Hibbing,Elizabeth Theiss-Morse,2002-08-29 Americans often complain about the operation of their government but scholars have never developed a complete picture of people s preferred type of government In this provocative and timely book Hibbing and Theiss Morse employing an original national survey and focus groups report the governmental procedures Americans desire Contrary to the prevailing view that people want greater involvement in politics most citizens do not care about most policies and therefore are content to turn over decision making authority to someone else People s wish for the political system is that decision makers be empathetic and especially non self interested not that they be responsive and accountable to the people s largely nonexistent policy preferences or even worse that the people be obligated to participate directly in decision making Hibbing and Theiss Morse conclude by cautioning communitarians direct democrats social capitalists deliberation theorists and all those who think that greater citizen involvement is the solution to society s problems The Stone-cutter of Lisbon William Henry Peck,1889 CSR in the Middle East Yusuf Sidani,2012-09-18 The practice of corporate social responsibility CSR in the Middle East is explored in this volume through a unique compilation of data and perspectives from authors living and working in the region The authors demonstrate how the long entrenched traditions of philanthropy and generosity in Arab culture have been reinvigorated in recent years and are starting to cross fertilize with new and more institutionalized forms of giving advocated through advances pertaining to CSR Using a variety of cases this book ponders the multiple facets of CSR in the region including philanthropy strategic giving social entrepreneurship internal CSR and responsible human resource management practices effective CSR integration in SMEs corporate environmental responsibility and its evolution CSR reporting and lingering challenges in this respect It also considers the relevance and applicability of CSR to a wider spectrum of societal actors and institutions The contributions nicely capture and reiterate commitment to CSR in the Middle East Aby Warburg 150 David Freedberg,Claudia Wedepohl,2024-04-01 Aby Warburg is regarded as one of the great pioneers of modern cultural studies This book brings together texts by many of the most renowned researchers in the field who have been influenced by his work They address his extraordinary impact on the understanding of cultural transmission and the influence of images and texts across time and space What emerges is the continuing significance of Warburg for our own times No one concerned with the many forms of the survival of the past in the present and the infinitely complex relationships between images and society will want to miss this book Published in cooperation with the Warburg Institute London and with the assistance of a grant from the Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America at Columbia University New York Look inside Environmental Policy and NEPA E.
