Armenian Poetry Old and New Aram Tolegian, Armenian Poetry, Old and New Արամ Տոլեգյան, 1979 The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, 2000 The second volume of The Heritage of Armenian Literature continues the highly acclaimed and monumental project of presenting Armenia's literary treasures to an English speaking audience Nowhere else can students and general readers easily find a comprehensive English language guide to these masterpieces complete with important background information and vivid accurate translations of key sample passages Volume 2 takes readers through the medieval period up to the eighteenth century As in the previous volume the editors here offer a wide and varied range of readings that encompasses the literary panorama of this ancient civilization They situate each work as extensively as possible within its theological historical and philosophical contexts while highlighting aspects that will be meaningful to readers in light of modern scholarship The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Roland Greene, Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, Harris Feinsod, David Marno, Alexandra Slessarev, 2012-08-26 Rev ed of The Princeton encyclopedia of poetry and poetics Alex Preminger and T V F Brogan co editors Frank J Warnke O B Hardison Jr and Earl Miner associate editors 1993 The Heritage of Armenian Literature: From the oral tradition to the Golden Age Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S. Franchuk, Nourhan Ouzounian, 2000 Armenian written literature originated almost 16 centuries ago with the invention of the Armenian alphabet This anthology translated into English takes a comprehensive approach to capturing the essence of the literature of the entire period covered The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov James Steffen, 2013-10-31 Sergei Parajanov 1924-90 flouted the rules of both filmmaking and society in the Soviet Union and paid a heavy personal price. An ethnic Armenian in the multicultural atmosphere of Tbilisi, Georgia, he was one of the most innovative directors of postwar Soviet cinema. Parajanov succeeded in creating a small but marvelous body of work whose style embraces such diverse influences as folk art, medieval miniature painting, early cinema, Russian and European art, films, surrealism, and Armenian, Georgian, and Ukrainian cultural motifs. The Cinema of Sergei Parajanov is the first English language book on the director's films and the most comprehensive study of his work. James Steffen provides a detailed overview of Parajanov's artistic career, his identity as an Armenian in Georgia, and its impact on his aesthetics; his early films in Ukraine; his international breakthrough in 1964 with Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors; his challenging 1969 masterpiece The Color of Pomegranates, which was reedited against his wishes; his unrealized projects in the 1970s; and his eventual return to international prominence in the mid to late 1980s with The Legend of the Surami Fortress and Ashik Kerib. Steffen also provides a rare behind-the-scenes view of the Soviet film censorship process and tells the dramatic story of Parajanov's conflicts with the authorities, culminating in his 1973-77 arrest and imprisonment on charges related to homosexuality. Ultimately, the figure of Parajanov offers a fascinating case study in the complicated dynamics of power, nationality, politics, ethnicity, sexuality, and culture in the republics of the former Soviet Union. Islam, Nationalism, and 1000 Years of European Poetry David Aberbach, 2025-08-29 Islam Nationalism and 1000 Years of European

Poetry considers the long history of Islam and European poetry and its central importance in the development of European culture David Aberbach offers a panoramic history of European poetry as it was affected by the centuries long conflict between Islam and Christianity from the early medieval Old French chanson de geste The Song of Roland set against the Muslim invasion of France in the eighth century to Fishta's The Highland Lute the early twentieth century Albanian epic of the struggle for independence from Ottoman rule achieved in 1912 Aberbach surveys some of the outstanding poetry set against Islamic conquests and domination particularly in Spain and the Balkans The book includes detailed comparisons between medieval and modern Arabic and Hebrew poetry closely linked in technique and subject matter but moving apart after 1789 A result of constant religious warfare in Europe was disillusionment with religion increasing focus on humanistic concerns and the evolution of a secular State separate from religion This captivating history of Islam and European poetry will be of great interest to any scholars of nationalism Jewish and Islamic Studies history comparative literature and cultural studies

The Hebrew Bible, Nationalism and the Origins of Anti-Judaism David Aberbach, 2022-10-31 In the attempts to unify divided peoples on the basis of a shared past both historical and mythical this book illumines aspects of cultural nationalism common since the Middle Ages As an edited work the Bible includes texts mostly depicting long gone historical eras extending over several centuries Following on from Aberbach's previous work National Poetry Empires and War this book argues that works of this nature notably the Mujo Halil songs in Albania the Irish stories of Cuchulain the songs of the Nibelungen in Germany or the Finnish legends collected in The Kalevala have an ancient precedent in the Hebrew Bible to which national literatures often allude and refer a subject largely neglected in biblical studies The self critical element in the Hebrew Bible common in later national literature is examined as the basis of later anti-Semitism as the Bible was not confined to Jews but was adopted in translation by many other national groups With several dozen original translations from the Hebrew this book highlights how the Bible influenced and was distorted by later national cultures Written without jargon this book is intended for the general reader but is also an important contribution to the study of the Bible nationalism and Jewish history

The Festal Works of St. Gregory of Narek Abraham Terian, 2016-03-08 Saint Gregory of Narek a monk of the tenth century knew how to express the sentiments of your people more than anyone He gave voice to the cry which became a prayer of a sinful and sorrowful humanity oppressed by the anguish of its powerlessness but illuminated by the splendor of God's love and open to the hope of his salvific intervention which is capable of transforming all things Pope Francis April 12 2015 This is the first translation in any language of the surviving corpus of the festal works of St Gregory of Narek a tenth century Armenian mystic theologian and poet par excellence d 1003 Composed as liturgical works for the various Dominical and related feasts these poetic writings are literary masterpieces in both lyrical verse and narrative Unlike Gregory's better known penitential prayers these show a jubilant author in a celebratory mood In this volume Abraham Terian an eminent scholar of medieval Armenian literature provides the nonspecialist reader with an illuminating translation of St Gregory of Narek's festal works. Introducing each composition with an explanatory note Terian places the works under consideration in their author's thought world and in their tenth century landscape. The Armenians Hamo B. Vassilian, 1993

Bialik, the Hebrew Bible and the Literature of Nationalism David Aberbach, 2023-05-25 This book explores the life and poetry of Chaim Nachman Bialik 1873-1934 in the context of European national literature between the French Revolution and World War I showing how he helped create a modern Hebrew national culture spurring the revival of Hebrew as a spoken language. The author begins with Bialik's background in the Tsarist Empire contextualizing Jewish powerlessness in Eastern Europe in the late nineteenth century. As European anti-Semitism grew Bialik emerged at the vanguard of a modern Hebrew national movement building on ancient biblical and rabbinic tradition and speaking to Jewish concerns in neo-prophetic poems, love poems, poems for children and folk poems. This book makes accessible a broad but representative selection of Bialik's poetry in translation. Alongside this a variety of national poets are considered from across Europe including Solomos in Greece, Mickiewicz in Poland, Shevchenko in Ukraine, Njego in Serbia, Petfi in Hungary and Yeats in Ireland. Aberbach argues that Bialik as Jewish national poet cannot be understood except in the dual context of ancient Jewish nationalism and modern European nationalism both political and cultural. Written in clear and accessible prose this book will interest those studying modern European nationalism, Hebrew literature, Jewish history and anti-Semitism.
