Art and Oracle: African Art and Rituals of Divination, 200? Reviewing Reality W. E. A. van Beek, Philip M. Peek, 2013 From crab divination in the Cameroon to friction oracles in the Congo Basin from reading cast objects in Mozambique to spirit possession in Cote d Ivoire from Sudanese ebony diviners to South African Xhosa healers divination systems throughout Africa serve their communities by answering questions and resolving problems Divination helps people chart a course in their lives through a deeper understanding of past and present This important book reveals the extraordinary diversity and complexity of African divination systems focusing on self knowledge social reality and intercultural and historical relations Series African Studies Afrikanische Studien Vol 50 Law, Culture, and Ritual Oscar G Chase, 2007 Oscar G Chase studies the American legal system in the manner of an anthropologist By comparing American dispute ways with those of other systems including some commonly believed to be more primitive he finds interesting similarities that challenge the premise that we live in a society regulated by a rational and just rule of law New York Law Journal A witty and engaging endeavor A good contribution to our professional knowledge and it is a must reading Law and Politics Book Review After reading Law Culture and Ritual no one could ever again think that our legal proceedings are nothing more than an efficient method of discovering truth and applying law Oscar Chase effectively uses a comparative approach to help us to step back from our legal practices and see just how steeped in myths rituals and traditions they are Scholars will want to read this book for its contribution to comparative law but everyone interested in American culture should read this book Chase shows us that there is no separating law from culture each informs and maintains the other Law Culture and Ritual is a major step forward in the rapidly expanding field of the cultural study of law Paul Kahn author of The Cultural Study of Law Reconstructing Legal Scholarship Having allowed ourselves to be convinced wrongly that we are the most litigious people in the world Americans have become obsessed with finding quick cures Oscar Chase s book sounds a salutary warning By presenting striking comparative examples that shatter our parochialism he forces us to examine the cultural roots of dispute processes Richard Abel Connell Professor of Law UCLA Law School Disputing systems are products of the societies in which they operate they originate and mutate in response Canons and Values Larry Silver, Kevin Terraciano, 2019-08-27 A critical rethinking of the way canons are defined constructed dismantled and revised A century ago all art was evaluated through the lens of European classicism and its tradition This volume explores and questions the foundations of the European canon offers a critical rethinking of ancient and classical art and interrogates the canons of cultures and regions that have often been left at the margins of art history It underscores the historical and geographical diversity of canons and the local values underlying them Twelve international scholars consider how canons are constructed and contested focusing on the relationship between canonical objects and the value systems that shape their hierarchies Deploying an array of methodologies including archaeological investigations visual analysis and literary critique the authors examine canon formation throughout the world including Africa India East Asia Mesoamerica South America ancient Egypt classical Greece and Europe Global studies of art which are dismantling the traditionally Eurocentric canon promise to make art history more inclusive But enduring canons cannot be dismissed This volume raises new questions about the importance of canons including those from outside Europe for the wider discipline of art history
