Art Practice in a Digital Culture Hazel Gardiner,Charlie Gere,2016-04-15 Much as art history is in the process of being transformed by new information communication technologies often in ways that are either disavowed or resisted art practice is also being changed by those same technologies One of the most obvious symptoms of this change is the increasing numbers of artists working in universities and having their work facilitated and supported by the funding and infrastructural resources that such institutions offer This new paradigm of art as research is likely to have a profound effect on how we understand the role of the artist and of art practice in society In this unique book artists art historians art theorists and curators of new media reflect on the idea of art as research and how it has changed practice Intrinsic to the volume is an investigation of the advances in creative practice made possible via artists engaging directly with technology or via collaborative partnerships between practitioners and technological experts ranging through a broad spectrum of advanced methods from robotics through rapid prototyping to the biological sciences Art, Technology, Technique John Gange, 1998 Art Technology Technique examines the connections between these three terms which come together in the term Techne as a recurring feature in the history of aesthetics Whilst much recent interest in questions of art and technology has centred exclusively on the impacts of new technologies this collection examines this problematic issue across a range of media and historical moments Dynamics between painting and photography video and film and between analogue and digital media are explored alongside critical analytical and philosophical encounters with art technology and technique The 4th volume in the Act series this book contains artists pages along with reproductions of a number of the works discussed The Work of Art in a Digital Age: Art, Technology and Globalisation Melissa Langdon, 2014-08-20 This book explores digital artists articulations of globalization Digital artworks from around the world are examined in terms of how they both express and simulate globalization s impacts through immersive participatory and interactive technologies The author highlights some of the problems with macro and categorical approaches to the study of globalization and presents new ways of seeing the phenomenon as a series of processes and flows that are individually experienced and expressed Instead of providing a macro analysis of large scale political and economic processes the book offers imaginative new ways of knowing and understanding globalization as a series of micro affects Digital art is explored in terms of how it re centers articulations of globalization around individual experiences and offers new ways of accessing a complex topic often expressed in general and intangible terms The Work of Art in a Digital Age Art Technology and Globalization is analytic and accessible with material that is of interest to a range of researchers from different disciplines Students studying digital art film globalization cultural studies or digital media trends will also find the content fascinating Arts and Technology Anthony Lewis Brooks, Elif Ayiter, Onur Yazicigil, 2015-05-23 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the Fourth International Conference on Arts and Technology ArtsIT 2014 held in Istanbul Turkey in November 2014 The 17 revised full papers presented were carefully selected and reviewed from numerous submissions ArtsIT has become a leading scientific forum for the dissemination of cutting edge research results in the area of arts design and technology The papers focus on IT technologies artists designers and industrial members and offer content creators tools that expand the means of expression of the traditional design field Explorations in Art and Technology Linda Candy, Ernest Edmonds, 2012-12-06 Explorations in Art and Technology is about the creative process in action through the eyes of practitioners and researchers The book explores the fascinating relationship between artist and technologist through studies of innovative projects that push the boundaries of digital art The research sheds new light on the nature of interaction between people and computers and provides insight into the characteristics of environments in which creativity can be enhanced In doing so it presents a case for organisations to develop strategies for offering environments in which collaborative sustainable partnerships can thrive What emerges is a compelling story of new visions and new forms in a field that is set to transform traditional norms in both art and technology as we move through the 21st Century Additional information and links are available at <http://www.creativityandcognition.com>

Art, Design and Technology: Collaboration and Implementation Rae Earnshaw,2017-05-30 This book examines how digital technology is being used to assist the artists and designers The computer is able to store data and reproduce designs thus facilitating the speed up of the iterative process towards a final design which meets the objectives of the designer and the requirements of the user Collaborative design enables the sharing of information across digital networks to produce designed objects in virtual spaces Augmented and virtual reality techniques can be used to preview designs before they are finalized and implemented Art and design have shaped the values social structures communications and the culture of communities and civilisations The direct involvement of artists and designers with their creative works has left a legacy enabling subsequent generations to understand more about their skills their motivations and their relationship to the wider world and to see it from a variety of perspectives This in turn causes the viewers of their works to reflect upon their meaning for today and the lasting value and implications of what has been created Art installations are harnessing modern technology to process information and to display it Such environments have also proved useful in engaging users and visitors with real time images and interactive art
