Creation Secular Jewish Catholic Protestant And Muslim Perspectives Analyzed:

The Creation Everett Jenkins, 2003 The Creation Everett Jenkins, 2003 The major monotheistic religions of the world Judaism Christianity and Islam have certain elements in common particularly in their scriptures concerning the beginnings of life and the early history of human beings This shared beginning is compellingly worth further study Common ground and common threads can only help a dialogue between people of different faiths This reference work could be a tool toward greater understanding of other faiths and focuses on the story of the creation of the universe and of humans Part One traces the development of the earth and its inhabitants from a scientific viewpoint so that the humanistic perspective may be contrasted with the scriptural accounts to follow Part Two features an introduction to the Tanakh information on the Torah and what is known about its authors and other influences on the Jewish religion followed by actual scriptures from the Torah from the creation through the destruction of the Tower of Babel Then a section each is devoted to an explanation of the Catholic Protestant and Fundamentalist Christian interpretations of these stories citing scripture as appropriate Part Three affords a Muslim perspective with excerpts from the Sirah that refer to events and characters from the early chapters of Genesis The appendices are rich various chronologies of similar events based on the different scriptures tables of contents for the various holy books tables presenting summaries of a particular perspective on a subject or comparisons between two perspectives and much more

The Muslim Diaspora (Volume 1, 570-1500) Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2015-05-07 This first volume covers the development of Islam in the period from the birth of Muhammad in C E 570 through 1500 during which Islam grew to dominate the area which has come to be known as the Middle East Along with their religion Muslims carried their culture their goods and their innovations to the far corners of the globe Their contributions to Western civilization such as new kinds of agriculture irrigation oranges sugarcane cotton manufactured goods satin rugs paper perfumes and technology astrolabe compass lateen sail are set out in detail

Pan-African Chronology III Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2011-02-28 This third volume of the Pan African Chronology set covers 1914 through 1929 a time of two seminal events World War I and the Black Awakening In World War I people of African descent fought for both sides earning distinction on the battlefields of France as well as in the jungles and deserts of Africa The Black Awakening a period from 1919 through 1929 marked the dawning of global awareness of the contributions of African people to the culture of the world The book is arranged by year and events of each year are grouped by region It also has two special biographical divisions for W E B DuBois and Marcus Garvey

Pan-African Chronology I Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2024-10-16 The 1400s were a pivotal time in the history of Africans The Songhai Empire rose to prominence and new city states arose in Hausaland Yorubaland and Benin One of the most significant developments however was European and Asian exploration of the continent and the rapid expansion of the slave trade By the end of the century African slaves could be found from India to the Indies and the foundation was laid for a peculiar institution that would last for over 400 years From the time of the first European expeditions to Africa to the end of slavery in the United States this work chronicles the most significant events in African Pan African and African American history Many of the entries e g Columbus discovery of America and the death of Toussaint L Ouverture are supplemented by brief historical accounts that set the event in context There are extensive see references to related happenings Baptized into God A.A. Walker,2014-05-08 This book is an intriguing study on two controversial topics baptism in the name of Jesus Christ and the oneness of God Baptism has been a theme of contention for many centuries yet the Biblical and historical records teach us the simplicity of this topic The second area of fiery debate revolves around the identity of God and the monotheistic cry of the Scripture Being both a research oriented and scholarly publication the reader will find themselves being challenged as they are confronted with the truth from the Bible and the witness of history while reclining at the metaphorical table of scholarly disputation This work is for the hungry heart the academic mind the inquisitive lovers of the Scripture and those with questions that need to be addressed As the reader is challenged to explore the evidence with the author the testimony of scholarship and most importantly the veracity of the Word they will find themselves in a position calling them to respond to such discoveries This study will trouble stagnant waters and compel the reader to consider the unequivocal GodJesus Christ Pan-African Chronology II Everett Jenkins, Jr.,2011-02-28 This continuation volume of the Pan African Chronology set covers the most significant events in the African diaspora from the end of the American Civil War through the pre World War I years This was a time of great change for black Americans Reconstruction the founding of the NAACP the formation of the separate but equal doctrine and the migration of blacks from the rural South to Northern cities The eradication of slavery as a legalized institution was finally realized in the Americas while the struggle to end it in Asia was also taking place European colonialism in Africa was accelerated ironically coinciding with humanitarian efforts to end the slave trade on the African continent These events and many others are covered here The Bible, Homer, and the Search for Meaning in Ancient Myths John Heath,2019-04-29 The Bible Homer and the Search for Meaning in Ancient Myths explores and compares the most influential sets of divine myths in Western culture the Homeric pantheon and Yahweh the God of the Old Testament Heath argues that not only does the God of the Old Testament bear a striking resemblance to the Olympians but also that the Homeric system rejected by the Judeo Christian tradition offers a better model for the human condition The universe depicted by Homer and populated by his gods is one that creates a unique and powerful responsibility almost directly counter to that evoked by the Bible for humans to discover ethical norms accept death as a necessary human limit develop compassion to mitigate a tragic existence appreciate frankly both the glory and dangers of sex and embrace and respond courageously to an indifferent universe that was clearly not designed for human dominion Heath builds on recent work in biblical and classical studies to examine the contemporary value of mythical deities Judeo Christian theologians over the millennia have tried to explain away Yahweh s Olympian nature while dismissing the Homeric deities for the same reason Greek philosophers abandoned them they don t live up to preconceptions of what a deity should be In particular the Homeric gods are disappointingly plural anthropomorphic and amoral at best But Heath argues that Homer s polytheistic apparatus challenges us to live meaningfully without any help from the divine In other words to live well in Homer s tragic world an insight gleaned by Achilles the hero of the Iliad one must live as if there were no gods at all The Bible Homer and the Search for Meaning in Ancient Myths should change the conversation academics in classics biblical studies theology and philosophy have especially between disciplines about the gods of early Greek epic while reframing on a more popular level the discussion of the role of ancient myth in shaping a thoughtful life      Reference & User Services Quarterly ,2003      The Lives of Animals in Words and Images Željko Uvanović,Suzana Marjanić,2025-06-26 This Animal Studies collection unravels the complex ways we represent non humans across cultures and media but primarily focusing on their image in literature and film From Noah s Ark to the haunting imagery in Hitchcock s The Birds this book probes the ethical and symbolic roles creatures play in our lives It examines everything from the portrayal of insects in ancient texts to the depiction of cats as villains in Disney films Each chapter challenges our perceptions inviting readers to reflect on the cultural significance of animals in today s world Examine your perspectives on anthropocentrism and anthropomorphism in documentary filmmaking confront the legal and ethical dilemmas of animals in entertainment and ponder the harsh realities of animals exploited for human gain From ancient religious scriptures to contemporary film adaptations this meticulously curated collection of essays delves into the symbolic ethical and cultural significance of non human creatures in our still speciesist global society      Choice ,2003      Nationalism, Language, and Identity in India A P Ashwin Kumar,2019-08-21 This book examines linguistic nationalism in India It focuses on the emergence of language as a marker of identity by analysing themes such as Linguistic Reorganization of States nationalism philology and linguistic identity Formulating a novel conception of doxastic nature of community experience the author presents a theory about nationalism as a cultural phenomenon by studying the constraints of western theological apparatuses that limit our understanding of it The book looks at how an ecclesiastical notion of community is at the heart of the debate around linguistic and national identity something that is redefining politics the world over This volume will be useful for scholars and researchers of political studies political sociology sociology historical linguistics and cultural studies      American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S. Wynar,2004 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering      The Army Chaplaincy ,1997      Processes and Perspectives; Sacred and Secular D. George Harrison,2011-04-12 PROCESSES AND PERSPECTIVES deals with the evolution creation issue but in a different manner from the usual mainstream works As a retired professional biologist and Christian I defend Darwins basic concepts of natural selection and disagree with the creationists perspective on Darwin in general and this topic specifically This work focuses on modern science and scriptures commonalities by examining the full range of meaning for the Genesis Hebrew words and the most current legitimate science As a result there are many new insights into science and the Genesis story Also addressed are random chance falsification literalism and other related issues This book not only demonstrates to religious and secular skeptics that the concept of organic and inorganic evolution is perfectly valid but that the Genesis account is also valid if read without all the historic and current presumptions This work violates only both sides preconceived notions and entrenched misunderstandings of each other There is no scripture twisting or alternative science used to show the commonalities of the two on this subject This work does not isolate one from the other This is about building a legitimate functioning bridge between the two groups This topic has fascinated me ever since I saw my first prehistoric animals book in 4th grade I am a retired U S Government scientist Oceanographer Ecologist Biologist and a retired U S Air Force Reserves Lieutenant Colonel Missile Launch Officer Science Officer I am also a Christian specifically a Southern Baptist Consequently with these affiliations I have seen and heard much about the Genesis and science conflict from both sides Because of this I accumulated references over some 30 years strictly for my own interest However this interest eventually took on a life of its own and became a manuscript

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Sander L. Gilman, 2014-11-01 Islam Christianity and Judaism share several common features including their historical origins in the prophet Abraham their belief in a single divine being and their modern global expanse Yet it is the seeming closeness of these Abrahamic religions that draws attention to the real or imagined differences between them This volume examines Abrahamic cultures as minority groups in societies which may be majority Muslim Christian or Jewish or self consciously secular The focus is on the relationships between these religious identities in global Diaspora where all of them are confronted with claims about national and individual difference The case studies range from colonial Hong Kong and Victorian London to today s San Francisco and rural India Each study shows how complex such relationships can be and how important it is to situate them in the cultural ethnic and historical context of their world The chapters explore ritual practice conversion colonization immigration and cultural representations of the differences between the Abrahamic religions An important theme is how the complex patterns of interaction among these religions embrace collaboration as well as conflict even in the modern Middle East This work by authors from several academic disciplines on a topic of crucial importance will be of interest to scholars of history theology sociology and cultural studies as well as to the general reader interested in how minority groups have interacted and coexisted This is a groundbreaking collection of original learned and cutting edge essays on various aspects of the three major monotheistic religions in modern times The subjects of the essays range across the globe from Hong Kong and South Asia to Victorian Britain and Weimar Germany and teach us to see each tradition and all three traditions together in new and original ways A distinctive contribution Steven T Katz Boston University Judaism Christianity and Islam is remarkable for bringing together accessible scholarly essays each with keen insight exploring the diverse Abrahamic cultures and their complex interactions As the human landscape of Europe continues to evolve this superb series of engagements with the past and present is an indispensable guide Michael Berkowitz University College London Gilman remains an unparalleled expert at identifying cutting edge interdisciplinary research The essays in this superb volume provide urgently needed comparative and theoretical examinations of the constructed natures of Christianity Islam and Judaism and the complex and challenging relationships they engender Lisa Silverman University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Islam and Politics John L. Esposito, 1998-08-01 Altering Nature B. A. Lustig, B.A. Brody, Gerald P. McKenny, 2008-11-01 B Andrew Lustig Baruch A Brody and Gerald P McKenny In this second volume of the Altering Nature project we situate specific religious and policy discussions of four broad areas of biotechnology within the context of our interdisciplinary research on concepts of nature and the natural in the first volume Altering Nature Concepts of Nature and the Natural in Biotechnology Debates In the first volume we invited five groups of scholars to explore the diverse conceptions of nature and the natural that shape moral judgments about human alterations of nature as especially exemplified by recent developments in biotechnology A careful reading of such developments reveals that assessments of them whether positive or negative are often informed by different conceptual interpretations of nature and the natural with differing implications for judgments about the appropriateness of particular alterations of nature These varying interpretations of nature and the natural often result from the distinctive perspectives that characterize various scholarly disciplines Therefore in an effort to explore the variety of meanings that attend discussions of the concepts of nature and the natural the contributors to the first volume of Altering Nature addressed those concepts from five different disciplinary vantages A first group of scholars analyzed a range of religious and spiritual perspectives on concepts of nature and the natural Their research highlighted the thematic historical and methodological touchstones in those traditions that shape their perspectives on nature
