Connected Soldiers Spencer John Spencer, 2022-07 2023 Gold Medal in Biography Memoir from the Military Writers Society of America John Spencer was a new second lieutenant in 2003 when he parachuted into Iraq leading a platoon of infantry soldiers into battle During that combat tour he learned how important unit cohesion was to surviving a war both physically and mentally He observed that this cohesion developed as the soldiers experienced the horrors of combat as a group spending their downtime together and processing their shared experiences When Spencer returned to Iraq five years later to take command of a troubled company he found that his lessons on how to build unit cohesion were no longer as applicable Rather than bonding and processing trauma as a group soldiers now spent their downtime separately on computers communicating with family back home Spencer came to see the internet as a threat to unit cohesion but when he returned home and his wife was deployed the internet connected him and his children to his wife on a daily basis In Connected Soldiers Spencer delivers lessons learned about effective methods for building teams in a way that overcomes the distractions of home and the outside world without reducing the benefits gained from connections to family
