Frankl and Modern American Design Christopher Long, 2007-01-01 A comprehensive view of the life work and ideas of one of the creative giants of modern American design Arriving in the United States in 1914 Viennese born Paul T Frankl 1886 1958 brought with him an outsider s fresh perspective and an enthusiasm for forging a uniquely American design aesthetic In the years between the two world wars he more than any other designer helped shape the distinctive look of American modernism This authoritative book draws on an extensive collection of unpublished documents and family papers and photographs to provide the first full account of Frankl s life and ideas The book also explores the history of modern American design and the extent of Frankl s influence on its trajectory In the early 1920s Frankl opened a New York City shop that became an epicenter of American modernism Over the next decades his work encompassed everything from individual pieces of furniture and decorative accessories to entire interiors and his style continuously evolved from early Skyscraper furniture to relaxed and casual designs favored by the Hollywood elite in the 1930s to manufactured pieces for the mass market in the 1950s The book charts the impact of Frankl s ideas on merchants and consumers on his fellow designers and on the changing look of American homes and workplaces With close to 170 illustrations Paul T Frankl and Modern American Design is an essential reference on 20th century design Hooked Rugs Cynthia Fowler, 2017-07-05 Through a close look at the history of the modernist hooked rug this book raises important questions about the broader history of American modernism in the first half of the twentieth century Although hooked rugs are not generally associated with the avant garde this study demonstrates that they were a significant part of the artistic production of many artists engaged in modernist experimentation Cynthia Fowler discusses the efforts of Ralph Pearson and of Zoltan and Rosa Hecht to establish modernist hooked rug industries in the 1920s uncovering a previously undocumented history The book includes a consideration of the rural workers used to create the modernist narrative of the hooked rug as cottage industries were established throughout the rural Northeast and South to serve the ever increasing demand for hooked rugs by urban consumers Fowler closely examines institutional enterprises that highlighted and engaged the modernist hooked rugs such as key exhibitions at the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in the 1930s and 40s This study reveals the fluidity of boundaries among art craft and design and the profound efforts of a devoted group of modernists to introduce the general public to the value of modern art

Crafting Identity Sandra Alföldy, 2005-07-26 By contrasting American experience with the Canadian context which includes a unique Quebec identity and a Native dimension Sandra Alföldy argues that the development of organizations advanced education for craftspeople and exhibition and promotional opportunities have contributed to the distinct evolution of professional craft in Canada over the past forty years Alföldy focuses on 1964-74 and the debates over distinctions between professional self taught and amateur craftspeople and between one of a kind and traditional craft objects She deals extensively with key people and events including American philanthropist Aileen Osborn Webb and Canadian philanthropist Joan Chalmers the foundation of the World Crafts Council 1964 and the Canadian Crafts Council 1974 the Canadian Fine Crafts exhibition at Expo 67 and the In Praise of Hands exhibition of 1974 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexploited materials this richly documented survey includes descriptions and illustrations of significant works and identifies the challenges that lie ahead for professional crafts in Canada Makers Janet Koplos, Bruce Metcalf, 2010-07-31 Here is the first comprehensive survey of modern craft in the United States Makers follows the development of studio craft objects in fiber clay glass wood and metal from its roots in nineteenth century reform movements to the rich diversity of expression at the end of the twentieth century More than four hundred illustrations complement this chronological exploration of the American craft tradition Keeping as their main focus the objects and the makers Janet Koplos and Bruce Metcalf offer a detailed analysis of seminal works and discussions of education institutional support and the philosophical underpinnings of craft In a vivid and accessible narrative they highlight the value of physical skill examine craft as a force for moral reform and consider the role of craft as an aesthetic alternative Exploring craft's relationship to fine arts and design Koplos and Metcalf foster a critical understanding of the field and help explain craft's place in contemporary culture Makers will be an indispensable volume for craftspeople curators collectors critics historians students and anyone who is interested in 1995 The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter,2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries American Design in the Twentieth Century Gregory Votolato,1998 Author Greg Votolato presents the intricate story of how design evolved as a profession and a leisure activity Votolato demonstrates that design in affluent American culture is as much about personalization of the material world as it is about the performance and appearance of manufactured goods 114 illustrations Contemporary Crafts Imogen Racz,2009-01-15 This book explores craft practices in both North America and Britain revealing an astonishingly rich and diverse picture of artisanal work today The text ranges across both urban and rural crafts and analyzes how the country city dichotomy creates differing approaches practices and objects Analyzed in the context of their environment and its localized history crafted objects are shown to embody or critique particular urban rural myths and traditions Covering both traditional and cutting edge crafts from the small scale domestic to large outdoor works Contemporary Crafts demonstrates how crafts people today are responding to the changing creative contexts of culture and history The Modern Embroidery Movement Cynthia Fowler,2020-01-23 WINNER OF A CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE AWARD 2018 In the early twentieth century Marguerite Zorach and Georgiana Brown Harbeson were at the forefront of the modern embroidery movement in the United States In the first scholarly examination of their work and influence Cynthia Fowler explores the arguments presented by these pioneering women and their collaborators for embroidery to be considered as art Using key exhibitions and contemporary criticism The Modern Embroidery Movement focuses extensively on the individual work of Zorach and Brown Harbeson casting a new light on their careers Documenting a previously marginalised movement Fowler brings together the history of craft art and women s rights and firmly establishes embroidery as a significant aspect of modern art "Women and the Material Culture of Needlework and Textiles, 1750?950 " MaureenDaly Goggin,2017-07-05 Rejecting traditional notions of what constitutes art this book brings together essays on a variety of fiber arts to recoup women s artistic practices by redefining what counts as art Although scholars over the last twenty years have turned their attention to fiber arts redefining the conditions practices and products as art there is still much work to be done to deconstruct the stubborn patriarchal art craft binary With essays on a range of fiber art practices including embroidery knitting crocheting machine stitching rug making weaving and quilting this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly redefinition of women s relationship to creative activity Focusing on women as producers of cultural products and creators of social value the contributors treat women as active subjects and problematize their material practices and artifacts in the complex world of textiles Each essay also examines the ways in which needlework both performs gender and in turn constructs gender Moreover in concentrating on and theorizing material practices of textiles these essays reorient the study of fiber arts towards a focus on process the making of the object including the conditions under which it was made by whom and for what purpose as a way to rethink the fiber arts as social praxis
