Eyewitness to the Fetterman
Fight John H. Monnett,2017-03-16 The Fetterman Fight ranks among the most crushing defeats suffered by the U S Army in the nineteenth century West On December 21 1866 during Red Cloud s War 1866 1868 a well organized force of 1 500 to 2 000 Oglala Lakota Northern Cheyenne and Arapaho warriors annihilated a detachment of seventy nine infantry and cavalry soldiers among them Captain William Judd Fetterman and two civilian contractors With no survivors on the U S side the only eyewitness accounts of the battle came from Lakota and Cheyenne participants In Eyewitness to the Fetterman Fight award winning historian John H Monnett presents these Native views drawn from previously published sources as well as newly discovered interviews with Oglala and Cheyenne warriors and leaders Supplemented with archaeological evidence these narratives flesh out historical understanding of Red Cloud s War Climate change in the mid nineteenth century made the resource rich Powder River Country in today s Wyoming increasingly important to Plains Indians At the same time the discovery of gold in Montana encouraged prospectors to pass through the Powder River region on their way north and so the U S Army began to construct new forts along the Bozeman Trail In the resulting conflict the Lakotas and Cheyennes defended their hunting ranges and trade routes Traditional histories have laid the blame for Fetterman s 1866 defeat and death on his incompetent leadership and thus implied that the Indian alliance succeeded only because of Fetterman s personal failings Monnett s sources paint another picture Narratives like those of Miniconjou Lakota warrior White Bull suggest that Fetterman s actions were not seen as rash or reprehensible until after the fact Nor did his men flee the field in panic Rather they fought bravely to the end The Indians for their part used their knowledge of the terrain to carefully plan and execute an ambush ensuring them victory Critical to understanding the nuances of Plains Indian strategy and tactics the firsthand narratives in Eyewitness to the Fetterman Fight reveal the true nature of this Native victory against regular army forces confrontation firsthand at the Standing Rock Reservation in North Dakota where Sitting Bull was held then killed Fiske recorded the story as he grew and also kept the glorious past of the Sioux alive with his spectacular photographs of the people and their traditions The story of the Sioux is interwoven with the story of the early years in the life of the multi talented Fiske who attended school at Fort Yates with Indian children He entertained soldiers cowboys and Indians by playing the violin worked as a steamboat cabin boy and helped in the army post s photograph studio Photography proved to be his specialty and when still in his teens he opened his own commercial studio His appreciation of Native American culture led him to photographing the Sioux Fiske s photographs feature prominently in this book and his photographic techniques are explained This thought provoking book documents the dramatic atmosphere where the US Army Mississippi steamboat captains missionaries hard pressed settlers and a host of other characters converged with the American Indians during the westward expansion a critical time in US history when the character of the nation was still being forged

Among the artists examined are Hulleah J. Tsinhnahjinnie, Eric Gansworth, Melanie Printup, Hope Jolene Rickard, and George Longfish.
