Art And Asia Pacific Art Quarterly June 1993:

Art and AsiaPacific ,2008 Modern Asian Art John Clark,1998-01-01 A seminal publication focusing on the modern art of Japan China India Thailand and Indonesia A significant and challenging contribution to the discussion of the advent of modernism in Asia Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1996 Sip! Matthias Arndt,2013 Indonesia is one of the countries where exciting art is still waiting to be discovered Over the past ten years a growing number of group exhibitions and survey shows have presented Indonesian art What has been sorely lacking is a book about the country s best known artists Sip Indonesian Art Today introduces readers to 16 established and young artists presenting each of them with recent works Farah Wardani director of the Indonesian Visual Art Archive Yogyakarta has compiled brief texts shedding light on the artist s conceptions Biographical information exhibition histories bibliographies and portraits of the artists complement the illustrations The curator Enin Supriyanto a leading expert on the Indonesian art scene has contributed an essay examining the most recent developments in Indonesian art tying them back to the art history of the past forty years and mapping them to the transformations in Indonesian society and politics during the same period A timeline extending from the 1970s to the present additionally visualizes the most important moments in art in Indonesia and abroad making the book an indispensable compendium for collectors and curators students of art and everyone who is interested Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair,2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies The Development of An Art History in the UAE Sophie Kazan Makhoul,2024-10-15 This book draws together an oral and visual art history of a country that is extremely rich in culture and history but that is often overlooked or underestimated By observing the country s history and visual culture and the artistic practices of select artists from the UAE it considers the development of contemporary art from the UAE This will increase accessibility to art by Emiratis and underline its wider relevance There is a dearth of literature on contemporary art by Emiratis and this may be one of the reasons contemporary art from the UAE is under represented globally In order to help the reader better understand art from the UAE this book traces the country s historical make up its culture and contemporary art tradition through oral histories based on interviews with a wide variety of artists and people working in the art industries It also explores this development using global art discourses that are relevant to art produced in the UAE today This book also considers how cultural and artistic identities are formed and explores the political and socio economic interests in the country that have stimulated art practices and appreciation For so long an exclusively Western narrative has dominated Art and popular media portrays the

Gulf's accomplishments in development and modernity with suspicion Thanks to the UAE's espousal of the Internet and online communities over the last decade this book is particularly timely Following the pandemic a wider understanding of global art discourses values and perceptions are increasingly welcomed Art from the UAE bridges the local and the global giving a voice and a visual presence to a country's contemporary art tradition that has been widely overlooked The UAE has a distinct visual arts tradition that relates to a broader and inclusive understanding of art centered on development and change

ARLIS/NA Update, 1993 Inks, 1994 Strategy and Security in the Asia-Pacific Robert Ayson, Desmond Ball, 2020-07-25 From the war on terror to the rise of China this book unlocks the major strategic themes and security challenges of the early twenty first century Strategy and Security in the Asia Pacific provides the analytical frameworks needed to make sense of this complex but exciting strategic universe Offering a unique mix of global strategic thinking and Asia Pacific security analysis this book is for readers from Sydney to Seoul who want to put their own local security challenges in a wider regional and global context It is also for North American and European readers requiring an understanding of the dynamic security developments in the Asia Pacific region around which so much of global strategy is increasingly based The really vital questions facing the international community are dealt with here Why do governments and groups still use armed force Has warfare really changed in the information age Why should we be concerned about non traditional security challenges such as water shortages and the spread of infectious disease Is a great clash imminent between the United States and China What are the prospects for peace on the Korean peninsula and between India and Pakistan Can Southeast Asia survive the challenges of transnational terrorism What does security mean for the Pacific island countries and for Australia and New Zealand With contributions from leading commentators and analysts Strategy and Security in the Asia Pacific offers a comprehensive and authoritative introduction to the field

The Transfer of Learning Sarah Leberman, Lex McDonald, 2016-02-17 The book addresses a crucial issue for all involved in education and training the transfer of learning to new and different contexts Educators employers and learners face the problem of ensuring that what is learnt in the classroom is able to be adapted and used in the workplace It focuses on adult learners in professional and vocational contexts The authors provide an accessible book on the transfer of learning which draws on multi disciplinary perspectives from education psychology and management The Transfer of Learning will be useful both for postgraduate students and for practitioners wanting to deepen their understanding of transfer and for those interested in practical applications It combines theory and practice from international research and the authors own case studies of transfer involving learners engaged in professional development and study towards qualifications Theories of adult learning change and lifelong learning are discussed in relation to the transfer of learning The purpose of this book is to emphasise to tertiary educators and trainers the importance of transfer and in doing so highlight the participants voices as central foci in coming to an understanding of the process By doing this it balances the literature which has to date emphasized transfer from a trainer s and or organization s perspective There has been little if any substantive material on tertiary transfer issues and yet demands are increasing for tertiary education providers to be more accountable and more focused on developing students ability to use their learning in everyday work situations The book is unique in that it adopts a phenomenological perspective and underscores the significance of the participants voices in understanding issues
