Armed Memory Gabriella Erdélyi, Günter Frank, Ute Lotz-Heumann, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Johannes Schilling, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, Tarald Rasmussen, Mathijs Lamberigts, Bruce Gordon, David M. Whitford, 2015-12-09 The edited volume aims to re contextualize revolts in early modern Central and Southern Europe Hungary Croatia Czech Lands Austria Germany Italy by adopting the interdisciplinary and comparative methods of social and cultural history Instead of structural explanations like the model of state building versus popular resistance it wishes to put back the peasants themselves to the historical narratives of revolts Peasants appear in the book as active agents fighting or bargaining for freedom which was a practical issue for them Nonetheless the language of lord peasant negotiation was that of religion just as official punishments used Christian symbols The approach of revolts as the events of collective violence also highlights the experiences and memories of participants How did individuals and groups use remembering and forgetting as a means of forging an identity for themselves Instead of the narratives of the powerful that became the normative stories of history the perspective of the rebels uncovers the everyday faces of revolts more forcibly Finally contributors examine how later narrators used the rebels for their own purposes in other words the subsequent representation of the revolts and their leaders in image literature and historiography comes to the fore The volume aims to overcome disciplinary boundaries by bringing together historians and scholars of related disciplines including the history of literature the visual arts and anthropology The central contention of the volume the cultural imprint of peasant revolts is fully addressed thereby filling a conspicuous gap in the currently available literature

How the Military Remembers Cynthia E. Milton, Michael Lazzara, 2025-07-22 This groundbreaking collection of essays examines how Latin American militaries construct memories of past human rights violations in ways that challenge established public memory and human rights discourse While previous studies have focused on democratization transitional justice and victim centered narratives this volume takes a different approach It highlights the importance of deconstructing the military's own active memory work or their counter memories a term the editors use to describe military narratives that are both counterintuitive and that run counter to the victim oriented memories that have long dominated the region's public memory With attention to the distinct cultural political and historical contexts across Latin America the essays reveal how military figures and institutions appropriate mechanisms of truth telling and accountability to reframe the past blur the lines between perpetrator and victim and weaponize memory itself Contributors Mariana Achugar Gabriela Fried Amilivia Rebecca Atencio Jo Marie Burt Rachel Hatcher Nicol's Rodríguez Id rraga Michael J Lazzara Cynthia E Milton Carla Granados Moya Mar a Emma Wills Obregón Leith Passmore Valentina Salvi Gladys V squez Zevallos

Memory Fragmentation from Below and Beyond the State Anne

Bazin,Emmanuelle Hébert,Valérie Rosoux,Eric Sangar,2023-05-22 This volume suggests a model of collective memory that distinguishes between two conceptual logics of memory fragmentation vertical fragmentation and horizontal fragmentation It offers a series of case studies of conflict and post conflict collective memory shedding light on the ways various actors participate in the production dissemination and contestation of memory discourses With attention to the characteristics of both vertical and horizontal memory fragmentation the book addresses the plurality of diverging and often conflicting memory discourses that are produced within the public sphere of a given community It analyzes the juxtaposition tensions and interactions between narratives produced beyond or below the central state often transcending national boundaries The book is structured according to the type of actors involved in a memory fragmentation process It explores how states have been trying to produce and impose memory discourses on civil societies sometimes even against the experiences of their own citizens and how such efforts as well as backlash from actors below and beyond the state have led to horizontal and vertical memory fragmentation Furthermore it considers the attempts by states representatives to reassert control of national memory discourses and the subsequent resistances they face As such this volume will appeal to sociology and political science scholars interested in memory studies in post conflict societies
