Work Appropriation and Social Inequality Antonia Kupfer, 2021-09-07 This volume is a collection of subject oriented studies on paid work Each chapter refers to the social structures that form conditions for peoples working contexts and interprets workers and employees narrations on work Work appropriation a process of formation of subjectivity in which workers and employees relate to the social status of their occupations and the use value of their work in actively dealing with the work s content and conditions serves as a comprehensive concept for each varying subject oriented approach in the volume Work Appropriation and Social Inequality focuses on social inequality understood as the distribution of life chances that privilege some and discriminate others and reveals the unequal conditions for and outcomes of work appropriation By analyzing work appropriation it uses a broader concept than that of meaning of work or meaningful work as it includes the practice and processes of working The volume s subject oriented approach to work differs from the stream subjectivation in going beyond individuals desires for self realization in work and to companies requirements of accessing emotional and personal dimensions of their workforce The volume contains three parts the first lays out basic approaches to work appropriation and social inequality the second analyses current threats to work appropriation in the UK and Germany and the third consists of a philosophical outlook on work in the Anthropocene The book s impact lies in pushing forward the debate on how work appropriations are linked to unequal social structures It will therefore appeal to social scientists interested in social inequality sociology of work and organization as well as students and teachers at the undergraduate and graduate level in the areas of social sciences Creating Breakthrough Products Jonathan Cagan,Craig M. Vogel,2002 Creating Breakthrough Products describes the new forces driving product development that companies must master if they want to lead and innovate It is a step by step guide to the new ideal in product development Meaningful Work Andrea Veltman,2016 This book develops the view that meaningful work is central in human flourishing The author defends a pluralistic account of what makes work meaningful arguing that work can be meaningful in virtue of developing capabilities supporting virtues providing a purpose or integrating elements of a worker s life Rebuilding and Restructuring the Tourism Industry: Infusion of Happiness and Quality of Life Perinotto, André Riani Costa,Mayer, Verônica Feder,Soares, Jakson Renner Rodrigues,2021-06-25 Travel is widely acknowledged as an activity that increases individuals levels of well being Nevertheless the relationship between happiness and tourism is still a matter of investigation Despite the overall beneficial effects of travel on happiness levels tourism is not an activity with solely positive implications on peoples lives Therefore it is crucial to understand how happiness manifests through tourism and how it can be expanded to different tourism actors such as tourists workers and communities The search for ways and methods to enhance the levels of happiness and well being has grown significantly in recent years Happiness and quality of life are timely issues and have become even more relevant due to the significant impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic Rebuilding and Restructuring the Tourism Industry Infusion of Happiness and Quality of Life is a critical references source that examines the fundamental relationship between tourism happiness and quality of life This book discusses relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest findings from empirical research in happiness well being and quality of life related tourism Focusing on topics such as neurotourism PERMA theory the economics of happiness tourism employment opportunity and overtourism this book will intrigue scholars working in hospitality tourism destination management economics marketing sociology anthropology and health sciences as well as managers travel agencies restaurateurs hotel managers and professionals who want to improve their understanding of the relationship between tourism and happiness providing them with tools to develop better and sustainable practices for the sector Glow Lynda Gratton,2009-04-13 For every new project or high profile assignment there is a mile long line of wannabes waiting to grab the brass ring But those consistently at the forefront have something truly extraordinary in common You know them at first sight teammates or colleagues direct reports or bosses who radiate enthusiasm positive energy and inspiration Even when confronted with circumstances that work against them they Glow with an attitude that inspires others fosters a great working experience for themselves and everyone around them and creates empowering relationships And Lynda Gratton can make sure you re one of them In her book Hot Spots Gratton explored how pockets of energy and innovation are created in organizations Now she zeroes in on how you can become a source of energy and innovation yourself Drawing on years of original research Gratton identifies three principles that people who Glow live by they cultivate a cooperative mind set they are adept at reaching across traditional boundaries what Lynda calls jumping across worlds to gain great new ideas and powerful insights and they are able to ignite inspiration and energy in others For each principle Gratton outlines three actions anyone can take to put it into practice illustrated with dozens of examples and personal stories Easy to use tools enable you to evaluate where you are now and measure your progress Success isn't about just working harder there's always someone out there who will put in longer hours But if you can learn to Glow you will add tremendous value to your organization in a way that will make your work more satisfying and fulfilling
