Arm-wrestling for Everyone Mark J. Doherty,1986      Raid on Innocence Billy H. Dean,2011-10

Raid on Innocence In the years before the Civil War began the small town of Salinas Indiana was starting a period of growth that could turn this farming community into a small city The driving force behind the growth was the combined effort of two hard working farmers with a vision to make Salinas one of the major cities in southern Indiana William Consley raised and trained quality saddle team and workhorses for most of the farmers and businessmen in the northern half of the county He always had 30 to 40 horses on his 300 acre farm but could sometimes have as many as 10 additional that were being trained Andrew Davis had an expanding cattle business that reached out to support other businesses in the community His 1000 acres could support over 500 head of cattle that he sent to the slaughterhouse in town and then sent the hides to the tan yard to be made into leather The ice harvesting he did in the winter allowed his beef to be shipped back east to market All of his businesses provided employment for a large portion of the citizens of the community and encouraged an influx of more settlers to the town There weren t any citizens who had a stake in the slavery issue even though most of them still had strong ties to relatives in the south When war does break out only a few young men volunteer to go in the Army either North or South The community makes every attempt to avoid the war until the war came to them What happens that day will surprise and shock you and will explain what becomes of the town afterwards

Travels with My Sea Captain Jill Vedebrand, 2004 FROM HOLLYWOOD TO THE HIGH SEAS A chance encounter in Los Angeles airport with a Swedish Sea Captain and Jill left the movie business and was swept out to sea From the glamour of Hollywood to life on board a rough cargo ship to playing Mother Goose on a remote Scottish farm TRAVELS WITH MY SEA CAPTAIN is full of stories about the Captain and his international crew of characters the many ports as Jill found herself travelling all over the world life in the glen and how love can really change everything

REVIEWS Travels With My Sea Captain by Jill Vedebrand A warm humorous account of one woman s tempestuous affair and marriage to a fiery Swedish sea captain After meeting by chance in Los Angeles airport Jill and Tomas fell in love and she decided to join him on some of his voyages to exotic locations including Japan Singapore Cuba South America India and Russia There is no shortage of drama as she paints a vivid picture of months spent aboard a ship where she was often the only female At times resented by the crew she also often adopted the role of agony aunt and compassionately recounts the hardship endured by men who can spend several years away from their families There are stories of drunken cooks surly engineers brutal fights macho wrestling competitions and frantic shore searches for men who had gone missing in the local brothels The physical aspect of being on board ship also poses problems as she struggles to adapt to the confined spaces isolation of the open ocean and the violent weather they encounter The often stunning and sometimes frightening places she visited during her time at sea are colourfully portrayed and she has a knack for bringing to life the sights smells and atmosphere Intertwined with the tales of her sea voyages are stories of Jill and Tomas home life in rural Scotland They buy a farm and there are accounts of their battles to restore the property and about their menagerie of ducks and pets In these parts the story reminded me a little of James Herriot or Lillian Beckwith s stories about life in the Hebrides and I think it would have great appeal to these markets Part travelogue part humorous account of life in the wilds of Scotland this is an engaging romantic very human story
