John Waters James Egan, 2011-09-13 The films of John Waters b 1946 are some of the most powerful send ups of conventional film forms and expectations since Luis Buñuel and Salvador Dalí's Un Chien Andalou In attempting to reinvigorate the experience of movie going with his shock comedy Waters has been willing to take the chance of offending nearly everyone His characters have great dignity and resourcefulness taking what's different or unacceptable or grotesque about themselves heightening it and turning it into a handmade personal style The interviews collected here span Waters's career from 1965 to 2010 and include a new one exclusive to this edition Waters began making films in his hometown of Baltimore in 1964 Demonstrating an innate talent at capturing the hideous and crude and elevating it to art he reached international acclaim with his outrageous shock comedy Pink Flamingos This landmark film redefined cinema and became a cult classic Appearing in this and many of Waters's early films his star Divine would consistently challenge gender definitions With Polyester Waters entered the mainstream The film starred Divine as an unhappy housewife who romances a former teen idol played by Tab Hunter Waters's commercial breakthrough Hairspray told the story of Baltimore's televised sock hop program The Corny Collins Show and how one brave girl Ricki Lake used her platform as a dancer to end segregation in her town From Serial Mom and Pecker to Cecil B Demented Waters continued to infiltrate the mainstream with his unique approach to filmmaking As a visual artist he was given a retrospective at the New Museum of Contemporary Art in 2004 which was shown at galleries around the world

DuPée, 2022-06-17 Controversial yet beloved among audiences Christmas themed horror movies emerged in the early 1970s and gained a notorious reputation with Silent Night Deadly Night 1984 depicting Santa as an ax wielding maniac Some parents and conservative groups condemned the film while others embraced the portrayal of Yuletide as a backdrop for fear and dread Drawing on interviews with directors producers special effects artists photographers and actors this book celebrates the sordid colorful history of the Christmas horror subgenre Psycho Santa films such as Christmas Evil 1980 and 3615 Code Pere Noel 1989 are examined along with Yule Die slashers like The Dorm that Dripped Blood 1982 Black

Gerstner, Janet Staiger, 2013-09-13 Authorship in film has been a persistent theme in the field of cinema studies This volume of new work revitalizes the question of authorship by connecting it to larger issues of identity in film in the marketplace in society in culture Essays range from the auteur theory and Casablanca to Oscar Micheaux from the American avant garde to community video all illuminating how authorship is a complex idea with far reaching implications This ambitious and wide ranging book will be essential reading for anyone concerned with film studies and the concept of the author Enter at Your Own Risk Leora Lev, 2006 Dennis Cooper has been both praised and censured as the most controversial writer working today for his creation of a searing outlaw textuality that charts psychosexual terrain uncensored by desire police This volume is the first to explore Cooper's significance as a pioneering literary artist who illuminates the hidden or repressed extremities of the fin de millennium American zeitgeist Leora Lev has assembled a roster of internationally acclaimed scholars fiction writers filmmakers and artists who conjure a provocative encounter between Cooper's fiction European transgressive literature and philosophy e g Sade Rimbaud Bataille Bresson and American psychocultural topographies Teens, TV and Tunes Doyle Greene, 2014-01-10 This political analysis of teen culture examines the historical and ideological development of American youth society the economic and ideological relationship between television and popular music and the ideological rivalry between Nickelodeon and Disney More than mere entertainment teen sitcoms and pop music portray a complex and often contradictory set of cultural discourses They engage in a process of ideology marketing and hip versus square politics Case studies include Saved by the Bell Britney Spears the movie School of Rock early pop music sitcoms like The Monkees and The Partridge Family and recent staples of teen culture such as iCarly and Hannah Montana What is occurring in teen culture has a crucial bearing as today's teens age into adulthood and become the dominant generation in the impending decades The Cult Film Experience J. P. Telotte, 2014-02-19 Play it again Sam is the motto of cult film enthusiasts who will watch their favorite movie over and over beyond all reason What is the appeal of cult movies Why do fans turn up in droves at midnight movies or sit through the same three hanky classics from Hollywood's golden era These are some of the questions J P Telotte and twelve other noted film scholars consider in this groundbreaking study of the cult film The book identifies two basic types of cult films older Hollywood movies such as Casablanca that have developed a cult following and midnight movies most notably The Rocky Horror Picture Show Telotte Bruce Kawin and Timothy Corrigan offer thought provoking discussions about why these two types of movies become cult films the sort of audience they attract and the needs they fulfill for that audience Subsequent essays employ a variety of cultural feminist ideological and poststructural strategies for exploring these films In a section on the classical cult film the movie Casablanca receives extensive treatment An essay by T J Ross considers Beat the Devil as a send up of cult films while another essay by Wade Jennings analyzes the cult star phenomenon as personified in Judy Garland. Midnight movie madness is explored in essays on The Rocky Horror Picture Show, movie satires of the 1950s science fiction double features and horror thrillers.
