Building and Builders in Hispanic California, 1769-1850 Mardith K. Schuetz-Miller,1994 Juana Briones of

Nineteenth-century California Jeanne Farr McDonnell,2008-09-15 Juana Briones de Miranda lived an unusual life which is wonderfully recounted in this highly accessible biography She was one of the first residents of what is now San Francisco then named Yerba Buena Good Herb reportedly after a medicinal tea she concocted She was among the few women in California of her time to own property in her own name and she proved to be a skilled farmer rancher and businesswoman In retelling her life story Jeanne Farr McDonnell also retells the history of nineteenth century California from the unique perspective of this surprising woman Juana Briones was born in 1802 and spent her early youth in Santa Cruz a community of retired soldiers who had helped found Spanish California Native Americans and settlers from Mexico In 1820 she married a cavalryman at the San Francisco Presidio Apolinario Miranda She raised her seven surviving sons and daughters and adopted an orphaned Native American girl Drawing on knowledge she gained about herbal medicine and other cures from her family and Native Americans she became a highly respected curandera or healer Juana set up a second home and dairy at the base of then Loma Alta now Telegraph Hill the first house in that area After gaining a church sanctioned separation from her abusive husband she expanded her farming and cattle business in 1844 by purchasing a 4 400 acre ranch where she built her house located in the present city of Palo Alto She successfully managed her extensive business interests until her death in 1889 Juana Briones witnessed extraordinary changes during her lifetime In this fascinating book readers will see California s history in a new and revelatory light Ceramic Production in Early Hispanic California Russell K. Skowronek,M. James

Blackman,Ronald L. Bishop,2014-07-08 In the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries much of what is now the southwestern United States was known as Alta California a remote part of New Spain The presidios missions and pueblos of the region have yielded a rich trove of ceramics materials though they have been sparsely analyzed in the literature Ceramic Production in Early Hispanic California fills that lacuna and reinterprets the position of Alta California in the Spanish Colonial Empire Using both petrography and neutron activation analysis to examine over 1 600 ceramic samples the contributors to this volume explore the region s ceramic production imports trade and consumption From artistic innovation to technological diffusion a different aspect of the intricacies of everyday life and culture in the region is revealed in each essay This book illuminates much about Spanish imperial expansion in a far corner of the colonial world Through this research California history has been rewritten Investing in the Early Modern Built Environment Carole

Shammas,2012-08-01 Investing in the Early Modern Built Environment represents the first attempt to delve into the period s enhanced architectural investment its successes its failures and the conflicts it provoked globally On the Borders of Love and Power David Wallace Adams,Crista DeLuzio,2012-07-09 Embracing the crossroads that made the region distinctive this book reveals how American families have always been characterized by greater diversity than idealizations of the traditional family have allowed The essays show how family life figured prominently in relations to larger struggles for conquest and control

Architecture and Its Sculpture in Viceregal Mexico Robert J. Mullen, 2010-07-05 From monumental cathedrals to simple parish churches perhaps as many as 100 000 churches and civic buildings were constructed in Mexico during the viceregal or colonial period 1535 1821 Many of these structures remain today as witnesses to the fruitful blending of Old and New World forms and styles that created an architecture of enduring vitality In this profusely illustrated book Robert J Mullen provides a much needed overview of Mexican colonial architecture and its attendant sculpture Writing with just the right level of detail for students and general readers he places the architecture in its social and economic context He shows how buildings in the larger cities remained closer to European designs while buildings in the pueblos often included prehispanic indigenous elements This book grew out of the author s twenty five year exploration of Mexico s architectural and sculptural heritage Combining an enthusiast s love for the subject with a scholar s care for accuracy it is the perfect introduction to the full range of Mexico s colonial architecture

La Nueva California David E Hayes-Bautista, 2017-02-07 Since late 2001 more than fifty percent of the babies born in California have been Latino When these babies reach adulthood they will by sheer force of numbers influence the course of the Golden State This essential study based on decades of data paints a vivid and energetic portrait of Latino society in California by providing a wealth of details about work ethic family strengths business establishments and the surprisingly robust health profile that yields an average life expectancy for Latinos five years longer than that of the general population Spanning one hundred years this complex fascinating analysis suggests that the future of Latinos in California will be neither complete assimilation nor unyielding separatism Instead the development of a distinctive regional identity will be based on Latino definitions of what it means to be American This updated edition now provides trend lines through the 2010 Census as well as information on the 1849 California Constitutional Convention and the ethnogenesis of how Latinos created the society of Latinos de Estados Unidos Latinos in the US In addition two new chapters focus on Latino Post Millennials the first focusing on what it s like to grow up in a digital world and the second describing the contestation of Latinos at a national level and the dynamics that transnational relationships have on Latino Post Millennials in Mexico and Central America

Sanctuaries of Earth, Stone, and Light Gloria Fraser Giffords, 2022-08-23 Over nearly three centuries Jesuit Franciscan and Dominican missionaries built a network of churches throughout the new world of New Spain Since the early twentieth century scholars have studied the colonial architecture of southern New Spain but they have largely ignored the architecture of the north However as this book clearly demonstrates the colonial architecture of Northern New Spain an area that encompasses most of the southwestern United States and much of northern Mexico is strikingly beautiful and rich with meaning After more than two decades of research both in the field and in archives around the world Gloria Fraser Giffords has authored the definitive book on this architecture Giffords has a remarkable eye for detail and for images both grand and diminutive Because so many of the buildings she examines have been destroyed she sleuthed through historical records in several countries and she discovered that the architecture and material culture of northern New Spain reveal the influences of five continents As she examines objects as large as churches or as small as ornamental ceramic tile she illuminates the sometimes subtle sometimes striking influences of the religious social and artistic traditions of Europe from the beginning of the Christian era through the nineteenth century of the Muslim countries ringing the Mediterranean from the seventh through the fifteenth centuries and of Northern New Spain's indigenous peoples whose art influenced the designs of occupying Europeans Sanctuaries of Earth Stone and Light is a pathbreaking book featuring 200 stunning photographs and over 300 illustrations ranging from ceremonial garments to detailed floor plans of the churches The California Missions Edna E. Kimbro, Julia G. Costello, Tevvy Ball, 2009 Illustrated in color throughout The California Missions History Art and Preservation combines engaging text with historical paintings archival photographs and recent photography to create a vivid chronicle of these iconic institutions The narrative recounts their founding and early history surveys mission art and architecture and examines their role in shaping the history and culture of California A final chapter discusses recent advances in preserving the mission heritage for future generations The second part of the book provides concise historical profiles for each of the twenty one missions Book Jacket La Purísima Concepción Michael R. Hardwick, 2015-05-11 In two centuries La Purísima Concepción went from a fledgling frontier mission to a renowned California State Historic Park Once home to many Spanish soldiers settlers and hundreds of Chumash Indians La Purísima held the seat of the California Mission government under Father Mariano Payeras It withstood catastrophic events including widespread disease in early years and a great Southern California earthquake in 1812 Emerging from ruins for the last time in 1934 after restoration by the Civilian Conservation Corps structures appear today as they did in the early nineteenth century The uniquely restored California Mission complex operates as a state park in a pastoral setting Author and archivist Michael R Hardwick chronicles the story of La Purísima and the resilient people and culture that made a lasting influence The History of Alta California Antonio Maria Osio, 1996-05-15 Antonio María Osio's La Historia de Alta California was the first written history of upper California during the era of Mexican rule and this is its first complete English translation A Mexican Californian government official and the landowner of Angel Island and Point Reyes Osio writes colorfully of life in old Monterey Los Angeles and San Francisco and gives a first hand account of the political intrigues of the 1830s that led to the appointment of Juan Bautista Alvarado as governor Osio wrote his History in 1851 conveying with immediacy and detail the years of the U S Mexican War of 1846 1848 and the social upheaval that followed As he witnesses California's territorial transition from Mexico to the United States he recalls with pride the achievements of Mexican California in earlier decades and writes critically of the onset of U S influence and imperialism Unable to endure life as foreigners in their home of twenty seven years Osio and his family left Alta California for Mexico in 1852 Osio's account predates by a quarter century the better known reminiscences of Mariano Guadalupe Vallejo and Juan Bautista Alvarado and the memoirs of Californios dictated to Hubert Howe Bancroft's staff in the 1870s. Editors Rose Marie Beebe and Robert M. Senkewicz have provided an accurate complete translation of Osio's original manuscript and their helpful introduction and notes offer further details of Osio's life and of society in Alta California.

Natural Light in Medieval Churches, 2022-12-12 Inside Christian churches natural light has long been harnessed to underscore theological symbolic and ideological statements. In this volume twenty-four international scholars with various specialties explore how the study of sunlight can reveal essential aspects of the design, decoration, and function of medieval sacred spaces. Themes covered include the interaction between patrons, advisors, architects, and artists, as well as local negotiations among competing traditions that yielded new visual and spatial constructs for which natural light served as a defining and unifying factor. The study of natural light in medieval churches reveals cultural relations, knowledge transfer, patterns, processes of translation, and adaptation, as well as experiential aspects of sacred spaces in the Middle Ages. Contributors are Anna Adashinskaya, Jelena Bogdanovi, Debanjana Chatterjee, Ljiljana Avakovi, Dušan Danilovi, Magdalena Dragovi, Natalia Figueiras Pimentel, Leslie Forehand, Jacob Gasper, Vera Henkelmann, Gabriel Dinu, Herea Vladimír Ivanovici, Charles Kerton, Jorge López Quiroga, Anastasija Martinenko, Andrea Mattiello, Rubén G. Native Americans, Christianity, and the Reshaping of the American Religious Landscape Joel W. Martin, Mark A.

Nicholas, 2010 The essays here explore a variety of post-contact identities including indigenous Christians, mission-friendly non-Christians, and ex-Christians, thereby exploring the shifting world of Native-white cultural and religious exchange. Rather than questioning the authenticity of Native Christian experiences, these scholars reveal how indigenous peoples negotiated change with regard to missions, missionaries, and Christianity. This collection challenges the pervasive stereotype of Native Americans as culturally static and ill-equipped to navigate the roiling currents associated with colonialism and missionization.

Converting California James A. Sandos, 2004-01-01 This book is a compelling and balanced history of the California missions and their impact on the Indians they tried to convert. Focusing primarily on the religious conflict between the two groups, it sheds new light on the tensions, accomplishments, and limitations of the California mission experience. James A. Sandos, an eminent authority on the American West, traces the history of the Franciscan missions from the creation of the first one in 1769 until they were turned over to the public in 1836. Addressing such topics as the singular theology of the missions, the role of music in bonding Indians to Franciscan enterprises, the diseases caused by contact with the missions, and the Indian resistance to missionary activity, Sandos not only describes what happened in the California missions but offers a persuasive explanation for why it happened.

Indians, Missionaries, and Merchants Kent G. Lightfoot, 2006-11-20 Lightfoot examines the interactions between Native American communities in California, the earliest colonial settlements, those of Russian pioneers, Franciscan missionaries. He compares the history of the different ventures, their legacies that still help define the political status of native people We Are Not Animals Martin Rizzo-Martinez,2022-02 Winner of the 2023 John C Ewers Award from the Western History Association 2023 Choice Outstanding Academic Title By examining historical records and drawing on oral histories and the work of anthropologists archaeologists ecologists and psychologists We Are Not Animals sets out to answer questions regarding who the Indigenous people in the Santa Cruz region were and how they survived through the nineteenth century Between 1770 and 1900 the linguistically and culturally diverse Ohlone and Yokuts tribes adapted to and expressed themselves politically and culturally through three distinct colonial encounters with Spain Mexico and the United States In We Are Not Animals Martin Rizzo Martinez traces tribal familial and kinship networks through the missions chancery registry records to reveal stories of individuals and families and shows how ethnic and tribal differences and politics shaped strategies of survival within the diverse population that came to live at Mission Santa Cruz We Are Not Animals illuminates the stories of Indigenous individuals and families to reveal how Indigenous politics informed each of their choices within a context of immense loss and violent disruption The Intersection of Sacredness and Archaeology Donna L. Gillette,Thomas L. Sanders,2024-10-01 At the point of the often contentious intersection of sacred site preservation and resource development archaeology has a unique and valuable role Archaeology has been criticized as a destroyer of sacred sites through the unbridled pursuit of knowledge through excavation or aiding unbridled development by failing to identify sacred sites However archaeology can act as a mitigator between the conflicting goals of preservation and development while giving the indigenous a voice At the heart of this mitigation is understanding the sacred how it might be physically manifested how those of diverse cultures understand it and how it is effected by the laws and norms of diverse cultures The purpose of this book is to enhance the discussion surrounding contemporary human interaction with our natural and cultural landscape Its first goal is make this discussion more productive and less contentious by presenting and thus recognizing the cultural ways of knowing and perspectives of indigenous people Its second goal is to foster the preservation of our scared landscape As more and more of our physical landscape is being altered worldwide through rapid growth and development the cultural landscape is also being changed and challenged These changes often reflect the interests of some members of society while the interests of others including those of Native and Indigenous communities and many archaeologists environmentalists and others who understand the importance of knowing the past are disregarded The latter group is dedicated toward preserving special places and continuing to provide for Native people the ability to celebrate their traditions and focusing on defining the sacred landscape Evangelization and Cultural Conflict in Colonial Mexico Robert H. Jackson,2014-05-02 In a study published in the mid twentieth century French historian Robert Ricard postulated that the evangelization and conversion of the native populations of Mexico had been rapid and relatively easy However different forms of evidence show that the so called spiritual conquest was anything but easy or rapid and in fact natives continued to practice their traditional beliefs alongside Catholicism Within several decades of initiating the so called spiritual conquest the campaign to evangelize and convert the native populations the missionaries faced growing evidence of idolatry or the persistence of traditional religious practices and apostasy straying from Church teachings The evidence includes written documents such as inquisition investigations that resulted for example in the execution of don Carlos the native ruler of Tezcoco on December 1 1539 or that uncovered evidence of systematic organized resistance to Dominican missionaries in the Sierra Mixteca of Oaxaca Other forms of evidence include pre Hispanic religious iconography incorporated into what ostensibly were Christian murals and pre Hispanic stones embedded in the churches and convents the missionaries had built One example of this was the stone with the face of Tl loc at the rear of the Franciscan church Santiago Tlatelolco in Distrito Federal During the course of some three centuries missionaries from different Catholic religious orders attempted to convert the native populations of colonial Mexico with mixed results Native groups throughout colonial Mexico resisted the imposition of the new religion in overt and covert forms and incorporated Catholicism into their worldview on their own terms Native cultural and religious traditions were more flexible than the Iberian Catholic norms introduced by the missionaries The so called spiritual conquest a term coined by Ricard evolved as a cultural war set against the backdrop of the imposition of a foreign colonial regime The 11 essays in this volume examine the efforts to evangelize the native populations of Mexico the approaches taken by the missionaries and native responses The contributions investigate the interplay between natives and missionaries in central Mexico and on the southern and northern frontiers of New Spain and among sedentary and non sedentary natives In the end many natives found little in the new faith to attract them and resisted the imposition of new religious norms and way of life

Testimonios, 2015-08-10 When in the early 1870s historian Hubert Howe Bancroft sent interviewers out to gather oral histories from the pre statehood gentry of California he didn t count on one thing the women When the men weren t available the interviewers collected the stories of the women of the household sometimes almost as an afterthought These interviews were eventually archived at the University of California though many were all but forgotten Testimonios presents thirteen women s firsthand accounts from the days when California was part of Spain and Mexico Having lived through the gold rush and seen their country change so drastically these women understood the need to tell the full story of the people and the places that were their California

The Presidio And Militia On The Northern Frontier Of New Spain Thomas H. Naylor, 1986 Reports orders journals and letters of military officials trace frontier history through the Chicimeca War and Peace 1576 1606 early rebellions in the Sierra Madre 1601 1618 mid century challenges and realignment 1640 1660 and northern rebellions and new presidios 1681 1695
