Schools of Opportunity Adam York, Kevin Welner, Linda Molner Kelley,2023 The National Education Policy Center s Schools of Opportunity project was designed to highlight public high schools that are using research based practices for closing opportunity gaps in student learning The project recognizes schools that are working to address the needs of all students regardless of their zip codes or their school s average test scores By embracing a shift away from the nation s myopic focus on standardized test scores the program s focus is on inputs access to equitable exemplary policies and practices that students experience every school day not outcomes This follows from research findings that schools alone cannot fix the problems created by the stark inequalities in our society Instead schools should be expected to do their part by responding to inequities with research based practices The book features case studies of schools that demonstrate key criteria that other schools can emulate such as an inclusive school climate support for language minority students performance based assessment teacher professionalism a commitment to detracking and supports for students in need Schools of Opportunity builds an argument for shifting the way that excellent public high schools are recognized and built Book Features Provides accounts of school reform jointly told by researcher practitioner teams connecting current research with successful efforts of educators to create outstanding learning environments Brings together the voices of principals and school leaders who share stories of how their work has unfolded in their school district and state contexts Identifies the school leadership and teacher practices that close opportunity gaps for student learning and what it takes to implement them Contributors Dwane Chapelle Janet Eckerson Lourenco Garcia Matt Garcia Kristen Goessling Kimberly Grayson Jill Gurtner Ted Hamann Ann Ishimaru Mark Larson Julie Mead John Murphy Jeannie Oakes Jeff Palladino Derek Pierce Jenifer Rayne Kellie Rolstad Lorrie Shepard Kate Somerville Michelle Valladares Kathryn Wiley

Creating School Partnerships that Work Frances K. Kochan, Dana M. Griggs,2020-07-01 THIS IS A

UNIQUE BOOK IF YOU CARE ABOUT SCHOOLS AND SCHOOLING AND THE WAY IN WHICH PARTNERSHIPS MAY HELP TO STRENGTHEN AND IMPROVE THEM AND THE INSTITUTIONS THAT PARTNER WITH THEM YOU SHOULD READ IT

School partnerships have a long history in the United States The inception of public schooling was a type of partnership with the community The concept of local school boards and local control was integral to the establishment of schools and the idea that public education was a public good has deep roots in the country Partnerships denote relationships which are mutually beneficial to the parties involved and which result in joint benefits for those who create and engage in them The partnerships presented in this book provide ample evidence of the value and benefits of these arrangements The book contains stories and research about school partnerships from a variety of groups and perspectives which are focused upon multiple issues within educational institutions and communities within the United States The final chapter presents an analysis across all the partnerships to identify the elements that fostered and hindered their success and the primary lessons learned This analysis should provide meaningful information for those engaged in developing and operating similar partnerships or those involved in conducting research on or about them Although the cases presented in this book occur within the United States the findings may also have relevance for similar initiatives in other countries Praise for Creating School Partnerships that Work A Guide for Practice and Research Kudos to Dana Griggs and Frances Kochan for compiling the rich accountings of eight different school partnerships all in one place Readers will learn a great deal from both the individual accountings of a broad array of partnerships as well as the collective analysis of the partnerships and lessons learned across them Creating School Partnerships that Work A Guide for Research and Practice is a must read book for anyone who ever has been is or desires to be involved in any type of school partnership Nancy Fichtman Dana Professor School of Teaching and Learning University of Florida Gainesville Creating School Partnerships that Work A Guide for Research and Practice is a must read for scholars researchers practitioners and community members seeking to identify elements of successful school partnerships that foster students academic and personal successes This edited volume shares stakeholders perspectives on multi dimensional school partnerships which have successfully led to sustained collaborations across diverse purposes that are mutually beneficial for all groups The usefulness of the content analysis presented in the final chapter which identifies elements both fostering and hindering partnerships with recommendations cannot be overstated Mary Barbara Trube Professor Emerita Ohio University Chillicothe Contributing Faculty Dissertation Mentor Walden University Early Childhood Education Adjunct Faculty Florida SouthWestern State College Mentor Early Childhood Consultant ILEAD Xi an Jiaotong Liverpool University INSCOM Journal ,1994 Handbook of Australian School Psychology Monica Thielking,Mark D. Terjesen,2017-01-26 This handbook addresses the current state and practice of school psychology with a focus on standards unique to Australia including historical legal ethical practical and training factors It provides a compilation of the most current research based practices as well as guidelines for evidence based assessment and intervention for common conditions e g autism depression learning disabilities and for delivering appropriate services to targeted student populations e.g. LGBT, gifted, medical issues. Chapters discuss the application of national and international school psychology practices within the Australian educational and psychological structure. The handbook also examines the lack of formal resources specific to Australia's culture and psychology systems with its unique mix of metropolitan cities and the vast geographic landscape that spans regional and remote areas. It offers numerous case studies and innovative school mental health programs as well as recommendations for professional development and advocacy that are unique to Australian school psychology. Topics featured in this Handbook include Evidence-based assessment and intervention for dyscalculia and mathematical disabilities, Identification and management of adolescent risk-taking behaviors and addictions, Understanding and responding to crisis and trauma in the school setting, Prevention and intervention for bullying in schools, Class and school-wide approaches to addressing behavioral and academic needs, The role of school psychologists in the digital age, Practical advice for school psychologists facing complex ethical dilemmas. The Handbook of Australian School Psychology is a must-have resource for researchers, scientist-practitioners and graduate students in child and school psychology, social work and related fields that address mental health services for children and adolescents.

Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices Amzat, Ismail Hussein, 2018-09-07. A successful administrator is one who applies suitable or appropriate leadership styles in various situations or contexts. It is crucial to investigate how effective administrators lead their organizations in challenging and difficult times as well as promote the accomplishments of their organization. Predictive Models for School Leadership and Practices is an essential reference source that discusses academic administration as well as administrative effectiveness in achieving organizational goals. Featuring research on topics such as teacher collaboration, school crisis management and ITC integration, this book is ideally designed for principals, researchers, academics, educational policymakers and teachers seeking coverage on academic leadership and leadership models.

Academic Leadership Marmar Mukhopadhyay, 2023-03-28. This book provides contemporary knowledge on school effectiveness and proposes strategic interventions for enhancing it. It focuses on improving academic leadership for enhancing the effectiveness of schools and discusses how national education policies are helpful in providing a vision towards improving school effectiveness. It highlights the role of teachers as academic leaders in the implementation of policy recommendations at school and classroom levels. It offers methods and mechanisms for academic leaders to measure the learning of students for school assessment. The author also discusses how academic leadership involves creating a vision and mission based on science and research data for the organisation, inspiring innovation and creative ideas, developing teamwork and a safe environment for staff to express their views. While providing an understanding of school as an organization, the volume outlines its management functions such as processes and quality of planning, management of curriculum, learner evaluation, institutional networks and human resource management among others. The volume is a guidebook for training and capacity building for school-level practitioners and leaders in education.

management Embedded with real life cases and episodes this volume will be of interest to teachers students and practitioners of education management and education management It will also be useful for academicians educationalists practitioners management professionals educational leaders and policymakers Preventing and Treating Bullying and Victimization Eric Vernberg, Bridget Biggs, 2010-03-25 Research evidence on bully victim problems has accumulated rapidly in recent years From this there is little doubt that prolonged involvement in bullying as a perpetrator victim or not uncommonly as both a perpetrator and target of bullying conveys risk for many aspects of development As in many emerging areas of psychological science diverse research efforts evolved more or less independently producing a very large and rich body of knowledge but making it difficult to gain a comprehensive integrated view of the overall evidence base Preventing and Treating Bullying and Victimization looks across the sometimes disparate perspectives from school clinical and developmental researchers and professionals with an eye towards describing and integrating current knowledge into a guide for evidence based practices and further research The authors offer new directions for understanding this complex problem and for enhancing intervention approaches This edited book is comprised of three sections Theoretical Perspectives Assessment and Intervention and Recommendations for Policy Practice and Research It is of interest to a number of professions and disciplines including clinical developmental counseling and school psychologists social workers school administrators and educators and public officials involved in setting policies Student Activities in Today's Schools Edward J. Klesse, 2004 What are student activities Why do schools have student activity groups What are the benefits for students schools and communities These are some of the questions that Student Activities in Today's Schools addresses Klesse has reviewed relevant educational research to provide an overview of the essential learning for all youth that is available from participation What are those benefits and who benefits Why don't all young people participate Are there ways to make student activity programs in schools more inclusive What will these programs look like in 5 10 and 15 years Schools must educate and develop our youth to meet the challenge of participation and survival in a global economy The skills learned through student activities provide the foundation for adult participation as citizens of our democracy So how do we best prepare our young people for the future Read this book to find out The Connecticut School Journal, 1874
