The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Carol Crown,Cheryl Rivers,Charles Reagan Wilson,2013-06-03 Folk art is one of the American South s most significant areas of creative achievement and this comprehensive yet accessible reference details that achievement from the sixteenth century through the present This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture explores the many forms of aesthetic expression that have characterized southern folk art including the work of self

taught artists as well as the South's complex relationship to national patterns of folk art collecting. Fifty-two thematic essays examine subjects ranging from colonial portraiture, Moravian material culture and southern folk pottery to the South's rich quilt-making traditions, memory painting and African American vernacular art. 211 topical essays include profiles of major folk and self-taught artists in the region. Disability and Rehabilitation, 1996 Art & Disabilities Florence Ludins-Katz, Elias Katz, Institute of Art and Disabilities, 1983 Create Lawrence Rinder, 2011 Catalog of an exhibition on view at the University of California Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archive May 11 - Sept 25 2011 Directory of National Information Sources on Handicapping Conditions and Related Services, 1986 Directory of organizations compiled to enable Clearinghouse on the Handicapped to respond to public inquiries and to better understand services of other related information providers. Includes only organizations that are information and direct service providers; thus there is emphasis on information components and data base vendors. Includes only organizations functioning on national level and a small group of international organizations based in the U.S. Alphabetical arrangement by names of organizations. Entry gives address, telephone number, handicapping conditions served and information about the organization and its information services. Miscellaneous appendixes of organizations. Index We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger, 2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self-taught artists and how they changed American art. Artists without formal training who learned from family, community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art. But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self-definition permanently changed the mainstream art world. In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self-taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide-ranging societal, racial and gender-based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers. Lavishly illustrated throughout, We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings, paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty-three artists including James Castle, Thornton Dial, William Edmondson, Howard Finster, Bessie Harvey, Dan Miller, Sister Gertrude Morgan, the Philadelphia Wireman, Nellie Mae Rowe, Judith Scott and Bill Traylor. The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self-definition, cultural heritage, struggle and joy and inequity and achievement. At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self-taught artists, the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race, gender, class and ability. Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long, We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another. Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum. Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC July 1 - 2022 March 26 - 2023 Disability Studies Quarterly, 1994 Art Therapy with People with Learning Disabilities Nicki Power, Simon Hackett, 2025-07-31 Art Therapy with People with Learning Disabilities brings together diverse international contributions

Curating Access Amanda Cachia,2022-09-14 This book is an interdisciplinary collection of twenty four essays which critically examine contemporary exhibitions and artistic practices that focus on conceptual and creative aspects of access Oftentimes exhibitions tack on access once the artwork has already been executed and ready to be installed in the museum or gallery But what if the artists were to ponder access as an integral and critical part of their artwork Can access be creative and experimental And furthermore can the curator also fold access into their practice while working collaboratively with artists considering it as a theoretical and practical generative force that seeks to make an exhibition more engaging for a wider diversity of audiences This volume includes essays by a growing number of artists curators and scholars who ponder these ideas of ad hoc experimental and underground approaches within exhibition making and artistic practices It considers how through these nascent exhibition models and art practices enhanced experiences of access in the museum can be a shared responsibility amongst museum workers curators and artists in tandem with the public so that access becomes a zone of intellectual and creative accommodation rather than strictly a discourse on policy The book provides innovative case studies which provide a template for how access might be implemented by individuals artists curators museum administrators and educators given the growing need to offer as many modalities of access as possible within cultural institutions This book shows that anyone can be a curator of access and demonstrates how to approach access in a way that goes beyond protocol and policy It will thus be of interest to students and scholars engaged in the study of museums art history and visual culture disability culture and communication Disability Studies and Spanish Culture Benjamin Fraser,2013-03-19 Disability Studies and Spanish Culture is the first book to explore representations of intellectual disabilities Down syndrome autism alexia agnosia in contemporary Spanish films novels a graphic novel comic and public expositions by disabled artists
