

Effective Home-School-Community Relationships

Where can anyone find an opportunity to impact a child's world as easily and as well as in a school or home, leading children to discover their own distinct way to grow and develop.

Know you what is to be a child?...

It is to believe in love, to believe in loveliness, to believe in belief; it is to be so little that the elves can reach to whisper in your ear; it is to turn pumpkins into coaches, and mice into horses, lowness into loftiness, and nothing into everything, for each child has its fairy godmother in its own soul.

Building Effective Home School Relationships:

Handbook of School Mental Health Steven W. Evans, Julie Sarno Owens, Catherine P. Bradshaw, Mark D. Weist, 2023-02-28
The handbook provides thoughtful and provocative critiques of the science and practice of school mental health. It examines intervention science and implementation science and the study of professional development and stakeholder engagement. The volume outlines the relevant issues facing the field of school mental health and provides a framework for the areas of study. Chapters critique the science in a specific area, draw innovative connections between findings, and present new information about their area of expertise. This handbook provides a concise and critical update of the literature in school mental health and is an essential resource for those from the wide range of disciplines that constitute the science and practice of school mental health. Key topics featured include Promoting meaningful engagement and leadership in school mental health by diverse stakeholders, Training, coaching, and workforce development in school mental health, Intervention science for children with specific needs (e.g., anxiety, depression, trauma, autism), Innovations in scaling up, and Implementation science focusing on such topics as multitiered systems of support and scaleup of positive behavior support strategies. The handbook is an essential reference for researchers, graduate students, and other professionals in child and school psychology, special and general education, public health, school nursing, occupational therapy, psychiatry, social work, and counseling, educational policy, and family advocacy.
