Simon Rofe, 2017-09-07 This book repositions the groundbreaking Bretton Woods conference of July 1944 as the first large scale multilateral North South dialogue on global financial governance It moves beyond the usual focus on Anglo American interests by highlighting the influence of delegations from Latin America India the Soviet Union France and others It also investigates how state and private interests intermingled collided and compromised during the negotiations on the way to a set of regulations and institutions that still partly frame global economic governance in the early twenty first century Together these essays lay the groundwork for a more comprehensive analysis of Bretton Woods as a pivotal site of multilateralism in international history Bibliography on Postwar Planning Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America. Construction and Civic Development Department, 1943 The Business Cycle in the Post-War World A D Knox, 2017-01-10 Relief and Rehabilitation for a Post-war World Samantha K. Knapton, Katherine Rossy, 2023-11-16 One of the world's first truly international humanitarian organisations the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA was championed as a beacon of postwar philanthropy that sought to rehabilitate as well as provide relief This edited volume offers the first comprehensive study of the UNRRA and seeks to identify the key successes limitations and enduring challenges it faced in the postwar period Tracing the rehabilitation of displaced children in the camps of Germany and Austria to mountainous Greek villages without access to food or medical supplies and refugees in postwar China it will assess the immediate impact of UNRRA rehabilitation policy on postwar reconstruction international development and broader humanitarian processes Through these international case studies it will explore the ways in which a fundamental inability to define rehabilitation made it seemingly impossible to meet its objectives As a predecessor to modern specialised agencies such as UNESCO WHO and UNICEF studying the UNRRA is crucial for our understanding of the history of the United Nations the circumstances that shaped its future policies and the foundations of modern humanitarianism Congressional Record United States. Rethinking Postwar Europe Barbara Lange, Dirk Hildebrandt, Agata Pietrasik, 2019-12-09 The book Rethinking Postwar Europe offers an in depth insight into the largely unexplored topic of artistic practices in the 1940s and 1950s in Europe which until recently had been obscured by ideologies of the Cold War Thanks to the authors diverse methodological backgrounds the volume presents for the first time a comprehensive multilayered narrative focusing on the complexities and entanglements in the artistic field Instead of assessing the postwar period in the traditional way as divided by the Iron Curtain the contributions investigate processes of contact interaction dissemination overlapping and networking Consequently the analysis of a diversified European modernism in both its aesthetic and its socio political dimension resonates with all the different case studies In particular the volume looks at how artists developed designed and re negotiated identities and discourses and sheds new light on the power of art and creative powers in general in a postwar setting of mutilations losses and devastations Building Children's Worlds Torsten Schmiedeknecht, Jill Rudd, Emma Hayward, 2023-03-28 Children are the future architects clients and users of our buildings The kinds of architectural worlds they are exposed to in picturebooks during their formative years may be assumed to influence how they regard such architecture as adults Contemporary urban environments the world over represent the various stages of modernism in architecture This book reads that history through picturebooks and considers the kinds of national identities and histories they construct Twelve specialist essays from international scholars address questions such as Is modern architecture used to construct specific narratives of childhood Is it taken to support negative narratives of alienation on the one hand and positive narratives of happiness on the other Do images of modern architecture support ideas of community Reinforce family values If so what kinds of architecture community and family How is modern architecture placed vis vis the promotion of diversity ethnic religious gender etc How might the use of architecture in comic strips or the presence of specific kinds of building in fiction aimed at younger adults be related to the groundwork laid in picturebooks for younger readers This book reveals what stories are told about modern architecture and shows how those stories affect future attitudes towards and expectations of the built environment Domestic Commerce United States. Education for Victory Olga Anna Jones, 1943 Education for Victory , 1944 The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell, Stefan Wolff, 2016-01-22 A definitive global survey of the interaction of ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends rigorous theoretically grounded analysis with empirically rich illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today Fully updated for the second edition the book includes a new section which offers detailed analyses of contemporary cases of conflict such as in Ukraine Kosovo the African Great Lakes region and in the Kurdish areas across the Middle East thus providing accessible examples that bridge the gap between theory and practice The contributors offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a particular place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain a better insight into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegration of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences the genocide in Rwanda and the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of their prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses

An Architecture of Parts: Architects, Building Workers and Industrialisation in Britain 1940 - 1970 Christine Wall, 2013-07-04 This book is unique in describing the history of post war reconstruction from an entirely new perspective by focusing on the changing relationship between architects and building workers It considers individual as well as collective interactions with technical change and in doing so brings together for the first time an extraordinary range of sources including technical archives oral history and visual material to describe the construction process both during and in the decades after the war It focuses on the social aspects of production and the changes in working life for architects and building workers with increasing industrialization in particular analysing the effect on the building process of introducing dimensionally co ordinated components Both architects and building workers have been accused of creating a built environment now popularly discredited architects responsible for poor design and building workers for poor workmanship However many of the structures and ideas underpinning this period of rapid change were revolutionary in their commitment to a complete transformation of the building process An Architecture of Parts adds to the growing literature on changes in the building world during and immediately after the Second World War It is significant both empirically and historically in its examination of the ideas technology and relationships that fired industrialization of the building process in mid century Britain

Cold-War Propaganda in the 1950s Gary D. Rawnsley, 2016-07-27 This volume concerns the origins organisation and method of British American and Soviet propaganda during the 1950s Drawing upon a range of archival material which has only been accessible to researchers in the last few years the authors discuss propaganda s international and domestic dimensions and chart the development of a shared Cold

War culture They demonstrate how the structures of propaganda which were organised at this time endured giving shape and meaning to the remaining years of the Cold War International Intervention in the Post-Cold War World Michael C. Davis, Wolfgang Dietrich, Bettina Scholdan, 2017-07-28 International intervention on humanitarian grounds has been a contentious issue for decades First it pits the principle of state sovereignty against claims of universal human rights Second the motivations of intervening states may be open to question when avowals of moral action are arguably the fig leaf covering an assertion of power for political advantage These questions have been salient in the context of the Balkan and African wars and U S policy in the Middle East This volume undertakes a serious systematic and broadly international review of the issues
