbook alternates from year to year between social sciences and humanities The Handbook annotates works on Mexico Central America the Caribbean and the Guianas Spanish South America and Brazil as well as materials covering Latin America as a whole Most of the subsections are preceded by introductory essays that serve as biannual evaluations of the literature and research under way in specialized areas The Handbook of Latin American Studies is the oldest continuing reference work in the field Katherine D McCann is acting editor for this volume The subject categories for Volume 57 are as follows Electronic Resources for the Social Sciences Anthropology Economics Geography Government and Politics International Relations Sociology

In the Name of Reason Patricio Silva, 2010-11-01 Civil Society & Development Jude Howell, Jenny Pearce, 2001 Setting out to explore critically the way civil society has entered development thinking policy and practice as a paradigmatic concept of the 21st century Howell development studies U of Sussex and Pearce Latin American politics U of Bradford trace the historical path leading to the encounter between the ideas of development and civil society in the late 1980s and how donors have translated these into development policy and programs They find that there are competing normative visions which have deep roots in Western European political thought about the role of civil society in relation to the state and market both among donors and within the societies where donors are operating This leads to donors playing a major role in shaping the character of service provision They also argue that their study exposes the hitherto unexplored power of the market as opposed to solely the state to distort donor programs c Book News Inc

Environmental Policy in North America Robert G. Healy, Debora

VanNijnatten, Marcela López-Vallejo, 2014-01-01 This comprehensive analysis of key issues in North American environmental policy provides an overview of how the US Mexico and Canada differ in their environmental management approaches and capacity levels and how these differences play into cross border cooperation on environmental problems The book offers insights into transboundary cooperation both before and after NAFTA and presents a framework for making environmental interaction more effective in the future The book is organized into two parts The first more general section compares the national contexts for environmental management in each country including economic conditions sociocultural dynamics and political decision making frameworks and shows how these have led to variations in policy approaches and levels of capacity The authors argue that effective environmental governance in North America depends on the ability of transboundary institutions to address and mediate these differences The book s second section illustrates this argument using four case studies of environmental management in North America biodiversity and protected areas air pollution smog greenhouse gas reduction and genetically modified crops
