countless homes around the world behind glass cases and upon carefully arranged shelves a silent army of porcelain faces gazes out with painted eyes that have witnessed decades sometimes centuries of human history These are the dolls that have captured hearts sparked imaginations and created a passionate community of collectors who understand that these miniature figures represent far more than mere playthings The world of doll collecting transcends age gender and cultural boundaries uniting individuals through a shared appreciation for craftsmanship history and the ineffable quality that transforms molded materials into beloved companions From the humblest cloth creation to the most elaborate bisque masterpiece dolls have served as mirrors of their times reflecting fashion trends social customs and artistic movements while simultaneously preserving childhood memories and adult dreams The appeal of doll collecting lies not merely in the acquisition of objects but in the stories they tell and the connections they forge Each doll carries within its construction the fingerprints of its maker

the dreams of its original owner and the journey it has traveled through time For collectors discovering a rare Jumeau in a dusty antique shop or finding the missing piece to complete a beloved set brings a joy that rivals any treasure hunt This fascination with dolls as collectibles has deep psychological roots Child development experts have long recognized that dolls serve as crucial tools for emotional development allowing children to practice nurturing behaviors and work through complex feelings This nurturing instinct doesn't simply disappear in adulthood instead it often transforms into the careful preservation and appreciation of these objects that once facilitated such important developmental milestones

Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor, Heather Akou, Nicola Stylianou, 2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities

More Than a Doll Jodi Bondi Norgaard, 2025-01-21 When Jodi Bondi Norgaard an experienced entrepreneur attempted to shake up the toy industry with a sports doll that appeals to today's more athletic adventurous girls she came to realize the roadblocks to success weren't only reluctant toy buyers but a patriarchal culture that perpetuates gender roles and sexism More Than a Doll is about her mission to break gender stereotypes and challenge the status quo Through illuminating testimonials data research interviews and cultural observations readers will come away with clear examples of the dangers of early gender stereotyping and how we continue to fail to see the harm After all It's just a toy It's just a t-shirt It's just a show Bondi Norgaard is sounding the siren that gender inequality doesn't begin in our teens it begins the moment a child can hold a toy or book or watch a screen The programming starts early and the impact is lifelong
