English and Development Elizabeth J. Erling, Philip Seargeant, 2013-05-16 This book investigates the relationship between English and personal and national development as this is both discursively promoted particularly through language policy and practically realized in developing societies It addresses the effects that the increased use of English and the promotion of English language education are having in developmental contexts and their impact on broader educational issues on local language ecologies and on questions of cultural identity It investigates these issues by drawing together a series of original examinations and case studies by a range of leading scholars working in this burgeoning field The chapters focus on a variety of contexts from around the world and the volume as a whole surveys and critiques the positioning and influence of English as a catalyst for development in the 21st century

New Englishes Joseph Foley, 1988 The spread functions and models of the New Englishes have become a dominant theme of the eighties This volume addresses specifically the English used in Singapore in the private and public domains particularly the school system The topics covered include an overview of earlier studies and attempts at codification a consideration of whether the formal mode of written Singapore English should be standardised the problems of pronunciation etc and specific lexico grammatical problems which have proved to be ambiguous for those not familiar with Singapore English Also included in this volume is the largest bibliography so far published on Singapore English with over 700 titles listed thus providing an essential tool for any future research

Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture David A. Gerstner, 2006 The Encyclopedia introduces both scholars and general readers to the cultural political scientific juridical and historical practices of international queer culture

Cinema of Small Nations Mette Hjort, 2007-11-21 Within cinema studies there has emerged a significant body of scholarship on the idea of National Cinema but there has been a tendency to focus on the major national cinemas Less developed within this field is the analysis of what we might term minor or small national cinemas despite the increasing significance of these small entities with the international domain of moving image production distribution and consumption The Cinema of Small Nations is the first major analysis of small national cinemas comprising twelve case studies of small national and sub national cinemas from around the world including Ireland Denmark Iceland Scotland Bulgaria Tunisia

Burkina Faso Cuba Singapore Taiwan Hong Kong and New Zealand Written by an array of distinguished and emerging scholars each of the case studies provides a detailed analysis of the particular cinema in question with an emphasis on the last decade considering both institutional and textual issues relevant to the national dimension of each cinema While each chapter contains an in depth analysis of the particular cinema in question the book as a whole provides the basis for a broader and more properly comparative understanding of small or minor national cinemas particularly with regard to structural constraints and possibilities the impact of globalization and internationalisation and the role played by economic and cultural factors in small nation contexts

Communities of Imagination Catherine Diamond, 2016-11-30 Asian theatre is usually studied from the perspective of the major traditions of China Japan India and Indonesia Now in this wide ranging look at the contemporary theatre scene in Southeast Asia Catherine Diamond shows that performance in some of the lesser known theatre traditions offers a vivid and fascinating picture of the rapidly changing societies in the region Diamond examines how traditional modern and contemporary dramatic works with their interconnected styles stories and ideas are being presented for local audiences She not only places performances in their historical and cultural contexts but also connects them to the social political linguistic and religious movements of the last two decades Each chapter addresses theatre in a different country and highlights performances exhibiting the unique conditions and concerns of a particular place and time Most performances revolve in some manner around contemporary modernity questioning what it means for good or ill to be a part of the globalized world Chapters are grouped by three general and overlapping themes The first which includes Thailand Vietnam and Bali is characterized by the increased participation of women in the performing arts not only as performers but also as playwrights and directors Cambodia Singapore and Myanmar are linked by a shared concern with the effects of censorship on theatre production A third group the Philippines Laos and Malaysia is distinguished by a focus on nationalism theatres are either contributing to official versions of historical and political events or creating alternative narratives that challenge those interpretations Communities of Imagination shows the many influences of the past and how the past continues to affect cultural perceptions It addresses major trends suggesting why they have developed and why they are popular with the public It also underscores how theatre continues to attract new practitioners and reflect the changing aspirations and anxieties of societies in immediate and provocative ways even as it is being marginalized by television film and the internet The book will be of interest to students and scholars of theatre and performance Asian literature Southeast Asian studies cultural studies and gender studies Travelers wishing to attend local performances as part of their experience abroad will find it an essential reference to theatres of the region

Queer Southeast Asia Shawna Tang, Hendri Yulius Wijaya, 2022-11-22 Tang and Wijaya present a range of new and established scholarly voices including local activists directly involved in developments in Southeast Asia This groundbreaking collection presents the current state of play and longstanding LGBTQ debates in this often overlooked region of Asia The diversity of both the subject and the region is reflected in the broad scope of topics addressed from the impact of Japanese queer popular culture on queer Filipinos to the politics of public toilets in Singapore and the impact of digital governance on queer communities across ASEAN Taken in combination these investigations not only highlight the operations of queer politics in Southeast Asia but also present a concrete basis to reflect on queer knowledge production in the region A vital resource for students and scholars of gender and sexuality in Southeast Asia or any Queer or LGBTQ studies looking beyond the West Supping with Satan Peter Steyn,2024-04-26 Nightfall ushers in its own set of terrors With every external light ablaze until dawn I find solace in the illusion of visibility But every creak every rustle throws me into high alert compelling me to scour the house for signs of the looming threat The dining room becomes my vantage point a silent sentinel observing the outdoors from three angles The very shadows that were once familiar now become menacing Surprisingly I find myself longing for the weighty presence of the 357 Magnum an army relic from my days in Military Intelligence That very tool I once detested aware of the devastation it could unleash now symbolized security Its potential for destruction was a deterrent I yearned for a beacon to ward off any audacious intruders and shield my family from the unknown horrors that lay beyond our walls English in Singapore Lisa Lim,Anne Pakir,Lionel Wee,2010-06-01 English in Singapore provides an up to date detailed and comprehensive investigation into the various issues surrounding the sociolinguistics of English in Singapore Rather than attempting to cover the usual topics in an overview of a variety of English in a particular country the essays in this volume are important for identifying some of the most significant issues pertaining to the state and status of English in Singapore in modern times and for doing so in a treatment that involves a critical evaluation of work in the field and new and thought provoking angles for reviewing such issues in the context of Singapore in the twenty first century The contributions address the historical trajectory of English past present and possible future its position in relation to language policy and multiculturalism the relationship between the standard and colloquial varieties and how English can and should be taught This book is thus essential reading for scholars and students concerned with how the dynamics of the English language are played out and managed in a modern society such as Singapore It will also interest readers who have a more general interest in Asian studies the sociology of language and World Englishes A Splendid Gift Barbara Elle Prisceaux,2023-09-19 A forthright poignant and heartwarming account of a storied and beloved career in nursing Kirkus Reviews a powerful memoir that holds the uncommon ability to transcend personal experience alone Midwest Book Review A Splendid Gift Celebrating 60 Years in Nursing tells the story of Barbara Elle Prisceaux who turned a childhood dream into an extraordinary career As a young girl in Yonkers New York Barbara was drawn to the nurses walking from their residence at the end of her block to the hospital several streets away She decided then and there that she would become a nurse too by age fifteen when her family was living in West Lawn Pennsylvania she accepted a part time nurse s aide position at St Joseph s Hospital in Reading and she bused twenty miles each way after school and sometimes on weekends At eighteen she was accepted into the School of Nursing at Yonfan's Bugis Street Kenneth Chan, 2015-10-01 Bugis Street was famous or notorious for being a haunt of transgender prostitution in the early decades of postcolonial Singapore Since then the site has been a source of touristic obsession and local cultural anxiety In his 1995 film Bugis Street director Yonfan brings the short lane back to vivid cinematic life By focusing on the film s representations of queer sexualities and transgender experience this book contends that the under appreciated Bugis Street is a significant instance of queer transnational cinema The film s playful yet nuanced articulations of queer embodiment spatiality and temporality provide an unexpected intervention in the public discourses on LGBT politics activism and cultures in Singapore today This book s arrival at a much more complicated and contradictory picture of the discursive Bugis Street through the examination of Yonfan s film and a range of other cultural and literary texts adds a new critical dimension to the ongoing historical geographical sociological ethnographic and artistic analyses of this controversial space
