Arms Trade Registers The Arms Trade With The Third World:

The International Arms Trade Rachel Stohl, Suzette Grillo, 2013-04-29 The multi billion dollar business of the international conventional arms trade involves virtually every country in the world Around the globe people's lives are being irrevocably changed by the effects of guns tanks and missiles These weapons have the potential to cause a deadly and current threat one responsible for hundreds of thousands of deaths a year This succinct and accessible new book explores the complexities and realities of the global conventional weapons trade The first book on the subject in nearly a decade The International Arms Trade provides an engaging introduction to the trade the effects and the consequences of these weapons The authors trace the history of the arms trade and examine how it has evolved since the end of the Cold War In particular they assess the role of the largest arms exporters and importers the business of selling conventional arms around the world and shed new light on the illicit arms trade and the shadowy dealers who profit from their deadly commerce The book also looks closely at the devastating effect the business can have on countries societies and individuals and concludes with an evaluation of the various existing control strategies and the potential for future control opportunities The International Arms Trade will be invaluable for students and scholars of international relations and security studies and for policymakers and anyone interested in understanding more about the conventional arms trade Arms Transfers to the Third World, 1971-85

Michael Brzoska, Thomas Ohlson, 1987 The value of major conventional weapons imported by Third World countries between 1971 and 1985 was quadruple that for the previous two decades This spectacular increase reflects changes in the economic and technological relations between industrialized nations and the Third World as well as having profound political repercussions This book gives a comprehensive overview of the flow of major conventional weapons during the period 1971-85 It analyses both the suppliers and the main Third World recipients describing the inflow of arms and the reasons underlying it The facts that propel this arms trade are assessed in a concluding chapter which also analyses the structural changes that have occurred in the arms markets and their implications The detailed statistics and arms trade registers for the period in some cases from 1951 and the introduction of a new SIPRI price system for evaluating the arms trade make this a valuable reference work The Arms Trade with the Third World Stockholm International Peace Research
