

A PERFECT CREATOR

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." (Genesis 1:1)

Creation reveals several characteristics of God:

A powerful God: He spoke, and everything was created perfect (Genesis 1:3, 6, 9, 11, 14, 20, 24; Psalm 29)

A committed God: He was not distant, but came close to His creation, spoke to it and touch it (Genesis 1:28-30; 2:7)

A God of order: He didn't create randomly. Every creative act made a way for the next one, until the perfect culmination (Job 34:13)

A creative God: He didn't create everything the same color or shape, but "according to its kind." Every living being is different (Genesis 1:21, 24)

A God of relationships: God established a relationship between humans and the other living beings. He also "walked in the garden" (Genesis 1:28; 3:8)

What can we learn about God through His Creation today (Psalm 19)?
