It is easy for even the most accomplished of designers to lose sight of their higher creative goals once they are ensconced in practice and burdened by the everyday concerns of running an office and overseeing complex projects. However, it is essential for any architect aspiring to achieve a mastery of their profession to retain an ongoing awareness and understanding of their creative development. This book is a touchstone for architects who want to get back to a creative form of practice in order to continue progressing and evolving their work. Mastering Architecture draws on the research of approximately fifty architects who have taken a close look at the nature of their own mastery This research into mastery reveals things that every practitioner should know about their creative practice things which most architects are only aware of at an intuitive level The book flags up personal attributes such as stamina creative energy and intellectual capital which are intrinsic to dynamic practice It also suggests ways in which practitioners can self curate their positions within the triangle of their creativity evolving not only the cultural structure of their profession but the wider world in which they operate The Urbanism of Exception Martin J.

Contrasting an orthodox psychoanalytic interpretation with his own synthetic approach to the unconscious Jung explains why Nerval was unable to make use of his visionary experiences in his own life At the same time Jung emphasizes the validity of Nerval s visions differentiating the psychology of a work of art from the psychology of the artist The lecture suggests how Jung s own experiments with active imagination influenced his reading of Nerval s Aur lia as a parallel text to his own Red Book With Craig Stephenson s authoritative introduction Richard Sieburth s award winning translation of Aur lia and Alfred Kubin s haunting illustrations to the text and featuring Jung s reading marginalia preliminary notes and revisions to a 1942 lecture On Psychological and Visionary Art documents the stages of Jung s creative process as he responds to an essential Romantic text Endangered Dreams Kevin Starr,1996 History of California in the 1930s discussing topics that include the depression Upton Sinclair s campaign for governor Harry Bridges and the San Francisco general strike and the public and private relief programs for the more than one million emigrants from the dust bowl Sustainable Urbanism in
