Building National Gallery Of Victoria:

A History of the Iziko South African National Gallery Anna Tietze, 2017-06-14 In South Africa with its highly contested and changing understandings of national identity its National Gallery is no less a contested space A History of the Iziko South African National Gallery considers questions of artistic and cultural identity from the late 19th century to the present day It explores how the gallery has understood its function and its public as a national gallery from 1930 and before that the chief gallery of the Cape Colony This question is investigated through a study of the gallery's administration collection and exhibition practices over the last 150 years What is understood by and expected of a national gallery varies considerably worldwide Should it regard itself as part of a broad international cultural discourse or should it be representative of a specifically national or even regional identity The gallery is a microcosm of the greater debate how the South African nation relates to the larger world and how if at all it understands the concept of a shared culture In the last 20 years Museum Studies have become a major part of the field of Cultural Studies There is a vast literature on what might be called the history museum but far less on the art museum or gallery To date there has been no large scale historical inquiry into the Iziko SANG the country's national gallery The absence of such a history marks a serious gap in the literature which this study aims to fill

National Galleries Simon Knell, 2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism The Victorian Statutes Victoria, Louis Horwitz, 1899 Newspaper Building Design and Journalism

Cultures in Australia and the UK: 1855-2010 Carole O'Reilly, Josie Vine, 2022-11-30 This book examines the micro cultural ideologies of the journalism profession in Britain and Australia by focusing on the design execution and development of newspaper building architecture Concentrating on the main newspaper buildings in some of the major metropolitan areas in Australia Melbourne Sydney Adelaide and the UK Manchester London Edinburgh and Liverpool from 1855 to 2010 Newspaper Building Design and Journalism Cultures in Australia and the UK 1855 2010 interweaves a rich analysis of spatial characteristics of newspaper offices with compelling anecdotes from journalists working lives to examine the history evolution and precarious future of the physical newsroom and the surrounding interior and exterior space The book argues that newspaper buildings are designed to accommodate and extend journalism's professional values and belief systems over time and that their architecture reflects ideological change and continuity in these value and belief systems such as the evolution from trade to profession Ancillary factors such as the influence of the newspapers owners on the building design and the financing of new structures are also considered As professional practice rapidly shifts out of the newspaper offices this insightful study questions what this may mean for the future of the industry Newspaper Building Design and Journalism Cultures in Australia and the UK 1855 2010 will benefit academics and researchers in the areas of media journalism cultural studies and urban history The Catalogue of the Public Library of Victoria Public Library, Museums, and National Gallery (Vic.), 1880 A Place Across the River Vicki Fairfax, 2002 Victorian Yearbook, 1882 The User Perspective on

Twenty-First-Century Art Museums Georgia Lindsay, 2016-04-14 The User Perspective on Twenty First Century Art Museums explains contemporary museums from the whole gamut of user experiences whether users are preserving art creating an exhibit visiting or part of institutions that use the architecture for branding Fourteen museums from the United States Europe China and Australia represent new construction repurposed buildings and additions offering examples for most museum design situations Each is examined using interviews with key stakeholders photographs and analyses of press coverage to identify lessons from the main user groups User groups vary from project to project depending on conditions and context so each of the four parts of the book features a summary of the users and issues in that section for quick reference The book concludes with a practical straightforward lessons learned summary and a critical assessment of twenty first century museum architecture programming and expectations to help you embark on a new building design Architects architecture students museum professionals and aficionados of museum design will all find helpful insights in these lessons and critiques Victorian Year Book, 1876 Victorian Britain Sally Mitchell, 2011 First published in 1988 this encyclopedia serves as an overview and point of entry to the complex interdisciplinary field of Victorian studies The signed

The Makers and Making of Indigenous Australian

Museum Collections Nicolas Peterson,Lindy Allen,Louise Hamby,2008 This volume of original essays brings together for the first time histories of the making and of the makers of most of the major Indigenous Australian museum collections These collections are a principal source of information on how Aboriginal people lived in the past Knowing the context in which any collection was created the intellectual frameworks within which the collectors were working their collecting practices what they failed to collect and what Aboriginal people withheld is vital to understanding how any collection relates to the Aboriginal society from which it was derived Once made collections have had mixed fates some have become the jewel of a museum s holdings while others have been divided and dispersed across the world or retained but neglected The essays in this volume raise issues about representation institutional policies the periodisation of collecting intellectual history material culture studies Aboriginal culture and the idea of a collection
