Creating A Progressive Rural Structure:

Improving Marketing Systems in Developing Countries Martin Kriesberg,1972 , Integrated Rural Development John M. Cohen,1987 The Java that Never was Hans Antlöv,Jörgen Hellman,2005 This book is about how cultures and societies on Java over the past century have been perceived and socially constructed by scholars inside and outside of Indonesia It is a reflective book how on the one hand academic theories have shaped our view of Java and on the other hand how the study of Java has influenced theoretical developments within a number of disciplines including anthropology development studies religious studies political science gender studies and the arts BOOK JACKET To Create a Modern Agriculture: Organization and Planning Arthur Theodore Mosher,1971 Economic Planning and Social Justice in Developing Countries Ozay Mehmet,2014-05-12 First published in 1978 this book was written at a time when belief was high in Western guided economic development of the emerging countries The success of Marshall Plan in war torn Europe generated a US led optimism that with generous inflows of aid and technical assistance the Third World could be won over in the Cold War The author s direct experience as a young academic economist in Cyprus Malaysia Uganda and Liberia led him to question this general optimism the reality on the ground in the developing world did not seem to match Western optimism Theories and blueprints made in the West did not fit the requirements of developing countries Higher production and better income distribution were inseparable twin objectives of developing nations That meant production of a higher national output must at the same time promote social justice Investment must create adequate jobs so that new entrants into rapidly expanding labor force could be gainfully employed Yet the dominant Western theories of development at the time in particular the Trickle Down Theory of Growth prescribed Growth First Distribution Later strategy Similarly Import Substitution Industrialization theories were emphasized at the expense of export led growth Dualistic Growth theories preached urban biased anti rural development This book was written as a rebuttal of such faulty theorizing and misguided professional technical assistance and the book s message is no less valid today than in the 1970 s Decentralized Multilevel Planning K. V. Sundaram,1997 Investment and Input Requirements for Accelerating Food Production in Low-income Countries by 1990 ,1979 Research report on investment requirements for accelerating food production to meet food requirements of thirty six low income food deficient developing countries discusses trends since 1975 and projections to 1990 as well as food policy implications analyses the inputs required e g Irrigation fertilizers research etc and considers technological change and choice of technology Bibliography pp 170 to 178 graphs references and statistical tables Experiences in Rural Development Tekola Dejene,Scott E. Smith,1973 Annotated bibliography of monographic materials and periodical articles published since the early 1960 s in English and French on rural development in Africa includes publications on planning administrative aspects plan implementation evaluation etc Sustainable Agricultural Systems Edwards,2020-11-25 A unique look at how the adoption of sustainable farming methods is being pursued throughout the world This comprehensive book provides clear insight into research and education needs and the many points of view that come to bear on the issue of sustainability Essential for agricultural leaders in research education conservation policy making and anyone else interested in creating an economically and environmentally sustainable agriculture worldwide

Administration of Agricultural Development United States. Agency for International Development. Office of Development Administration,1971 Routledge Library Editions: Development Mini-Set I: Planning and Development Various,2022-09-04 Routledge Library Editions Development will re issue works which address economic political and social aspects of development Published over more than four decades these books trace the emergence of development as one of the most important contemporary issues and one of the key areas of study for modern social science The books cover the most important themes within development and include studies of Latin America Africa and Asia Authors include Sir Alexander Cairncross W Arthur Lewis Lord Peter Bauer and Cristobal Kay An extensive collection of previously hard to access or out of print books this set presents an unrivalled opportunity to build up a wealth of material in the field of development studies with a particular focus upon economic and political concerns The volumes in the collection offer both a global overview of the history of development in the twentieth century and a huge variety of case studies on the development of individual nations For institutional purchases for e book sets please contact online sales tandf co uk customers in the UK Europe and Rest of World Organizing for Agricultural Development William Foote Whyte,2024-12-15 There is increasing recognition even among hard nosed agricultural scientists that progress in technology and in the scientific fields directly related to the growth of plants is necessary but not sufficient to produce major social and economic benefits Agricultural scientists are therefore turning to behavioral scientists for advice and collaboration they must search together for the solutions to problems of food shortages and rural development Through an analysis of the procedures of agricultural extension agents organizational frameworks divisions of labor and social structures William Foote Whyte proposes a reformulation of social theory that does not abandon humanistic values but requires us to examine the conditions and agencies for realization of these values by concentration upon the structural elements influencing behavior in agrarian societies Only then can technological and agricultural innovations be introduced to rural areas with success Foreign Agricultural Economic Report ,1973 The Crisis of Development and Interdependence United States. Congress. House. Foreign Affairs Committee,1974 The Crisis of Development and Interdependence United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs.
