as the creator of the fictional gentleman thief and detective Arsene Lupin often described as a French counterpart to Conan Doyle's creation Sherlock Holmes. The first Arsene Lupin story appeared in a series of short stories serialized in the magazine Je Sais Tout starting in No 6 dated 15 July 1905. Clearly created at editorial request under the influence of and in reaction to the wildly successful Sherlock Holmes stories, the roguish and glamorous Lupin was a surprise success and Leblanc's fame and fortune beckoned. In total Leblanc went on to write twenty one Lupin novels or collections of short stories. The character of Lupin might have been based by Leblanc on French anarchist Marius Jacob whose trial made headlines in March 1905; it is also possible that Leblanc had also read Octave Mirbeau's Les 21 Jours d'un Neurasthénique 1901 which features a gentleman thief named Arthur Lebeau. Leblanc also wrote two notable science fiction novels Les Trois Yeux 1919 and Le Formidable Evénement 1920.

French Crime Fiction Claire Gorrara, 2009. This book is one of the first English language studies to chart the development of crime fiction in French from the mid nineteenth century to the present day. It analyses the distinctive features of a French language tradition and introduces readers to a rich and varied body of work. Each chapter examines a specific period, movement or group of writers as well as engaging with wider debates on the place of crime fiction within contemporary French and European culture. From early twentieth century pioneers such as Gaston Leroux and Maurice Leblanc to the phenomenal success of Georges Simenon from May 68 to the gender politics of crime fiction and postmodern reinventions, this collection approaches crime fiction in an interdisciplinary manner, alive to the innovative and often critically informed perspective it provides on French society and culture. The book also includes short extracts in English translation and an extensive bibliography of critical material for further reading. Such resources are aimed at encouraging the reader to gain a greater appreciation and understanding of this potent and formidable narrative of modern times.

Intercultural Masquerade Regis Machart, Fred Dervin, Minghui Gao, 2015-11-20. This volume revisits the notions of Orientalism, Occidentalism and to a certain extent Reverse Orientalism, Occidentalism in the 21st century, adopting post modern constructionist and potentially non essentialising approaches. The representations of the cultural Other in education, literature and the arts are examined by scholars working in Australia, France, Hong Kong, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore and the USA. Vinyl, compilations, TV series, novels, institutional discourses and surveys amongst others are examined so as to better understand how people construct their identity in relation to an imagined and idealised Other. This book will appeal to all researchers and students interested in cultural identity and stereotypes of the East and the West, in particular in the fields of academic mobility, cultural studies, intercultural education, postcolonial literature and media studies.

The Hollow Needle Maurice Leblanc, 2007-08. Maurice Marie Emile Leblanc 1864-1941 was a French novelist and writer of short stories known primarily as the creator of the fictional gentleman thief and detective Arsene Lupin, often described as a French counterpart to Conan Doyle's creation Sherlock Holmes. Clearly created at editorial request under the influence of and in reaction to the wildly successful Sherlock Holmes stories, the roguish and glamorous Lupin was a surprise success and Leblanc's fame and fortune beckoned Like Conan Doyle who often appeared embarrassed or hindered by the success of Sherlock Holmes and seemed to regard his success in the field of crime fiction as a detraction from his more respectable literary ambitions Leblanc also appeared to have resented Lupin's success Several times he tried to create other characters such as private eye Jim Barnett but eventually merged them with Lupin He continued to pen Lupin tales well into the 1930s

The Man Who Created Sherlock Holmes Andrew Lycett, 2008-11-18 Though Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's name is recognized the world over for decades the man himself has been overshadowed by his better understood creation Sherlock Holmes who has become one of literature's most enduring characters Based on thousands of previously unavailable documents Andrew Lycett author of the critically acclaimed biography Dylan Thomas offers the first definitive biography of the baffling Conan Doyle finally making sense of a long standing mystery how the scientifically minded creator of the world's most rational detective himself succumbed to an avid belief in spiritualism including communication with the dead Conan Doyle was a man of many contradictions Always romantic energetic idealistic and upstanding he could also be selfish and fool hardy Lycett assembles the many threads of Conan Doyle's life including the lasting impact of his domineering mother and his wayward alcoholic father his affair with a younger woman while his wife lay dying and his nearly fanatical pursuit of scientific data to prove and explain various supernatural phenomena Lycett reveals the evolution of Conan Doyle's nature and ideas against the backdrop of his intense personal life wider society and the intellectual ferment of his age In response to the dramatic scientific and social transformations at the turn of the century he rejected traditional religious faith in favor of psychics and sciences and in this way he embodied all of his late Victorian early Edwardian era's ambivalence about the advance of science and the decline of religion The first biographer to gain access to Conan Doyle's newly released personal archive which includes correspondence diaries original manuscripts and more Lycett combines assiduous research with penetrating insight to offer the most comprehensive lucid and sympathetic portrait yet of Conan Doyle's personal journey from student to doctor from world
